

JESUS SPEAKS
YEARS XIII, XIV, XV

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

The decree of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, A.A.S., 58, 1186 (approved by Pope Paul VI on October 14, 1966) states that the Nihil Obstat and Imprimatur are no longer required on publications that deal with private revelations, provided they contain nothing contrary to faith and morals. The author wishes to manifest her unconditional submission to the final and official judgment of the magisterium of the church to which she humbly submits.

Mantra: Let go and let God. Let go and let God.....

Here I am Lord, I've come to do your will.

Jesus Speaks Year Thirteen

488) Oh child, praising God is a full-time life passion. You can never praise enough and yet God is still satisfied with your loving praises.

You live in a world full of beauty. You are so blessed. Use it wisely. It is also beautiful in your eyes because you have such faith and gratitude to God for His blessings. You have brought Me into your home. You saturate your house with images and reminders of Me. My Father is pleased and has blessed you greatly. You have only to look around you to see and feel His loving protection for you.

Continue to pray and offer your daily discomforts to Him. There are many who suffer silently and you can help them as they come to you for friendship and understanding and a listening ear. Reach out to Me when you struggle for the right words. Don't be nervous about reaching out through phone calls and emails and even feedback. Show that you care.

The deep-seated longing cannot be satisfied on earth but you can reach out for others and touch them in spirit. (Ephesians 4:1-6)

489) Feast of the Visitation – I feel as if I have been away from You for a long time and I need so desperately to sit in Your presence and just breath.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Come child, sit with Me and enter My peace. Release those pent-up emotions and let Me soothe your soul. Reach for Me Child, reach – but you will find I am sitting right here beside you. Rest your head on My shoulder and feel the peace.

There is a spark, or moment, and the soul enters the body of a seed of a child and everything they need for life is there. Not even a second but a time set aside by God for that very person to begin a journey. A journey with a specific destiny. The winds of the world whirl around, the storms come, the sun burst through and the path remains to be followed. There are missteps and solid footings. There are doubts and determinations. There are pot holes and quiet moments, where the vessel of life speeds across the calm waters. Connect with Me in all those experiences. Feel Me in all those seconds of life. Reach for Me and find Me.

As one moment, one day, one year, one lifetime surges on – I am there to lead you home to Me. My path for you could be long or extremely short but it is My path. My wish is to have you follow it, follow Me. I will never desert you. Reach for Me.

490) Before 8:30 Mass – Did you come for food and refreshment? Ah, you have come to the table set before you. A table like no other. Food, yes, for the body, yes, but more for the soul. Your soul is hungry for the bread that can sustain it forever. Hungry for what the world cannot give. My Body is the life you need. Take and eat and live.

491) When does this end. Lord? How can I help when it is so difficult just to cope? You sent so many plagues to the Egyptians and even then, they pursued their evil. They were washed only by You and Your Red Sea miracle. Do we wait for Your deliverance? Do we actively respond and foment more problems? How do I pray so that it has the most benefit to end this holocaust of values? Bring me to Your feet, Lord, so I may serve You best there.

Can you not have patience? All in good time. There is purpose to everything. Good arises from all that happens even when it seems the most dismal. My workers are bringing peace and changing lives despite all you hear. Your own troubles are a result of the influence of the world on values. Less talking and more listening. This forces the talkers to listen to themselves.

492) Adoration, Immaculate Conception Church – Oftentimes life seems insurmountable but it is then I am closest to you. I am your home, I hold your heart, I come to you in your darkest hour. Offer it all to Me and I will reward you greatly. Do not come to Me empty handed. Bring your troubles, your heartaches, your pain, and your suffering. Also, you must bring your prayers, your sacrifices, your good actions, your kindnesses, and your love. I receive them all and together we celebrate our friendship. Years are but an earthly measurement of time. There will be no time when you at last come fully to Me. You will then understand why and how your suffering was given. We will not be separated. The fullness of your life of devotion to Me, to My Heart, to My Mother – all will be celebrated. Your missteps, your desire to be sinless, your concerns about an imperfect life – all will be rectified because of your efforts to be close to Me.

493) Oh God, help me to understand Your ways. Help me to make use of all You have given me to use for Your honor and glory. Deliver me from evil and guide me on the right path. I need the gifts of Your Holy Spirit to continue serving You. I need Your guidance. Send Your Light that I might not stumble. Please, I Pray, keep my children and their families close to You always. Do not abandon us.

Oh, My child, your life is but a short moment in the time of the world. You have made many good decisions and worked diligently to uphold My Word to others and especially to your family. Sometimes your efforts fall on deaf ears and hardened hearts, like the seeds among the thorns. Still, they are sewn, and some good will come of it.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

494) Adoration – Put away your current thoughts and look at Me. I am here for you now as always. Drop the thoughts that tear us apart. Close in on My Heart where you reside. Life is a suffering and I have prepared you for it. Take what you have treasured and share it with others. There is time for you to rectify all wrongs and to bring the peace you have so longed for.

Peace child, peace be to you. Rest, child, rest in the love of Me. I shall always, always, be here for you. Sing My song and rest in Me.

495) Adoration – I come today with a heavy heart, oh Lord. I am so disturbed by all that has happened in the last few months. I want to hibernate and wake up to a fresh new world.

Soon child. If I comfort you, will you relax and accept that I am still in charge? You worry about things that are passing. You asked for a return of your children to Me and so they shall. Each in their own way. I am never away from them. I am never away from you.

Where do I go from here?

Time is healing. Prayer and sacrifice are healing. Fasting is healing. Mass, the Sacraments, devotions, the Rosary – all are healing. Come to Me often and ask for healing and grace. Continue to pray for My direction.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

496) First Friday and St. Theresa – Month of the Holy Rosary.

Gratitude!

Open wide your arms and accept the future unabashedly. Give of yourself. Give of your largesse. Give of your spiritual life and never cease praying.

*I can't do my best, Lord, I can only do Your best.
Such a gift!*

I bring a newness to your lives. A share in the Resurrection. Blessings of a different sort will soon display themselves. With your eyes and arms wide open to accept them, be expecting miracles, a newness, a sense of early morning dewfall, the promise of a new dawn, a new day – a rainbow of giving, a time for repentance, a time for sharing. Do not lose a day of living life to the fullest. Your earthly life is short compared to eternity. It is not a duration but a time to be productive. Make each day a prayer.

497) Adoration – What joy we have in being together! Set with Me awhile and rest.

Children are My gift to the world. They are not all easy to raise and often cause contention among the family members. Some are sickly and consume the family resources. Some demand attention and cause friction when they don't get it. Others are more easily molded and become the peacemakers and the leaders. Each experience in life builds on the person they become as adults. Lives can always be molded by prayer. Prayer transcends the time, place, and circumstances. Prayer unites and does not divide. Prayer is the Job's Ladder to Me. All prayers are answered. All prayers are forever. Do not cease praying. Do not be discouraged, but petition even harder when life becomes difficult.

498) I am here, Lord. Please make use of me.

Your prayers, child, are heard, your prayers are listened to by all in Heaven. The graces of prayers and sacraments and offerings are distributed as the Blessed Mother feels the need. You do not see the good you do.

Quiet is often the answer to a prayer. Sometimes quiet is the prayer. Sometimes quiet is the offering. Find God in the quiet. Find Me in the faces of others. Find the Spirit in the rumblings of your soul. You are never without Me.

Your sufferings are many. Your spirit is goodness. Patience is needed. The saints are all available to help you. Do not feel guilt when you call upon them. Let them guide you. Sometimes My foot steps are shaped like a cross. That is when your urges to follow will be stronger but more difficult. Do not be afraid. I am with you now and always.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Hallowed be the name of God. Praise Him always. Pursue Him relentlessly.

499) Adoration – Love, that is what I want of the world. We are all part of My Father’s plan. Enter into the planning of each person as the families traverse the centuries. Look at how diverse the world has become. We contain pieces of all who went before us. As those pieces are assembled in a new human being, they become unique. My own family was so diverse as to have sinners and saints. I brought forth all of those diversities when I was conceived by My Mother. I also brought forth the pure, radiant, goodness of My Father. What a heritage!

My Mother understood this and raised Me to be God and man. She was given much by My Father in anticipation of My birth. My perfect Mother, My Immaculate Mother, her heart increased so as to take in everyone in the world throughout the years of the earth – but still her heart is caring of all the angels in heaven. All her heart wants to do is to please Me. She will go to any length to bring Me souls. There is a bottomless pit of love and goodness that radiates from her. You do well to follow in her image. Walk with her. It is not an easy walk, but one of hardships and pain. All gladly welcomed as her way of loving and honoring Me. Such faith she carried with her! Such prudence in all she said and did! I could feel her love and nearness before she ever touched Me. Her spirit filled every space when she was near Me. Such joy! You do well to pray to her. She is always listening for heartfelt prayers. She is always ready to answer prayers. She beseeches Me and My Father constantly to answer prayers, to lighten the load we bear. Yes, she asked to lighten My load by taking all for herself. Such love, such selflessness. Emulate her. Follow her as she is always with Me. Invite her to your conversations with your children. Invite her into communion with your friends. Bring her to your dinner table. As long as she is a part of your life, you need not fear. Come now – sit with Me and I will bring My Mother. Breath us into your very being.

500) Chapel – Where are You, Lord? I feel You, I want You, I love You. Where are You, Lord? I pray. I go to church. I receive the Sacraments. I assist others. Where are You, Lord? I need to feel You. I need to clear the fog, the cloud, the thickness away and be with You. Why can't I find You in my daily life, in my prayers, in my mind? Where are You, Lord?

Hope in the Lord.

Lord, I hope in Thee.

Have faith and believe in Me.

I do Lord, I have faith in You and I believe in You.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Come to Me.

I am here, Lord.

My Mother also comes with Me. She comforts you in your distress. She cares for you in your weakness. Her touch is palpable. She faced such difficulties, so many hardships, so much hatred; but she never ever stopped loving those who mistreated Me. She saved many from the death of hell. Her love radiates into a world turned cold. Her presence is everywhere just as I am. Rely on her to ease your sorrow and your frustrations. Just love, that is as much a purpose as anything else you do. Just love.

501) Adoration – Take My love for you. Soar with it, reach for the Heavens and enter My Heart anew. Let Me warm you so that you are never cold with heartbreak and loneliness again. Push aside the worries and tears. Only joy awaits you. You cannot imagine Heaven.

Ground yourself and your sister in Me. Say the Hail Mary and bring down the graces from My Mother. Sing her praises and thus sing Mine. We are family – remember, we are all family. When you are distressed, plopp yourself in the center of MY Earthly family and allow the peace and love to wash over you. This is your home, at My home in Nazareth. Bring us to your home and we will also abide with you.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

You have made yourself a safe haven to worship, praise, and pray. Do not hesitate to pull us into prayer with you. Such is My wish – to pray with My earthly family. Nothing pleases Me more than being surrounded by prayer and love. Even on the Cross, the love and prayers of My Mother encircled the pain and I was able to bear it. She and I shared the pain and prayed together as I hung there. Join us now in family prayer and never be lonely or depressed.

Bring your love and your longing to us as we pray together. Peace be with you always until you rest in Me. I love you to your depths, revel in it. Touch the tassel of My cloak in prayer and be healed.

502) Morning prayers with Our Lady at her altar – (in my home.)

Enter the time of war.

Our Lady of Peace, pray for us.

Enter the time of uncertainty

Jesus, have mercy.

Pray unceasingly that My Father's anger abates. Pray that His love swallows the world and eliminates hatred, greed, and war. Pray for the end of the devil's reign.

503) Tuesday before Ash Wednesday–
Adoration – What a state the world is in Lord.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

How ever can we compensate for the evil that seems to continue to confront and destroy. It is a joy to see the response of good people and to know that so many prayers are being said to end the injustices in the world. Please add my own to the voice being raised for peace.

Peace cannot come as long as people only give Me lip service. Acts, charity, compassion, care-taking, are all part of prayers. Peace is easy if everyone loves. Greed, power, control, are all evils that the devil sends to push people away from Me. Keep praying. Keep petitioning My Mother. Most of all, love.

The atrocities you are seeing are the final works of the devil as he flees from the areas where prayer is rampant. Prayer weakens his power which he is only allowed to use for a short time. People must change their lives. They must look toward Heaven and ask forgiveness. They must begin to act with mercy and charity toward others, not just their friends but all others.

Bring Me those lost in a material world. Bring Me those relying on social media for their love and protection. Bring Me those who are unable to find the right path. I will shelter them. I will round them up and lead them into the arms of My waiting father.

Take part in celebrations of the Mass. Take part in being a beacon of hope for others. Become the lighted candle in the darkness.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

Introduce others to prayers. Do not be afraid to draw others into your prayer life. Make your home a haven for those desperate for a spiritual outlet. Bring peace to others and it will spread to the world.

Jesus Speaks Year Fourteen

504) Chapel - Thoughts -

When God the Father created the world, He had His Son in mind. Jesus so loved the world His Father had created for Him. After God made Adam and Eve, Jesus was delighted at the love His Father had shown in such beautiful creations. Adam's sin so distressed Jesus and He grieved at the wrong done by those God, His Father, had created with such love. Jesus so loved His father that He desired nothing more than to right the wrong Adam had done. He, Himself, would atone for such a grievous wrong. He, Himself, would be the sacrifice to give His Father the love He so had for others. Jesus would be the new Adam - the new perfect man. And Eve - would be His Mother, Mary. Two perfect people - God-Man and His Mother to atone for the world and bring it back to His Father. A gift only the Son of God could offer and He did it so willingly, so gladly, so lovingly, and He so loved the world and willed it through His own death, to return it to His Father.

You must now sit in silence and in prayer. Do not despair as God still has plans for you. Your prayers ascend amidst your tiredness, your distress, your helplessness, and your fear and sorrow. God hears each and everyone. He loves your persistence despite your failings. He lifts you up and pulls you closer with each one. Do not be discouraged even though you feel you plod through a muddy field of life. Your footsteps still have direction and I am still leading you. Try to find your laughter and smile again. That is a gift you can bring to others.

(My thoughts on a way to speak to parishioners at Sunday liturgies to get them to become involved in the ministries of the church.)

(Laugh out loud and let it become contagious.) Doesn't that feel good? Joy is so contagious. I suggest you leave through the chapel and look at the faces of our beloved Salesian founders on the windows. There is sparkle in their eyes and laughter in their souls.

They didn't turn their backs on ministry. Take a look around you. Suppose I asked all of the ministers for this Mass to leave – altar servers, ministers of the Eucharist, ushers, greeters, music ministers, cantors, readers, and even_____. You would have a cold, dark, lifeless, silent church. And these are only a sampling of the ministries available to you. There is outreach, in reach, RCIA, faith formation, Devotions, Adoration, Sacristy, funerals, Food Pantry and the Help Center, Sacramental sponsors, Welcome Committee, ground upkeep, youth projects, visitations, financial, money counters.

We need you! We need you as the life and breath and soul of Immaculate Conception. And what a joy!!! You now have your pick of *ministries that need you. They need YOU!!!

Pick up a bulletin – call the numbers of those involved in the ministry that you would like to hear more about. Let them tell you of the service they perform to keep our parish vibrantly alive. Let them tell you of how much they need your help. DO IT!!Join into the ministries and become more involved in making this a parish that lives Jesus!*

505) Adoration – *Thank you, Lord, for my lesson this morning. For sending the needy man on the scooter to ICC to ask for gas money.
Thank you for letting me be able to tell him where he could get help. Thank you for letting me know that he was aware of the help because he knew Laura or “Ms. Taylor” as he called her.
But mostly, Lord, you showed me again how inadequate I am. Why didn’t I invite him into the church to sit with You for some time? Why didn’t I offer to following him to the gas station and fill up his little tank? Why didn’t I ask if he was hungry and offer to buy him breakfast?
Why didn’t I ask if he needed a place to shower – clothes to wear – why Lord – why Lord all my imperfections of basic Christianity. You offered me a chance to enlarge my territory and I missed it completely. I’m so sorry. I’m so sorry.*

Please come Holy Spirit and enlighten my mind and allow my eyes to see so that I may do your work.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

And when are you listening? I love hearing everything you have to say. You're right to clear your thoughts with Me, but you must also listen. I speak in the quietness of your mind.

(This is part of my locution.) We are two people. Body and Soul. They are independent of each other and yet they are one or else the body dies. Still, even then, they will reunite in completeness. God also resides in our soul. We stay connected to Him through our souls.

We are "one body" in Christ. Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is body, blood, soul, and divinity. If Jesus has a soul – and if we are made in His image and likeness – then that soul is separate and also one with Him. Body and Blood is the Jesus we can see. Soul is the spirit of love that unites us all together. Divinity is God the Father and they are all one and yet separate. The Trinity – our one God in three divine persons. If soul and body were the same then they couldn't be separated and yet they are at our death. Each is completely separated from the other. Death is when the soul leaves the body.

Heaven and the completeness of the world is the reuniting of bodies and souls in the divinity of God.

Our soul is our connection with the Holy Spirit. It is all love. It is what unites Jesus with His Father. It complements and completes the relationship that makes them one and also separate. Therefore, God is love. To imitate Him, we must allow our soul to experience the love that makes up its being. When we love, we complete ourselves. To love is to be in God. This is why Holy Communion is such a gift. We receive the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. We regenerate ourselves. We renew our relationship with the Trinity. We experience the total God who becomes physically part of our body and soul. Food becomes part of our body and, of course the Eucharist does too but it also becomes part of our soul and refreshes our closeness, our relationship, and our love of God which outpours to others. We then can be His hands, His love, His compassion, and offer our sufferings completely with His own for the redemption of the world and the power to overcome evil rests in us.

506) Adoration – My mind is a complete disaster, Lord. I cannot concentrate on a single thing. It flits around from one topic to another with no reasoning for any of it and no conclusion of any one thought. I messed up the Rosary because of no ability today to concentrate or to clear my head. I need Your help desperately if I am going to hear You in all this noise and scattering of thoughts.

Here I am in the midst of your thoughts. Here I am to settle your heart. Here I am to sit with you until your mind clears. Here I am.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

My God, my friend.

507) Adoration – First Friday – my 79th birthday – Oh, my Jesus, that number, when I see it written down absolutely overcomes me. What worth has been my life to You? It's like there are two of me. One has spent a life of prayer, Adoration, Masses, Rosaries, and more services for You than I can begin to count. The other of me feels I have failed to make a difference. I failed to make a dent in the evils of the world and of myself. Life continues to be a struggle against evil. A day to day pull of good against lack of dedication to You. There is a level I want so badly to reach and I am stuck on this one rung of the ladder. Thank You for remaining with me and continuing to restructure my path and pull me ever so gently back to You.

Child, you are so blessed. Your very life has brought joy in so many places. You are blinded to them now, but you will eventually grasp it when we are together – body, mind, soul - it seems so long, but it is so short and the time is quickly narrowing down.

Your world – the world – is in flux always. A push and pull between good and evil. I told you the tide was turning and so it is. Here are some benchmarks to watch for:

- More lay leaders – more roles for lay leaders

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

- More countries joining in the fighting of evil so as to live in peace.
- More opportunities for the youth to play a major role in this change.
- Church leaders to step forward and lead even in a dangerous way that may cost some their life.
- More programs and housing dedicated to the poorest of the poor.
- Church attendance will rise.
- New sources of food and energy will be discovered.
- Science will grow quickly by leaps and bounds in the fields of medicine and communication. This will bring the communities of the world closer together – then it will not be as much country to country but people to people.

You read much, but much more is already happening that is not yet in print. The love, decency, and hope of the people struggling to make a difference will be renewed and greatly blessed. Graces pour into the world at a rate not seen since the year following my execution.

Will you witness it all, of course not? Our time is so different – there is no time table – a fact the earth cannot comprehend. But you will see some of it. You will feel it. Goodness is not dead. Love is very much alive. And remember, that is what unites us – love – souls of love – in the Trinity.

508) Adoration – *Dear Jesus, help me to love
You more. Please pull me closer to You so that I can better serve You.*

I would never abandon you. Together we can do many things that have not yet been revealed. Pass on the information I give you and let others know how loved they are.
Corner those who do not believe and show them My gifts. Point them out to them as God given. Caress each moment we have together when I can speak to you freely. Pass on My words as the occasions occur. I know it seems you get no response but that is not what you need, only that others are made aware of their own ability to speak directly to Me. Offer some of your day to Me and ask Me to use your prayers for your own spirituality. Ask that I help you to attune yourself to Me when you are in need of direction. I will never fail you. My love overwhelms and encompasses all and leaves out no one. I love sinners. I love those who desperately try not to sin. I love those who hate and those who love. My grace is given freely but some shut themselves off from it. I continue to give and sometimes, oftentimes, sinners respond to it.

Hope is My special gift today. Hope that your family can be close in heart and in actuality.
Hope that wars will end and people throughout the world will turn to Me and reject persecuting others. Hope for the end to abortion. Hope in a world full of love and good deeds and prayers.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

I love you – and you are aware that I take care of you. I will continue to watch over you and see that your graces increase. Believe that I will be there to personally bring you home to Me.

509) Adoration - Offer Me your heart. Bring Me your troubles and your cares and rest them at My feet. Push aside your worries and let them rest in Me. I can bring you peace.

I care not for the forgiven sins. They are washed away as snow melts in the sun. Return to Me fresh and cleansed and sin no more. If you should sin, return again and again. I never tire of forgiving and forgetting. Just allow Me to be a part of your life. I will enter your soul and abide there. We are close, you and I, feel My presence in your heart. See Me silent in the host but hear Me strongly in your heart. The world spins and you are unaware of the motion, yet it continues while you go about your day and while you sleep through the night. Just so, I am right here beside you, but you are unaware of My presence and My movements. My eyes see you with love and offer you ways around sin so that you may come even closer to Me. You are Mine. You are chosen. You are loved and cared for more than you could ever imagine. Rest in Me. Rest in My love. Do not think of a moment that I would desert you, but turn to Me in your need. Ask of Me what you will. All I ask is that you love Me and follow Me. I am your pathway home.

510) Adoration – Ah, you love My Mother – It will always be My joy to help those who love My Mother.

Praise, praise, praise. Love Me, love My Father, love the Holy Spirit – pray, pray, pray. The world continues to spin in the arms of the devil, but he is not going to survive this latest outrage against Me. He derives such pleasure at the sins of the world. He is like a worm, burrowing in and destroying everything in his path. You need not fear him as long as you keep up your armor of praise and prayer.

Call all of your children today.

Turn your heart and your eyes toward My suffering body and pray for the salvation of those misled souls to steadfastly work toward personal pleasures rather than faith in God.

Pray especially for those who have made their bodies rigid against all but what pleases them. Pray that their hearts are open to the evil they perpetrate and give them knowledge of their sins and the errors of their ways. Pray for the renewal of the church and the return of the families. Refresh your prayer life this month and continue to work toward unity and peace. Find solace in your friends and in your family. Find solace and direction in Me. Sit with Me. Pray with Me. Then put all aside and come to live forever with Me.

511) Adoration – Come Thou Almighty King – Help Me Thy name to sing!

Teach us Teacher!

My love extends to all people. I fight for them. I gave My life for them. I fed them. I cured them. I taught them. Read the Gospels – you will see how they responded. The parable of the grain being sowed – some received it greedily and learned much. Those are the ones who must teach now. They must let others know how much I love them.

512) Blessed Sacrament Chapel – Happy Birthday to my Dad in heaven. Thank you, Dad, for setting the example of a good Christian man. I am so grateful to have had you show me the way. Thank you, God, for the gift of my parents and my family.

My heart is broken today as I reflect on my failures to keep our family together in the Church family. I am broken by their disregard for so many values I hoped to instill in them. What a failure I have been as a parent. I do believe they are morally developed more than they are willing to tell me, but I wanted to be able to see all the Baptisms, Communion, Confirmations of my grandchildren and that is such a heartbreak for me that they do not even know Jesus and His Mother. Help me, Lord, to bring my children and grandchildren into Your Light.

513) Adoration

Benediction – Praise the Lord

Adoration – Glorify the Lord

Mass – Receive the Lord

Rosary – Draw closer to the Lord

Prayer – Beseech the Lord

Heaven – Spend eternity with the Lord.

Close a door and open a new one. Close your mind and begin afresh with new ideas, new thoughts, new talents, new closeness to those who matter most in your life and new closeness to Me. You must develop your full talents. They are given to you at birth and they increase as your prayer life increases. I will always give you what you need. I am here for you always. Touch Me in Communion. Spend time with Me. Enter My heart and be a part of My Body, the Mystical Body which you hear about. Bring all your dirty linen to be cleaned. Bring your thoughts to be polished. Bring your heart so your love may increase and your mind, so I may make it My own.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Be the person I have made you to be. Connect with Me through your touch, your mind, your soul and body. Connect all during the day and when you awake at night. Become one with Me.

514) August 16, 2002 – ICC – Adoration – Come Lord, help me to discern the path I should take.

Begin by praying. Ask Me for what you really want. Ask Me to light the way for you. The poor you always have with you. Your desire to praise Me and to draw others to Me is pleasing. You will find that path and know it is the right one and I will shower blessings upon your decisions.

515) Adoration – Chapel – Come to Me child. I await you. I fill the air around you with blessings. Do not concern yourself with the things of the world. I am the one who waits for you and clears your path. Enter into a time of peace. Enjoy your days, your family, your house, your travels, and your husband. Take the days slowly and breath in Me as you go about your chores, your life, and your daily prayers.

Grant this, through Christ, My Lord, Amen.

516) Adoration – Bless us, Oh Lord, and all the gifts You have given us. Help us to use them for Your greater honor and glory.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

Your security is important to you; however, I am your security. Rest in Me. Trust in Me. Believe in Me. Allow Me to direct your life. Will you not continue to belong to Me no matter what happens? Have I not brought you up from all the depths you have fallen into during your life? Am I not always there for you?

Do not rush into this newest chapter of your life. Have patience and you will begin to see things more clearly. Pray that all stays well with you and Ray. Pray for the ability to weather storms and illnesses for the greater glory of My Father and Me. Do not cease storming heaven and asking for help and direction from the angels and saints.

You have many more days to please Me both here and in heaven. Walk My path. Seek Me. Follow Me. Pray to Me. Love Me.

517) Adoration – Lord, I trust in You!

Come child, a world awaits you. Bring your spirituality and your prayers and continue your journey toward an eternity with Me.

Come savor the life you have. Bring your blessings to your family. They have so many sorrows and so many needs. Each one has a secret longing that cannot be fulfilled because they close themselves away. They live for themselves and not for others. They secretly grieve for what they do not have. Bring them peace. Tell them to rest in Me. A feather has just as much joy floating on the wind as you will have waiting for Me to come. Rest and float on the thoughts I send you. Take them to heart and act on them as you see fit. The more you do, the more you will have. I am always there, reach for Me and I will touch you.

Lord, I want so much to grab Your hand and walk with You. I would totally relax in Your love and be sure of the direction I should take. The words from My mouth would be full of Your love and wisdom.

Take my hand, my heart, my mind, my speech, my actions, and my love and lead me on - - - -

518) Adoration – I struggle to keep focused today, Lord. Please help me to follow You and keep my mind from wandering and keep me from sin.

My child, it is not sinful to be tired and unfocused. It is a joy just to see you sitting here with Me. Do not fear, I am with you so matter how scattered your thought may be.

You had a conversation with your sister yesterday and it went better than you expected. She is home now and will get better. She is a willing sufferer and God is pleased with her. You concern yourself with much. Prayer is the only answer for many of your concerns. I love you and your family.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

Generations have stayed close to Me and have paved the way to save so many of their offspring. Continue your prayers, your Rosaries, your devotions and your love of Me and My sacraments. Confession is also a sacrament you must come to more often. Bring your heart and soul with you there.

519) Sunday Morning – Peace be to you. Expect a beautiful day that you won't want to miss. It's a special day in the month of the Rosary. Let us begin.

520) Adoration – Come let us adore Him! He who took such joy in giving His life to save us. Oh come, let us adore Him!

He who loved to the last drop of His precious blood and beyond and so offered Himself as a burnt piece of meat to His Father for our sake. Beaten, crowned, brutally stripped and striped, hung like a skinned animal ready to be cut up and meted (meated) out so others might eat. Our Savior, Our Lord, Our God, Our Redeemer – our ALL Who leaves nothing to be desired but Himself and, He is ALL we need.

We do not have to search to find Him as He searches for us. Always giving us new insights into His overflowing love. Always gifting us with exactly what we need. Always listening, hearing, speaking, and doing for us.

Our perfect savior – the Son of God and, yes, God Himself, come to earth to teach us love. To bring us closer to Him. To prepare a place for us with Him. To care for us so carefully, so fully, so individually, that it is if we were the only person He cared about – we are that special to Him. We are His beloved. We are he whom He sought. We are the lost He found. We are the one He carried on His shoulders like a lamb. Helpless He find us. Lost and wandering He find us and leads us. If we falter, He rescues us. His eyes are always upon us. His ears hear our every call and silent whispers. He can't love enough – but no - we can't receive enough – even though He died and came back from the dead for us to rise with Him. We can't fathom that much love.

Help us, Lord, to find that all-encompassing love. Help us to exude the type of love You give us so freely. Help us to direct our minds, hearts, and hands, toward You. Let us have the purpose to do this until we resemble You in spirit and find nothing so pleasing than to follow You and so eventually join You in the Blessed Heaven You have so lovingly prepared for us.

Bring us home, Lord, bring us home.

521) Adoration – “Why didst thou hesitate, man of little faith?” Matthew 14:31.

So many times, Lord, I have felt the need to act on Your behalf and it has not come to pass. My life has been full of prayer and has weathered what has come to me, but has my reaction, my purpose, my devotion, really changed anything or anyone for the better? Or has it changed me? I know You lead me. I am overwhelmed by how much You love me. But have I done enough? Have I finished any chore You gave me? Even my own children have left me stranded in the faith alone. Your church is empty of them so often. My trust is in You, my Lord and my God. I trust you will answer my daily prayer and keep them close to You. I could not bear it if one of them was lost. Allow me to pay whatever Your price to make up for my foibles in raising them. Punish me (and give me the ability to handle it for You) but do not punish them for any wrong I may have committed in raising them. Help me to be aware now of their needs spiritually and in any other way too.

Bring Me your concerns. Bring them all. You read about over and over My many earth miracles but you miss the daily ones I place in front of you. Are you not here with Me now? Did you not realize today that I am “The Son of God?” You are looking at Him! At Me! At God! Look at Me, touch Me, eat Me, ask of Me. I will provide for you always!

522) Adoration – So many times, Lord, I have done or not done the right thing. Help me to see these times so that I may correct them in the future. Give me remorse that overwhelms me so I feel the weight of my sins.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

My child, My child, you are feeling sorry for yourself but it is because you cannot be perfectly holy all the time. Your slips are forgiven but, as you know, you are not to repeat them. Pray for the grace to stop yourself before you open your mouth – or make a face.

Your friends are all aging as are you. They need your quiet companionship and your presence in their lives. Take the time to speak to them, to reassure them that they are loved and that their life is meaningful.

Give to your children as you see fit. Nothing is ever equal. No one can have exactly the same problems or deficiencies as the other. What makes one happy may not make the other happy. Use your best judgment and then follow through. Their heart is settled when they know you love them. Reach out when you hear or feel their needs. Each of them has needs and you must respond. Be concerned. Listen closely to them and find the understanding they are searching for. They are also aging and coming to realize that life is short. Never let them feel unloved or unwanted. Reach for their inner needs and physical needs so that you show them your concern.

523) Adoration – So much passes through my mind and yet You wait patiently for me. I want

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

to wrap You in my arms and feel the beat of Your Heart.

Perhaps they knew of My life, given for them.

Perhaps they saw that I am Who Am.

Perhaps they wondered and their hearts were full.

Perhaps they refused these gifts and never opened the package.

One must open their heart to the Lord – One must be willing to receive My blessings. One must give away self and accept Me as their life. One must let Me enter so as to become complete.

Child, you think about many things. You stress over equality with your children. You ponder over the welfare of your family and you work hard to please them and to see them joyful for your gifts.

There are so many organizations that petition you for money. The needs of the world are great and can never be sated. What you have is a drop in the bucket to what the world needs. When you feel you cannot donate, say a prayer over the request and I will give them a gift from My heart.

524) Adoration – I come today to bring you peace. Peace of heart and soul. Getting older is on your mind and it concerns you as you lose the ability to do many things. You do not, however, lose the ability to love and care for one another. Your life has been full. Your downs have come up, and you are living a good and comfortable life. Your heart is full and you require little to make you happy. Smile then, and show that inner joy to others. Let your heart rejoice and be glad during this joyful season. You bring Christmas with you even without those masses of presents you have for others. You each are a rock for each other. Do not take your days together for granted.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

525) Home – after taking Communion to the homebound.

Overwhelming tasks – also laziness – also reading for spirituality – also Adoration – also daily Mass. Missing quiet time to pray and recuperate spiritually. Being on outside looking in. Missing parts of conversations. Inability to make changes in self and others. Eyes, knees, walking, sleepiness, tiredness. I am turning this all over to You, Lord – I will try and take one day at a time.

You hope for good tests results for _____, and you shall have it.

526) Waiting for Mass to Start – Here it is, Lord, I turn it all over to You – Here I am Lord, I turn myself over to you. I place myself in Your hands. All my worries, concerns, pain, and uncertainty.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

527) Adoration – Oh, sweet Jesus, how I love Thee!

Come, Child, enter My Heart.

Hold me tight Lord. Do not let me stray. Lead me through the hoops and snares of the world and draw me ever closer to You. Protect me from harm and do not let me go.

528) Adoration – First Friday – My soul awaits You, Lord!

Come to Me without fear. Come to Me with hope and happy anticipation. My arms are open to receive you.

Call your children by name and tell Me of your hopes for each of them. Tell Me your concerns about them and how you need Me to draw them ever closer to Myself. I will be their Light. They will not be lost. Your prayers have saved them all. They will also have to suffer but they will be saved, down to the next two generations.

Oh, Lord, what a gift! I am so grateful for Your love and understanding. Jesus, I hope in You!

529) Tuesday Adoration. (I had been concerned that Jesus had previously talked about five generations being saved. I couldn't understand how this was "only" two generations and I questioned this and if I was not doing all He wanted of me – He explained it as I wrote.)

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Generation 1 – myself

Generation 2 – my children

Generation 3 – my grandchildren

Generation 4 (first of the next two generations) my great grandchildren

Generation 5 – (second of the following generations) my great-great grandchildren.

Then He added: Never doubt My love for you.

530) Adoration – I love You, Lord!

Reach inside and feel the love I have for you. Listen to My groaning in anticipation of our continued time together. Life has no end and you will be well pleased when you see all you have accomplished. As you grow older, you grow closer to Me. You see more now than you did in your youth. You feel more keenly the events of your life. The beats of your heart are numbered; the countdown has begun. Live your life fully so as not to miss a single opportunity to do good. The twilight of your life can be vibrant if lived well in My heart.

Press your head against My heart and miracles will continue to be yours. You witness them every day. Give your physical sufferings and annoyances over to Me and change the world by that gift. I will never ask more than you can handle. I will love you through it all. My blessings follow you but they also lead the way.

531) Sunday Morning at home – Why would You speak to me, Lord, when I catch myself doing unkindnesses to my friends. It stabs me in my heart when I reflect on my reactions and my inner thoughts. I play the Pharisees, I'm better – I can see through – I don't get how someone could – and here I am being that person I dislike.

I ask You to change me. I ask You to let me see my faults. I ask You to give me complete sorrow for what I do that is so blatantly wrong. Please help me to carry Christ with me and reflect on His passion so I may become more like Him and less enamored with myself.

532) First Friday - Adoration – Oh My child, how great it is to see you here. Your attentiveness to My suffering fills Me with joy. Offer up your day for My wounds. Plead with Me for grace and pardon for your sins and those of the world. Graces are pouring on the world at a great rate and the world turns again toward God. This is the change I have told you about. This is the coming of graces that change the world. The hideousness of the devil must cease and good will overcome evil. The world has suffered greatly. No one has been free of suffering. I hear the cries of My people. I hear their fervent voices raised to Me through My Mother. I cannot wite any longer as My Mother pleads for the Savior of the World to act for His people.

Do not, underestimate the power of the prayers of My Mother. She is persistent in begging for her children and her church. I hear her prayers for more priests. I hear her prayers for an end to the evil that has and is gripping the world. I watch her pour forth grace until the world is washed clean. Yes, you see war, sickness, catastrophes, and death. All those who die in Me are now joining with My Mother and worshipping at My feet in fervent prayers to bring the world to believe in Me and worship Me and plead with Me – I cannot refuse her any longer. The world is being cleansed and spring will begin to show signs of this as you and the rest of the Christian world celebrate Easter and My resurrection. I will again spend time on earth bringing peace and joy into the hearts of many. Continue your prayer life and know that I am with you always. Call My name and you will feel My presence.

Love to you, Your Jesus

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

Jesus Speaks Year Fifteen

533) 6:00 AM – Living Room -I give You last night, Lord, despite my tiredness and complaints for which I profess my all too humanness.

Would you be happier without any suffering? Of course you would. Even I ask that the cup would pass, but then relented and gave Myself over to My Father's will. No one likes to hurt. No one likes pain or sleepless nights, but they come and they come as we are infants and throughout our lives. They even come sometimes as death approaches. It's what we make of them that matters. Remember the Rosary you said that night when you were up in the dark feeding your infant _____. You prayed for him then and you re-started your lifetime of daily Rosaries. You prayed the Rosary last night when you couldn't sleep. Only this time your prayers included those for yourself, too. I'm always listening and My Mother and her angels pray with you. Each year brings over 300 Rosaries. You don't have to keep count because I do. If I keep count of the hairs on your head, why wouldn't I keep track of your prayers no matter how brief or how long, how sincere or said in a memorized rush of words – still prayers. Still counted. Still accompanied by angels. Relax, this too shall pass.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

534) Adoration, First Friday – Lord, I have spent many First Fridays with You and yet I have spent so little time with You recently.

My Child, you are always with Me in your heart. You talk to Me every day. You gaze upon My picture with love. You say short and long prayers throughout the day, but it is good to see you here with Me again.

Life is full of the unexpected. It is how you deal with it that matters. I know you are disappointed that your recovery has been taking so long and I hear your many complaints. But I also see you continue to go about your chores and see, you are here! More out of yourself and into Me. Share My Heart. Hold Me during My suffering as I hold you. Be a part of My tortures and learn to know My Father who sees all you do.

My mind wanders all over the place. I've just said the Rosary and yet I feel I was negligent in prayer. I am so grateful You are such a loving God who understands my human weaknesses and forgives and overlooks them. I can't seem to concentrate well anymore; and yet I am so grateful You forgive and still hold me close to You.

Should you be worrying about so much – all small things in that you must learn to trust in Me. Trust that I am taking care of your sister and her family. Trust that I am taking care of you and your family.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

535) Adoration – I come today after missing so many chances to sit with you.

You can always sit with Me and the Chapel is also open.

Help Me, Lord, to find time again to just sit with You.

As you and _____ age, your health becomes a factor. I hear your many prayers, even those you say almost absentmindedly. I heard every word of your prayers to My earthly father. When you love St. Joseph, you love Me. I learned so much from him and you can too. His quiet obedience and consummate love. Trust him to take care of you and your family. He, more than most, understands the holiness of the family.

The world continues to turn despite all you see that seeks to destroy it. Think about it, would My Father let the work of the devil destroy His creations. No, when it is time to end time, it will be of My Father's doing. Do not let mere mortals frighten you with such destruction. Every mortal answers for how he lived his life on earth. How he spent his time. How he treated others. Whether he brought beauty or destruction to the earth.

Think of the joy when My Father sees your soul. He is so loving. He dismisses the errors you have made and sees the life of constant prayer. He ignores your complaints and counts so many times you have prayed for others. He clearly sees the times you have served and helped others – even when you are not aware of them.

You cannot remember how you spend your whole life in service to God and in prayer to draw closer to Him. But each of those seconds and moments is treasured by My Father. He is so pleased to see you come to worship Me.

Settle yourself, your tears, your emotions, your worries in Me and rest your head on My Heart. Pray about all you want for your sister and her family. I will be with you in whatever decisions you make. Trust in Me – I will hear your prayers.

536) Before Pentecost Mass – I am so sorry that I cannot trust more in You, Lord. I know You have heard my many prayers and hopes for a cure for my sister. I feel if I could trust more and believe more, somehow “I” could make it happen. I beseech St. Joseph, Mary, my Guardian Angel, and others of Heaven, who have so much more trust and faith than I, to intercede for me and ask You for a cure for her on my behalf. I want her back so badly – not just for me but for her children and grandchildren. I want them to have vivid memories of her as a person and not of a forgetful Parkinson’s person. What can I offer You besides my pitiful self.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

537) Adoration – Lord, I don't have to tell You of my disappointment. I was so hopeful but, I suppose, also never really believing You would cure my sister. I'm sorry for my unbelief. I want to cry, scream, shout, and pour out my disappointment, but it still won't cure her.

I really wanted to care for her for a few days. I wanted to bring her with me as I journey into 80. All selfish I suppose, but I also wanted her children to have a little free and fun time.

Help me to turn it all over to You, and help me to accept that You have heard my prayers and have answered them in another way.

Listen closely, I have not left you. I am with you. All is well with your family. Your sister is in good hands and is very loved. Can you say as much. Keep a close watch on what you say and how you react. Each child needs attention. You are making lasting memories for them all. It is a happy time and you do not need to feel sorrowful.

I will be watching over the party. I bring the “good wine” and you bring the joy. I will send angels and shower blessings on all who come. I love a garden and yours is no exception.

I bless you today in the blessing of the Trinity. Relax and enjoy your day – your weekend – your birthday. Nothing is an accident, all is well. God is always in your world. You must continue to grow closer.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

Remember I love you and trust that I have your weekend in My hands.

538) Adoration. Have you come for yourself or for others? Have you come to adore or petition? Have you come for love or for need. Never mind – it makes no difference. You have come!

Your life intensifies as you age. Your body can't be trusted to uphold you. You have less energy but your mind continues. Draw yourself ever closer to Me. Soon you will not have the earthly separation. As the clouds clear and the rainbow comes, so shall your entry into heaven. You bring with you many people whose lives you have touched. They are currently being tended to by My angels. Rest in Peace as they shall follow you on your path to Me.

I reach into your heart and your desire for Me intensifies. You want to come to Me and yet you want to cling to those you love on earth. I felt this pain also.

You are right, you answer many needs while on earth, but you will also care for these same people in Heaven. You are not alone now as the heavenly souls reach out to you. Spend some time feeling for them in your life. Do not hesitate to reach back to them. They are always there for you.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Intensify your prayers and include your heavenly family. Invite them into your prayer life. Your Mother prays every Rosary with you. Her Mother also joins in your prayers. You have a legacy of those who were devoted to God and to My Mother through the Rosary. Your brother's soul was saved by the countless beads prayed for him. Continue to pray, My child.

539) Adoration – Come into my heart, loving Lord, take my life into Your hands. Care for me as I stumble through my last few years. Do not let me stray now after so many years of trial, error, and some successes. I know You love me. Let that be enough until I come face to face with You.

Do not fret child. Your life has been full of doing and has not been your own to plan. You are still doing My work even in the hours of the day taken up by the concerns and needs of the living. Continue your prayer life. Fill in those few moments with prayer. I hear them all. They are like unstrung pearls as they scatter throughout the day. They are beautiful as they stand alone but I see them strung across the years of your life. So many pearls. Your pearls of scattered prayers have made their way to the souls of others and hung around their necks as they struggled here on earth. You will be filled with joy when you see how many people wore some of your pearls of scattered prayers into heaven.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

So now about you. You complain of feeling empty of prayer. You work in your yard. You care for your family. You want them to remain close after you and _____ are gone from the earth. All your work is heavenly work. Your family is a generationally pleasing chain of pearls. They support you as your finish up your earthly journey. The time you have left will be difficult as your body struggles to work for you. You also are responsible for _____ as he is for you. Your long marriage is recorded in Heaven as a success story. So many ups and downs and so many prayers and good deeds. Often a grasping to hang on with a burst of desperate prayers. Then those heartfelt prayers of thanksgiving. All are heard, all are recorded, all are your stair steps to Heaven. See you soon.

540) Adoration -I come today with gratitude for all Your many gifts. You have continued to bless me with Your love and You shower me with gifts. I am but one solitary soul in an innumerable sea and yet You seek me out and give to me more than I could have ever imagined. You placed me in a loving family and then gave me one of my own.

My child, you are so right to recognize the blessing of family. My own family was many generations in the making. They were the faithful ones who sought Me for centuries. They nurtured and protected Me. They were My first teachers. You must continue to teach your family by example and by being there for them. Keep in touch with them as a reminder of your love.

541) Adoration – _____ birthday – My youngest grandchild. Hear Me now, child, open your purses to My needs. Listen to the needs about you and answer them. They will become clearer to you as your future unfolds.

Your sister is in My arms and will not be of the earth much longer. She will advocate for you and bring you ever closer to Me. Your connection will continue and you must be a source of love for her children.

542) Adoration – My child, you have been blessed with a long and productive life. You have stayed true to Me and I love you for your dedication. Do not concern yourself with your children's foibles. They are in My care. No matter what happens to them in the future, it is My will in that I will not stand in their way but I will always be there beside them. Like you, they have made their own mistakes. Like you, they have suffered the consequences. Mistakes are a part of life but so is recovery from them. Follow their lead with _____ and do what they suggest. You have protected their souls with your prayers and offerings. This is just as your mother protected you; how her parents protected her; and how their parents protected them. Pray forward. Continue the legacy. You must also pray for your grandchildren and great grandchildren who have not all had the formation as you. Still, I tell you, they are under My protection.

543) Adoration – Come here, child, see My wounds. They are from you and the entire human race – from Adam until now. Do not look upon them with disdain but rejoice for My love in allowing them. They are wounds of love. They are an incredible witness of My love for all. Do not hesitate to love like this. Devote yourself to My wounds. Drown yourself in My blood. Eat of My Body and drink of My Blood. Given that you might live.

Like John the Baptist did for Me, I go before you to prepare the way. Pray for your son. I send My blessings to prepare his heart for the love to be showered on him by his siblings. You will not be alone. Many saints were afflicted with the same disease. The devil uses it to his advantage. He wreaks havoc on families, on loved ones, on employers, on children. He pulls many more into his lair through only one victim. Each of the afflicted makes a circle of destruction for all around him.

Continue to pray for him. Pray for the success of your intervention. Remember to call Me into the group with you. Do not be afraid to ask for My help.

544) Adoration – Do you expect miracles? They happen every day. You come to Me and ask and I always answer. I know you don't always see it, but the miracles happen everywhere. They provide a course correction in your life. They give you a vision you didn't have before. You meet people you would not have met. You find Me in so many places but do not recognize Me. Be watchful. Be prudent. Be aware, and pray always. Your steps lead you to Me.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Come, finish your Rosary. There are so many prayers on one Rosary that all of Heaven takes notice as the prayerful words and silent petitions waft their way to My ears and you, unaware, have attracted angels to pray with you. My angels attend to every Rosary as a gift of love to My Mother. The time, the prayers, the petitions – nothing is going unnoticed. All of Heaven attunes itself to a well-said Rosary. That is why, if you fall asleep, an angel finishes it for you. The prayers surround you and so do the angels. My Mother smiles on you. She caresses you in her arms. She pulls you ever heavenward into My own arms.

Do not cease drawing others into prayer. Bring them with you, even from a distance. Continue to pray and be watchful. The time is now for even more miracles. My love overflows, even on the undeserving. Even on those who do not believe. They may say they do not believe but I know they do. I know they will be saved because I know their hearts. You, however, must pray that they have the chance to call on Me before they die. Pray always. Pray always. Pray always. My love abounds and I hear your prayers – always.

545) Adoration – Feast of the Holy Name of Mary – You see, I still have your best interests in My overflowing-with-love heart. You will not be abandoned and I will be ever closer in your time of need. Your heart breaks at the confusion in your family. You struggle to understand how best to proceed. Let the siblings work it out. Offer suggestions but give them the support without taking it from them.

Like Peter, I cry, "Don't leave Me! Don't leave me!" My gratitude isn't always mentioned in my prayers but I am so grateful. There are not enough days in a week for me to list all I am grateful for. You have blessed me time and time again. Sometimes, I know. I don't recognize one of Your blessings until later in the future. Help me to see You and hear You and worship You so I can be grateful for the blessings I see and for those I don't see.

Oh, My child, you rest in My Heart. I have given you this group to help you grow and to help you to delve deeper into My life and My passion. I want you to expand your prayer life. Ask and you shall receive. When you gather in numbers to pray, I am there in your midst. Recognize Me as I am also in the others that surround you. How could I ignore such a devoted group? I cannot. Ask, ask, ask. Pray, pray, pray. Love, love, love!

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

546) Adoration – Come to the Altar of Life –
Do not be afraid as no one is worthy.

Your presence overwhelms me. Consume me, Lord. Take me in Your arms and hold me tight so I cannot flounder. Show me the way, Lord, show me the way.

Follow Me. My path is difficult but My love is great. The devil swoops and swirls and wraps people up in his empty promises. Following him has drastic consequences. Clear a path of goodness through his lies. Scatter your prayers along the path so that others can find it easier. One soul is a conquest for him so you must make My path more visible. Prayers illuminate the way. They drop like gold coins, attracting people whose eyes need to be opened. What I have to offer is more than gold coins. It is eternal life. It is being in My presence forever.

The whirlwind that seems to be encircling the world is allowed by My Father. Many have firm roots and are not affected by this storm. Prayers, quiet time with Me, the Sacraments, fasting and penances – these bring peace inside the schemes of the devil and he cannot move past them. The more spiritual acts of worship of God, the more impenetrable the whirlwind. The more you pray, the more calmness you bring and the less force the devil has. Your prayers and acts break it up and the power goes out of it as the wind of God, My Father's breath, takes the power away from the devil. Soon the power of the devil will diminish. It is the power of God, My Father, that the sinful world needs to fear.

You are entering the beginning of the end times. The forces of good and evil are doing battle now. Graces pour into the world. There begins a great awakening as the world experiences many catastrophic events.

547) Adoration – You must stop for a moment. Listen for Me. Listen to Me. Write what I say.

I am the comfort of your life. I am the warmth that fills your soul. I am the love of My Father incarnate and as real as your own flesh. I am who am.

Do not leave Me hungry for your presence. Come as often as you can. The graces multiply as your efforts increase. There is a steady stream of grace pouring into the world. Grasp for it by continuing to pray. Accept the graces given you but do not hesitate to give them away to others. You are not losing them but multiplying them. Watch for opportunities to dispense the grace you have been given. Bless others. Pray for others, help others and, of course, love others. A glance is all you need of a stressful situation for a lost soul. Take that brief moment to make contact with that soul's guardian angel and pray together that God intervenes in that life. Double the graces – ask the saints to minister to a lost grieving soul. Everyone in heaven is available to pray with you. Call on them. Ask for their assistance. Multiply your prayers as they rain down from Heaven. Come now, pray the Our Father with Me.

548) First Friday – Adoration – You have set aside your household chores and come to visit with Me. Your concern for your husband and your sister’s health is heard throughout the heavens. Trust that I am in charge of the outcome and be accepting that it is My will. Continue to plan your trip to stay with _____. Surely you must know I have not forgotten her.

Be with me, Lord, when I am in trouble. Be with me, Lord, I pray!

Your heart is pure. Your soul is not always. The devil is an infiltrator and you must not give him an opening in your armor. Bless yourself often to recenter your soul and allow it to continue its path to Heaven.

The Cross, My Cross, your Cross, the world hangs from it in suffering. The Heavens shed tears at the sins they see committed daily. Those in Heaven are united with Me but they pray for the salvation of souls. As the Heavens fill with departed souls, the magnitude of voices and hearts in prayer continues.

Pray for the souls in Purgatory. They are praying for you and, when they finish their time of purification, they will continue to pray for you. The thousands of people who have died in earthly catastrophes and through natural means are increasing the cacophony of voices raised in prayer. They can now see the suffering earth and they wish to help by continuing to beseech My Father for His help in saving souls.

Pray, pray, pray – the world of suffering people is in need.

549) Adoration – The world is in flux. Changes are occurring at a hectic pace. You are fortunate to see it from the safety of your home and family. I will allow it all. People, My people, must pray unceasingly. The church is also in flux. It is being pulled in many different directions. Pray for the church. Pray for the priests. Pray for the faithful Catholics and those who believe in Me. Place your trust solidly in Me. Accept the outcome of the next few years. It is a clarification of My Words and My works. Bring to justice in Me those who err. Bring to My heart those who cry aloud for mercy. Bring to My feet those who need direction. Bring to My arms those who need love. But bring to your hands, those who need you to help. You do My work. The world changes when the people who do My work are multiplied. Small acts of kindness become rolling stones and they pick up others as they roll. One prayer pulls in souls. Do not be stingy with your prayer time. A prayer should always be there to fill in the empty places in your mind. You are never alone. Ask Me to provide someone from Heaven to pray with you. I will know exactly who you need at that moment and they will rejoice over the opportunity. They will direct your prayers to Me for distribution.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Cradle your loved ones in prayer. Then send them to rest in Me.

550) Adoration – Thank you! I've said the Rosary but my mind wandered everywhere but the beautiful mysteries. Forgive me, Lord. It doesn't seem much of a "thank you" to show my gratefulness for how well ____ and I did getting to and from ____ and our time taking care of her. Thank you, also, for _____, as they took care of _____, getting him to and from the hospital and helping him as needed. Thank you too for helping him in the hospital. As of now, his Afib is controlled. I know You were with him since I couldn't be.

You must know by now that I never leave you. Continue to come to Me for support and comfort. I know your family well and I have always known them. So many lives of dedication. So many prayers. So much joy for them in Heaven!

551) First Friday – Adoration – Offer those last thoughts to Me. You are flitting about and having trouble concentrating – never mind. You are here with Me. Hold onto Me as you need steadying. Hold onto Me as you step so lightly into the future. Hold onto Me as you struggle to survive yourself, your body, and your mind as it ages daily. See how swiftly your time flies and yet how slowly your life winds down. Accept all your small and large sorrows. Soon you will know how to behave when you suffer. You will keep coming to Me. I am always here and will be there when you die. Continue to practice your virtues. Continue to do your daily chores. Continue to do unto others as they so kindly do unto you. Remember, I am always good. I cannot be any other way. Follow the good and you follow Me. Open your eyes and see the beauty and love that surrounds you.

The world is in turmoil – it has always been so – let others fight those battles. If you pray and come to Me often, you will see how I am the good of the battles waging in the world. I am always the victory. Pray for peace. Pray for a renewal of faith. Pray for the lost to return to Me. Tell them I'm searching their souls for them and to stop and redirect themselves toward Me. My path leads to heaven. Some people must find Me quickly, even if it is the last minute of their life, it is enough to save them if they reach out to Me.

Continue to pray for the Hamas conversions. Your prayers are being picked up in Heaven as saints reach down to help. They beseech Me daily. They look for the right moment to drive your prayers into the hearts of the most hardened of people. Pull the saints to you and invite them into your prayer life. Pray for wisdom and you shall receive it as you need it.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

I, your God, is alive, present in your life, and leading the charge to victory.

552) Adoration – Cry out! Cry out! Cry out! Pray continuously. Pray throughout the day. Pray as you do your chores. Pray unceasingly for peace in the world. Pray to Jesus to look kindly upon the world in upheaval. Your day is never wasted when you pray. Make cleaning a prayer. Make shopping a prayer. Make driving a prayer.

The needs of the world beat upon your shoulders. I know you feel small when you pray but you are not. Heavenly souls attach themselves to you and pray along with you. There is often a crowd of heavenly saints around you. They protect you as you pray. You bring the church with you. Do not be afraid to ask in prayer for help in praying.

Help me, God, and all the saints and all the faithful of earth. Help me to join my prayer with the others until the world is circled in the Rosary of prayers.

553) Adoration – What would you have Me do? I hear all your thoughts, prayers, petitions. They will all be answered. You don't need to put them in the order of importance to you. I will answer them all in the way that is best.

Remain quiet now and spend your time listening. Listen to the needs around you. Listen to the voices crying out. Listen for the sound of footsteps. Listen to the sounds of nature and hear, really hear, the godliness of others. Nothing in the world – in the entire universe, in the smallest ant hill – nothing would exist without God. The power of God has no beginning and no end. God knows when a fingernail breaks, when a hair from your head tumbles into the sink, when a dish bubble floats and then pops. He knows each leaf and its cycle of life. Each pine needle has been ordered by God. The birds decorate His trees and the trees give back their branches and fruit. But they do it because God made them for that purpose. Each of God's creations have a purpose. Some are to bring joy; some are to feed and clothe. Sometimes God plants a seed in the mind of the doctor and health treatments improve. Sometimes He gives gifts of inventive thoughts. You and the world must find the quiet time to listen. Perhaps the song of the bird, the whisper of a stream, the sprinkling of the rain – it relaxes and lets your mind wander into the realm of God. And there – there is where you are loved and cared for. There is where you must listen to His soothing voice and where He caresses you and leads you ever closer to Him. There He envelopes you in His ever-present love. And all you had to do was listen.

554) Adoration – My child, you are here to honor Me.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

*Hold me, Lord, as I tumble into Your arms.
Catch me as I fail and do not let me ever leave You.*

Hope is yours. It brights every day. Hope lights up the sky and sends forth rays of gold. Write what I tell you. Read and reread what I have had you write. It is for the ages to also read and hope will blossom. There are no boundaries in Heaven. You may go freely. You may search it forever and there I will be. I will not leave you. Together we will visit anywhere you fancy. Companions on the quest. As Heaven opens to you, your discoveries will be such a joy. Heaven will open ever and ever and ever. Breathtakingly beautiful and more than you can take in. And, yes, we will be together and your appetite for Me shall be sated. Therein is true happiness. Therein is the hope you feel fulfilled. Therein is the love that satisfies. Do not be afraid but be peaceful and await patiently. I will extend My hand and you will step forward into all you cannot now imagine. Come, and see the goodness of the Lord!

555) Adoration – Don't feel abandoned because you feel there was more you should have done in your life. Your life has touched many people in many ways and it is right that you are unaware of it. You have never wavered in your faith. You have always turned to Me in your need. You have loved unceasingly. In your lowest moments you have placed your trust in Me.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

Enter now into an ever-deepening relationship. Let your spiritual life grow with those women who also search for a closeness with Me. I will give you a better understanding of what you read to enhance your spiritual life. Come closer to Me.

Oh, the rapture of it, Lord, I am so unworthy.

Come closer, come closer, come closer! Enter into Me afresh and feel My love anew. Touch My love. Radiate My love. Pursue My love. Dance with Me. Play at My feet.

I long for You. I chase You. I adore You. I hunger for You. I need You in my life. Come, Lord Jesus, come. Let it echo throughout Advent. Come be with Me. Come take me to You. Come enter my whole being so I'm never away from You. Come, Lord Jesus, Come!

You live to pray. You must also pray to live. The saints in heaven pray with you. The souls in Purgatory rejoice in your prayers. Never cease praying. Those in life also need your prayers. You pray for one soul to find Me and change his life. That soul, once changed, will bring about the change in others. Once a mind and soul is opened to Me, they cannot help but bring others to Me. A change of heart. A moment of clarity, when I can enter. A soul saved – a life changed – an outcome brightened. Better to spend time in Purgatory as a repentant sinner than an eternity burning in hell. One soul can make such a difference.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Enter the mind of one soldier and place the thought, "God brings life. Killing takes away life." Place My Mother there through a Hail Mary. She will do wonders with one moment of clarity in a hating soul.

556) Adoration – Pressure mounts as Advent comes to a close. The moment of My birth is upon the world again. Where are those who worship at My manger? Where are the "new" shepherds to look upon Me in wonder? Where are the wisemen who come from afar to gaze upon Me? Where is the world today, who are caught up in the glitter and gifts and not interested in My appearance in the world? You need to pray more than ever that hard hearts turn toward Me and away from the calling of the world. People are horrified by the events happening today and yet it never occurs to them to pray for a better world.

Look closer this Christmas. My hands reach out to all who come to Me. My baby hands touched the people, the animals, and the things of the world. I touched in wonder and, small as I was, I knew My Father had given all of it to Me. He also gives it to you. You are never too old to wonder at the gifts the world offers, at the gift of others, at the gift of life, at the gift of love. Everyday could be Christmas if the people only understood how much they are loved, wanted, and needed. The people could so easily set the stage for this perfect world.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

Pray now and always that souls turn to Me. Gifts from Heaven abound this Christmas. See them, feel them, dig deep in your soul for them, and then – use them. Ah, such a world of wonder and awe would there be. Reach deep. Pray sincerely. Love 'til it overflows. And, touch the souls of others with My blessings.

557) Adoration – Hold tight to me, Lord as I sway in the breeze of discontent foaming around me. Lead me ever strongly so as to guide me through the mire of family conflicts. I surrender it all to you – my concerns – my hope – my faith in You – my emotions – my thoughts – my worries – my hopes – my wishes – my misunderstandings – my friendships – my faults – my whole life. Lead me, Lord, with a strength that I cannot conjure up for myself.

You are stronger than you think. You are appreciated more than you know. Flick off the winds of the voices who beat at your door. Turn to Me for the comfort and direction you seek. Your marriage has been blessed and you have given your all to it. That is not a sin but a requirement to harmony. Quiet now is essential. Let the waters settle. Make no decisions without prayer first.

This is why I'm here, Lord. I want to empty myself and surrender it all to You – please, my Lord, and my God – take care of everything.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

558) Adoration – Clear your mind. Watch the signs around you. There is a bustle of activity as the area prepares for a stormy day.

568) Adoration – Enter My Soul. Be a part of My Body, feel My Hands, touch My face, drink in My blessings. I have come for you so you may enter My Kingdom.

Teach me, Lord, so I may do all these things You offer.

Pray the prayers I put before you. Pray as you work, drive, play, eat. Surround yourself in prayer as the world turns away from God. Live in My bubble of prayer while the world begins to rectify itself. Get caught up in the spiritual world of angels and saints. This mantel will protect you from harm.

Push yourself harder when you see some good that needs to be done. Watch for signs of needs. There are many types of needs. A simple touch, a word, a smile, a complement. A quick prayer, a long prayer, a loving gesture. A word of praise, an arm of care, a nod of recognition.

You are well on your way to Me. Intensify your prayer life. Let others see you praying. Call Me to be with you. Ask the saints to encourage you and pray with you. Call My angels to assist you so you are made aware of the needs around you. Read the hearts of others – a gift from Me. You will be made aware of the very core of others. A small knife sometimes. A special incite at other times. An ability to join in the life of another in a special given, holy way. Do it – feel it – care about others until you hurt for and with them.

I will always be with you to lead you. Never fear the outcome – it is in My hands.

Blessings descend to carry you forward. Fear not. The best is yet to come.

559) Home – Typing out previous locutions. Take care now, child, that you don't miss an opportunity to serve Me. There are no accidents when you are so in touch with Me. There are only opportunities that are presented to you. Pay attention to them and follow, even though you don't feel like it. You will have time to pray about this latest opportunity and ask Me to lead you.

560) Adoration - Have you looked, really looked at Me today? Let your eyes search Me out. What joy to have this hour to be visually present among My people. No, it's not the five thousand that came to Me on earth but it is the core of My people. These are the people who keep Me from destroying the world. These are those who find time for significant prayer.

The world turns and twists as My people continue to come to see Me. There is no need to worry about the world. People are dying from the weapons of others but people are not dying of so very many medical issues that have been irradiated through knowledge and medication and preventive injections. You must look at the balance, of course, killing people is always wrong. There are occasional and rare times when an active killer must be stopped but they can be stopped by harming them and not killing them.

You are folded into My arms. I frequently carry you so you will not stumble. The world needs your prayers.

561) Adoration – Praise to You, oh, Lord, who made heaven and earth. Praise you, oh, Almighty King, who has made us with love, knowing full well we will disappoint You with our sins. Praise to You, oh, God Almighty, who tolerates our mistakes and still loves us unceasingly. Praise to You, God in the highest heavens, who waits patiently to lead us home.

Cry out to Me in your distress. Let Me lead you to the peace you seek. Cry out with sorrow and I will console you. Cry out in wild abandon to Me to satisfy your longings for everlasting peace.

If you trust in Me, you already have the answers. All you need to do is pray. I, your God, provide your necessities so that you may have the ability and the stability to right the wrongs of the world. Surely you notice how things are changing – rejoice and be glad, I Am Who Am, is in charge. Continue your prayer life.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

562) Adoration – What a joyful day for Mary and Joseph! What a feast for those who waited for My coming. What a blessing to the world to know the Savior had been born.

Rejoice in the Lord. He has come to save His people. He has come to take away death and fling open the gates of Heaven.

You must continue to come and visit with Me. The world depends on the faithful few who come to Me regularly to spend time with Me and to join Me in prayer to My Father. Many come but do not stay. Blessed are those who return to Me. Blessed are those who sit with Me and say prayer after prayer that the world will open its eyes and return to God. Blessed are those who fight prayerfully for an end to abortion. Blessed are those who care for the sick and elderly. Blessed are those who pass on the world of prayers to others. Blessed are those who are hounded and persecuted for their faith. All of them have merited Heaven.

The power of prayer is, of itself, a miracle. The power of prayer is a link directly to Me. The power of prayer sends peace and healing out of My side and the world sighs in the warmth of My blood. The power of prayer explodes into graces sent to those in need. Never, ever, underestimate the power of even one little prayer. It ascends to heaven where it is received with love and God attends to each and every prayer, no matter how short, how quickly said, or how insignificant it sounds. There is still rejoicing in heaven.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Pray unceasingly by the life you live and continue to draw closer to a heavenly life eternal.

563) Adoration – Come when I call. Pray when I ask. Fast when you are able. There are other things I want from you. Be charitable in all you do, and in all places, and with all people. Trust in Me above all.

Your life of prayer is pleasing to Me. Why do you fret? You have laid it all in My hands and I will take care of it.

564) Adoration – Shove Tuesday – Here I am, Lord, at Your feet again, asking, asking, asking – always asking. Thank You for being such an understanding and loving God. I know You know my needs before I recognize them myself, and yet, I approach You unashamed again and again. “God please,” “God would You.” “God just once more,” “God forgive,” “God bless,” “God take care of it.” Thank You, thank You, thank You. I humble myself at Your feet unable to look You directly in Your eyes. The shame of silly repeated sins. The inability to rise up and make a commitment and keep it, that my constant sin will not repeat itself over and over. You pour down graces. You offer a myriad of opportunities, which I shovel under the rug with excuses. Help me to do better. Help me to step up to the holy challenges You present. Help me to be better. Her I am, at Your feet again, asking, asking, asking.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

And why shouldn't you ask Me. Haven't I said so often, "Ask and you shall receive." And do you not receive My gifts? My gift to you is Myself. My gift to you is My life. Life everlasting is what I have to offer. Come now, settle yourself and gaze upon Me.

565) Adoration – I am confused, Lord, please come and end my confusion. Teach me to pray again and again. Teach me to pray by my actions and thoughts. Teach me to pray through all the pitfalls of life. Teach me to have You in my mind and on my lips and in my heart always, always, always.

You came today in a rush of life. Surrounded by family in the spirit. All wish you well. All pray for you. All support your efforts. Each brings their angel. Each stand on the steps to your heavenly goal.

Rush to Me. Rush into My arms. Rush to My feet and I will raise you up. The end is near.

566) Adoration – Would you come if I called you? Would you stay with Me if I asked? Would you continue to love Me if I wanted you too? Would you give your life so that others may live? Would you? Would you? Would you?

You must love others more than yourself. By serving others you light the path to heaven for yourself. It is important to light the path so you do not lose your way. Each good deed, each prayer, each sacrifice, is a light. In order to keep the path illuminated, you must continue to do the good that lights the way.

Pray for others. Show them the way. Teach them to always be thinking of the needs of others and how to serve them.

Help me with ideas, Lord, please.

Blankets in zipped plastic. Small personal toothbrushes, toothpaste, soap, shampoo, snacks. Prepare bags or suitcases. Small bills. Pray for them. Give Rosaries with the explanation cards. Drop off food. Give a list of help and addresses and times. Wash cloths. The Chaplet of Divine Mercy. Go through prayer drawer and distribute as you see fit. Take nighttime drives and look for the homeless. Get others to help.

Clean underwear and undershirts. They will sort out size problems. Start out with four and see how it goes. A control spot will let them know where to look for the help you bring. Combs and brushes, socks.

As it grows, ask for donations of shopping carts. Identify carts by name if and when the service catches on. Put out messages asking for help.

Gift cards to barber shops. Gift cards to restaurants. Cards that say: "take to . . . ." with a number for store to call and confirm and then we pay for needed item.

Jesus Speaks XIII, XIV, XV

Pray for us that we may continue to serve the homeless. We will pray for you that you will find homes.

567) Adoration – See, your ministry has begun. Keep focused and pray for the courage to continue. Pray for help from others. Take the time to research and then explain the ministry and teach it. Others must understand it to follow and to have it grow into a movement.

If you can change the lives of a few, you have done well. If you persist and do not give up, you have succeeded in your ministry. Do not get discouraged. Take the time you need to make it happen.
