

JESUS SPEAKS
YEAR XVI

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

The decree of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, A.A.S., 58, 1186 (approved by Pope Paul VI on October 14, 1966) states that the Nihil Obstat and Imprimatur are no longer required on publications that deal with private revelations, provided they contain nothing contrary to faith and morals. The author wishes to manifest her unconditional submission to the final and official judgment of the magisterium of the church to which she humbly submits.

Mantra: Let go and let God. Let go and let God.....

Here I am Lord, I've come to do your will.

Jesus Speaks Year Sixteen

568) March 12, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – You are to be commended for following through with My suggestions – yes, your thoughts are in line with My own. If you continue to take your bags of help to the same place, let them know they are to deliver them to other homeless people. You give so they can give. You cannot provide a shelter but you can provide some comfort and a sense of usefulness. Learning to give is a large part of what is needed to enter Heaven. It is a stepping stone to a higher life with God.

Oh child, you worry too much about what others think. You have only to follow Me. My steps are sure and I will keep you on solid ground.

Oh God, my entire being shivers and shakes at the love you pour forth. I reach a height that transcends space and time. I just want to run toward You and fling myself at Your feet. I am so unworthy of what You offer.

Come, Lord, come, make me into Your image and likeness even if I am stepped on by the world. Take me to a place of safety and love and security. Help me to do Your will, so I can know You will be pleased with me and not reject me. Oh, Lord, who could stand that. Teach me, Lord. Teach me, Lord. Teach me Lord.

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

569) March 19, 2024 – ICC – Adoration –
Feast of St. Joseph – Come ever closer to Me.
Settle in My Heart.

“We will be giving out food here at 8:30 on Wednesdays. We will also say the Rosary so bring the beads you were given.”

Talk to Me (I asked what I need to do) –

Trash bags, Speak with Emily. Clear with the police. Hot soup and bread. Bottles of water.
Disposable bowls and spoons. Start with Genesis and read continuously each week. As it grows, get the Knights of Columbus involved. Love of Me circumvents all. Your group overflows with love for Me and a desire to please Me. I ask that they become more active in the community, searching out others who feel driven to do more. Enlarge your group with others who are homebound. Ask them to be your prayer warriors. Keep them informed of your activities – make them an integral part of your ministry.

Prayer and works – that is what I ask. I will provide for you. Ask for your needs. From BAGS TO RICHES. The richness of the bible will fill their hearts. Give them the spirituality they do not know they are missing. Pray with them – pray for what they ask – just as you do at the end of your group. I promise you I will be with you. Many prayers will be answered.

Mark your calendar so you have a date to plan for – clear it with the police. See if Emily can bring the wash and dry facility so their blankets can be washed and dried. Set up a schedule for this. They will come. Bring the clothing to them – see if Sr. Isaac Center or Catholic Charities can come up with a workable plan for this. If you let them know of the “events” you are planning, the WORD will spread and you will reach many. The public will see the need for housing – I PROMISE YOU.

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

Oh Jesus, I surrender myself to You. Take care of everything.

570) Good Friday, March 29, 2024 – in front of Mary’s altar. Mary speaks: “Oh, the horror of it. The depth of my suffering was anguish and love. He looked so pitiful and helpless and yet He refused to show His power and might. He loved His Father and His people who were, who are, and who would be. He immersed Himself in their sins. He took every pain, every untold suffering, every sin, every curse, every soul’s pain upon Himself. All to open Heaven for us, who did not deserve it. His love overcame our sins. His love repaired our relationship with His Father. His bloody body rose to His Father in sweet essences of love and obedience. And His Father cried.”

571) April 5, 2024 – Morning at Home – Did you come for miracles? Did you come for assurance or did you come for love? I am able to do all of those. Haven’t I assured you of My love? I know you are in pain but it shall pass.

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

I cry out to You, oh, Lord.

572) May 3, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Blessed the poor. Blessed the weak. Blessed the hungry, who need only to seek Me.

Christians awake and sing. Sing to the glory of the Lord. Praise to you, oh, Jesus Christ. Praise Thy name in the heavens and on earth. The King of Glory is coming. Let the world awake to His presence. Here and now, He sits before you in the Power and Glory of His presence in the Bread of Life.

Are you trusting in Me? Do you think I won't help your family? Why do you fret, like you must take care of it. I will take care of it. Would you believe I would abandon you now? Of course not. I have said, "I am with you always, even to the end of time." You must relax in My love and accept that I am in charge.

Family systems are My special love. They whirl and swirl around the world. Each one unique on its own axis. Yet they meld and grow and drop behaviors and pick others up. They are complicated but also simple. As long as there are families, I am there. Run to Me. Pray to Me. Listen for My words.

573) May 7, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Come at once and hear My word. Come now to see the glory of God. Come to Me and rest. Take a moment to feel My presence. Take time to sit with Me as I speak to you. Curl yourself in My lap and rest your tired soul. I bless your confused family. They do not yet grasp the seriousness of their judgments or their punishments. Bless those who release themselves from the devil's traps by prayer and actions. Bless those who value each person, no matter the price. Care for your family like never before. Pray constantly that they remember My words to love one another as I have loved you. Worship at My feet. Cry on My feet and I will dry your tears. I will use your tears to change others' hard hearts. I will bring the peace you wish. Remember My time is not your time. My mercy endures forever. The world, yes, your family and friends, need My mercy and they will be enlightened to it.

Blessed are the merciful. Blessed are the merciful, Blessed are the merciful.

574) May 14, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Would you come if I weren't here? Of course not. Would you come if I ignored you? Yes – you did that for years, but I was never ignoring you. Your soul was always gifted from Me. Your mind was nourished in My life and in My body. You remain in My heart and I am also in yours. Call to Me and I am already there. I know what you want and need before you know. Your family will heal but it is a slow process.

I cry out to Your forgiving heart in anguish. I cry out for My children, grandchildren, and my husband. I cry out for myself. I must turn it all over to You. I must not foment the situation. Please, Lord, lead me strongly. Please send Your Holy Spirit to speak the words I need to say. Please send the Spirit of Comfort. Please keep my children from this pain they feel. Please give Ray the humility and the words and the opportunity to heal our children. Help them to forgive and to feel the love he has for them. Shower us with Your wisdom and Your love.

575) May 28, 2024 – ICC – Adoration- Here I am, Lord, still trying to do Your will. I am so grateful for the message from _____ about the woman who had her tent stolen. When Sam gave her the stuffed bag we made and filled, she cried and truly we all cried with her and for her. Thank you, God, for letting us help. Please, we pray, continue to show us the way.

Blessed are the poor in spirit for they shall see God. I recognize that your activities prevent your usual prayers. Look for other time – walking the dog, driving the car, cleaning up the kitchen – slide in a prayer or two. Touch base with Me. I'm always available to you. My Mother is with you as you go through your busy day. Reach out to her. She continues to shower her unlimited supply of graces. Reach out for them and grab them. Feel the joy of connection with her. Yes, those graces tether you to Me.

576) June 7, 2024 – ICC – First Friday Adoration – I'm so sorry. I'm just so sorry. So much wasted life. Nothing to show You for it, Lord. Paddling along from day to day. A prayer here and there. I'm not sure how, what I thought was so full of prayer and love You, has become so empty and lifeless. Have You left me for good? Have You turned Your back on me? That pitiful back that was scourged and left, skin hanging and bleeding and then roughly handled with that dreadful Cross on Your shoulders – yes, the one I put there. The one that atoned for my sins. Sorry isn't enough. Through all my messy life You have carried me with the Cross – me, just bouncing along, weighing it down, pushing it into the bloody pulp of Your back, no, Lord, 'sorry' just isn't enough.

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

Where is the overwhelming, chest-exploding kind of love I felt for You for my family? For my friends? Please pull me from this stocky mud and lead me strongly again. Stand me up so I can follow Your footsteps again. So I can feel Your presence around me and in me. Oh my, what a lot I, sinful as I am, dare to ask. And then, there You sit, upon the altar, looking out at me and loving me and me, in my pitiful way, loving You back.

577) June 12, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Where? Where is my home? In my heart, I love you!!!! I love all you have given me. A beautiful place to live. Only minutes from You in the Eucharist. Around friends and family – and yet, I seemed to have destroyed so many family relationships. I no longer find I want to be around them. I drip with sorrow and shrink from the happiness I once found with them

Belly up – floating with no clear vision of anything but sky and sun. Always plodding, always pedaling but not going anywhere. Lots of ideas and visions but no path to run and catch up with You. Yet I know in my inner being that You are closer than ever. That You wait for me to complete the chores You place before me. When they are overwhelming You miraculously provide – the tents – the gifts from my friends to give to the homeless. Please give me enough strength and life to accomplish all You want of me. Give me the miracles to make it happen.

Write – tents – cars – acre of land – showers/bathrooms – like a park – trash pickup. Staked out spaces. Access to transportation, medical care, food supply, a lift up, social workers to visit several times a week – charities to offer services – all localized. A permanent large size tent or enclosed space. Object – livable conditions, access to health care, access to education = jobs.

Cape Fear to develop courses around serving the homeless. Maybe earn a place in “city.” Maybe a trial period – sign a contract – (trash, behavior, etc.) Write your article – get the word out – have people tell their stories on TV news showing variety of issues – tape interviews. Ask (with letter) to have them come to do a faceless interview. Get TV committed to end this homeless situation by actively seeking help with a number they can call to volunteer. Music, gardeners, dish washers.

578) June 18, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Here I am, Lord. My life is in Your hands. My Lord and My God!

Take the life I have given you and push forward. There is more to be accomplished. Clear your head of gibberish and settle into My life as your Savior. My Body enters into your body every time you receive Communion. Accept it, and you will become holy as you continue to follow in My footsteps.

Drop your concern. Trust only in Me. I am your leader, follow Me. So many times I have caught you as you begin to fall. Trust that I will continue to keep you safe. You will know when you have completed all I've set before you. That sense of satisfaction will never come as you are never satisfied with yourself. But you are content in the way you live and at ease in your own surroundings. The world needs more contented people and less power grabbers. Your conquests are quiet ones. They are never shouted from the rooftops. Understanding and acceptance are needed. Take that extra step and trust that you will not sink. Listen, look, pay attention to the real needs around you. I will not cast you aside. Keep your eyes open for opportunities. Do not hesitate to let others know about your love for Me and My needy people. I will open doors and spread the way smoothly. Look for those open doors –

579) July 2, 2024 – ICC Adoration – You have come just to see Me and to be with Me. I love you more than you can imagine. I'm sorry if you feel misguided sometimes but there is more to My messages than you, in your lifetime, can ever imagine. There is depth to what you do when you follow Me. You make your hands My hands. Can you see the depth of the miracles in that? I did not cure everyone because of their lack of faith. You must try to instill faith in all you meet – everywhere.

Bring My joy. Bring My love. Bring the story of My life. Repeat how I love them over and over. Remind them I will never leave them. You will always have the poor but you must remember I am always with them. I love them. I care for them. Tell them how much I love them. Their suffering is My own.

580) July 5, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – First Friday – Dear God, on July 3, ____ had two dizzy spells, suddenly, without any visible reason. Please keep him safe and well. Continue, I pray, to bless our health and spiritual well-being. Amen.

I have sought you and you were found praying. I have come to you and you have loved Me. I have found you in need and I have satisfied it. Through it all, I never once left you. You know this. You search for Me and you know immediately that I am there.

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

Remove from me, Lord, these thoughts of revenge – even in the simplest thing. Thank You for keeping me from acting on them, but I hate it when I find myself deep in imaginary events and my plot to “get back at” – to “find a plan to teach” – to find the cutting words of “teaching a lesson to . . .” Please, purify my thoughts. Do not let me live in my head. Help me to help others. Do not let me make assumptions about others. Please give me some of the wisdom of Solomon. Let me use it for the good You ask of me.

581) July 9, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – My head spins as I read about You, my Lord and my God. I try to take it in – internalize it – commit it to memory – but I can't retain it enough to re-tell the beauty of it all. I can talk, however, of the joy of receiving You, of sitting with You, of listening for You and to You. You lead some inner piece of my soul in Your gentle and loving way. You tug at me until I move into the action You wish from me. Take me, Lord. Be aggressive in telling me Your will for I am so impossibly human and weak of strength. My insecurities surround me and I must break through them to follow Your calling into strange and unusual circumstances. I feel You leading me continually into different places and confronting me with people I don't know.

But You lay my path with all I need to help. You work through others to collect and give so that I may be of service by delivering it to those in need. Strengthen me to do Your bidding. Provide the backbone to go out of my comfort zone. Make me reach out to others for Your sake. Open my eyes to see and my heart to feel. Cradle me so that I may cradle others. Your love is everlasting. I must dwell on this. I must carry You with me. I must behave the way You ask. I must be Your healing hands.

Pray with others. Draw others to Me, the source of their beings, the little voice they hear. Help them to listen for it. To listen for Me! The quiet is so helpful. Tell them to call My Name. Tell them I will come, but also that I am already there. Help them to feel My presence. Help them to accept My blessings. You can do this!

582) July 16, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – You are doing My work when you help the least of My people. They are your brothers and sisters. They are needy in many ways. Yes, they need food and shelter and clothing, but they need self-respect. They need to know they are loved just as they are. Bring Me to them. As you provide material things, provide also spiritual direction. Introduce them to Me. Tell them I am their best friend.

Thank You, Lord, for giving _____ and I the opportunity to be of service to You. Thank You for the people You place in my path to assist and help me. Let me be Your advocate. Let me do Your work. Give me what I need to be pleasing to You. I love You!!!

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

583) July 22, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Enter into My heart, My heart which bled for you. My heart given to all humanity that they may be saved. That they may live forever in My house. That they may experience the joy of being with Me forever.

584) August 13, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Come adore Me. Quiet your soul, still your mind, silence your head and just adore Me.

I give you hope. Hope for the future of mankind. I give you wisdom so you may teach by doing and love by loving the unknown and unloved. I give you voice so you may speak to the downtrodden and I give you ears to hear their cries and eyes to see their needs.

585) August 27, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Pray like never before – make everything you say and do a prayer. The world continues in flux. It survives the destruction of mankind only because of prayers. It survives because you come to adore. It survives because of your sacrifices, because of your love for others, because of your persistence in trying to help others.

The devil is a powerful force. He seeks to direct the souls and lives of his victims. His insidious behavior digs deep into those without prayer. He sneaks behind those who are arrogant and raises his voice to drown out those who pray Ah, but the prayers are heard and loved by Me. I so recognize the sound of earthly prayers. I wipe the tears of those who weep. I call the elderly to Me and enwrap them in My arms as I take them personally to Heaven. My Mother spreads her mantel wide to protect our people, our living people who receive Me faithfully, who try to better themselves, who live a life of prayer! Mass, Communion, Confession – the three most important pieces of your consecrated life. Do not take any of them for granted. Your good deeds and help of the less fortunate are well noted in Heaven. Help for those you care for is on the way. Homes are being found. The homeless have prayer lives too and My heart is open to them. Your kindnesses are well noted and many in Heaven wish to help. Rely on them. Ask them to pray for your success. Add your beloved homeless people to your prayer list. God, My Father, loves the lowliness of the needy. He hears them cry out to Him. He sees their suffering. He prepares a special place for them out of the cold, heat, rain, and snow. He warms them and holds them. Stay close to the homeless and you will find My Father in their midst.

586) September 3, 2024 – ICC – Adoration –
Oh, Lord, the depths, the depths seem to overwhelm me – and yet, You show me time and time again that You are here with me. Please do not leave me alone. I have no answers for the children I have born. I have no understanding of them now. Their lives are all so different. Each one is an island where they make up their own rules. My failure as a mother is apparent. Where are the sacraments in their lives? Why are they not drawn to You?

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

587) September 10, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Adore, love, preach, come – pass your time in My care. Open the windows of your soul and let in the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Preach of the coming – preach of the all-encompassing love – preach of prayer – preach of My Mother – bring souls to me. I will care for them. I must have souls. I must increase the army of believers. Do not waste time when you have little left. Reach for the stars – see the awesomeness of the universe. Make a difference. Push yourself to your limits. It is a call to arms. It is a call to follow Me into the thick of battle. No arrow can slay you while you follow Me.

588) September 24, 2024 – ICC - Adoration – I'm not focused today, Lord. My mind is all over the place. I seek an end to family dissention. I seek peace and acceptance. I seek You, Lord, keep, please, my mind on You and Your wonderful gifts.

Focus on Me. Hear My voice through the din of the world. Listen to what I say in the quiet place of your mind. My love for you transcends all those earthly demands and voices of anger. My love breaks through the rhetoric of the day. My angels are sweeping up the pieces of your family and are preparing to put them back together in a better way. Do not lose patience with your family. Love each of them, no matter how frustrated it is.

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

Continue to love your husband of 60 years. A lifetime of love together. Continue with your life of worship, prayer, and good works. Heaven takes notice of the good you accomplish. It's all about love. The more you use it, the more I give you. The more you help others, the more you desire to reach further.

Your desire for _____ to be baptized has been noted.

589) October 1, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Come Thou Christ, Son of the Living God, come, enter into the depth of my soul. Change me. Admonish me. Love me! I couldn't bear it if You would leave me. You know my sorrows, my worries, my insecurities. You know my sins, my failings, and my thoughts. But You also know I place my trust in You. I accept all the obstacles that come and I do my best to handle them the way I hope pleases you. Today I worry about _____ health. I ask You to keep him healthy for me. I ask You to give him a healthy heart and a strong body. Give us, please, a few more years together. Bring our children back to You. Help them to pray and receive You in Communion again. Enter their minds and give them peace and forgiveness. Bring our family back together again.

Relax. You are capable of more than you think. There is much you can handle by yourself. We are together. Call on Me. Call on My Mother. Call on the Saints. Call on your parents and grandparents. Your heavenly helpers are endless. Your angel is capable of leading you in this. Bring Heaven to earth. It is such a joy for those of Heaven to be asked to help those still tied to the earth. They remember their own difficulties. They remember their own needs and concerns. Call on them now!

590) October 8, 2024 - ICC - Adoration -
Lord, I come to You today full of concern, worry, sadness, and distress. My husband has a heart procedure tomorrow and I am deeply concerned. Please take care of us both and let us continue our lives together - a healthy, long, married life.

I bless the people in the storms' way. I bless those recovering from the storm. People must understand that there is more to living than politics, than daily chores, than work, then illness - all that is needed is faithfulness to God. My Father allows these tragedies. He sees the help and assistance given. He hears the prayers of the many. Heaven has been stormed with prayers, with requests, with thanks, and with acceptance. You must realize we, as the Communion of Saints, as the Mystical Body of Me - your Christ - we are all overseeing those homeless, those who have lost all, those who continue to pray. We are in their midst.

A rebuilding will ensue and people will be drawn ever closer to God.

591) October 15, 2024 - ICC - Adoration -
Oh, loving Lord, I sit here trying to pray but my mind wanders into sleep over and over. I am so sorry, but could You take this sleepy head and allow it to rest upon Your shoulder?

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

My child, you are here. You gave up your morning of rest to come here! If you cannot concentrate, you are still here. Your glance will lock upon Me and when it does, the beauty of our relationship is exciting. Here we are, together again.

592) October 22, 21024 – ICC – Adoration – Please speak to me, Lord. My mind is in chaos. It runs away with thoughts that have no beginning and no end. My mind is lost inside itself. Like a man drowning and unable to pull himself out of the water and yet never quite sinking. Fighting the water around him constantly and getting nowhere.

Slow down, child. You do have much going on but there is only one thing you need to do, that is to rest your eyes on Me. Let Me pick those crazy thoughts off you one by one, like the hitchhikers that stick to your pants legs when you walk through the weeds.

Your prayers are always answered. Your thoughts are always heard. Your special saints walk with you. Notice how often you are caught before you fall. Look at the beauty of how your life is like the ripples on the pond. The stone sinks, no matter how beautiful or how ugly, but it leaves behind ripples on the water that continue to grow. It is your choice as to whether the ripples are for good or not.

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

They cannot be stopped. Often it is better if you don't toss the stone. Sometimes you can see the way your goodness has taken root – other times you are caught in the ripples of other people's stones. Sadly, a small stone's ripples can disappear when a larger stone is tossed into the same spot – but remember, the small stone still is there, even though caught up in the larger circles. It can influence the larger circle. You need to be that influence. Small changes can eventually make large waves.

593) November 4, 2024 – Election Day – ICC - Adoration – My Jesus, I am having difficulty hearing You through the din of my mind. Such rambling thoughts this day and yet such inability to center myself on any one of them.

With the armor of the Sign of the Cross, I come to You seeking a solution to all the troubles in our family.

Your family fights against itself, they divide and conquer by that division. The only thing that matters is your prayer for unity, love, forgiveness, and peace. No one is sinless. No one can hold sins against another. Each person has their own sins that they must atone for. You are right to turn it all over to Me. I will take care of it. You must continue to pray. Look around you – do you see your children here? Have they all turned from Me? Do they make time for Me? Do they pray together? Do they regularly consume My Body and drink My Blood? Where are they?

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

This is why you must come to Me. This is why you must pray and offer sacrifices. You have My heart.

I bring hope today. I am the Light that leads you through the darkness. I am the hope of everlasting life. I am the one who runs to pick you up when you fall. I am the source of your life. Fly with Me on the wings of the angels when you are at your lowest point. Rise up with Me as you go about your day. Answer My call when I need your prayers. My people must pray intently and frequently if the world and your life are to be settled.

Come now, settle yourself. Peace be to you. Keep My peace with you as you go about your day.

594) November 12, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Come, Oh Thou, Almighty King! Come and mend the broken fences of our family. Come and center our thoughts on You so our actions and words are pleasing to You. Help us to love, to forgive, to admit our shortcomings. Make us a family again. Each one – each individual one – call them – call me – help us all to answer Your call.

Swallow me, Lord. Ingest me and spit me out where You need me the most.

595) November 19, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Pray, pray, pray – the more you pray, the more Heaven comes to help you. You are not aware of it, but there are many who hear you and petition Me to answer. All the levels of Heaven hear. All the saints and angels hear, My Father and the Holy Spirit hear. Do not give up on prayer. I am here for you. Relax and turn all your concerns over to Me. I told you I would never leave you and you must totally trust in Me.

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

I'm hungry. Invite Me to lunch.

596) November 26, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Oh Lord, help me to say the right thing to those in need. Let me be kind and generous no matter the circumstances. Keep my mind on how I need to help others and don't let me wait for them to make the first move. Give me a receptive, generous, and loving heart. Help me to repair all the wrongs I have done or the good I should have done. Show me the right path in being able and willing to do Your will.

Oh, child, you disappoint Me in thinking you have been all wrong – yes – you could have done things differently. All mankind has hindsight once things are pointed out to them. Now you have time to change things and heal the wounds. Continue to reach out to others but don't neglect your family in doing so.

I love you and I will chase you if I have to but you are very diligent in taking all opportunities to come to Me. Now you must ask for Me more. I am with you always, but that should make it easier to ask Me for whatever concerns you. You ask to follow My path but you need to pray and ask for directions.

597) December 3, 2024 – ICC – Adoration – Bless the poor in Spirit, as theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven. Righteousness is never easy. It takes courage and the ability to correct wrongs done. Do not forget to forgive yourself. Be attentive so that you do not stir up more emotions. Keep your children in your prayers. Keep them entrusted to My Mother. Ask her advice. Ask her to pray for your family. The hurt is deep and may never be satisfied. Be patient. All things are possible with Me.

Open the doors, Lord, to receive me when you take me from this earth. Without Your compassion and mercy, I have no hope for salvation.

598) December 6, 2024 – ICC – First Friday Adoration – Please, Lord, let the doctors' appointments today go well. Thank You for the progress we have made in healing our family. Thank You for the successful shoulder for _____. Lead us spiritually into a well-prepared Christmas through a prayerful advent. Help me to totally surrender myself to You.

Breath peacefully and rest in Me. Thy faith must continue to grow. Thy heart must enlarge to take in all the lost souls, all the hungry, all those needing clothing, shelter, and someone to talk with. Your work does not go unnoticed. Walk where I lead you. Pay attention so you do not stray.

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

599) December 17, 2024 – ICC – Adoration –
Enter totally into my soul, oh, Lord, let Your light shine brightly. Give me the Words of Your Heart so I may not ever speak a word that does not please You. Come, Thou long awaited! Come, Thou priceless Man/God and fill my lost soul so I may be ready to greet You when You come. Enter into my being. Carry me as only You can so I may reach the heights You have prepared for me. Do not let me disappoint You.

My child, your life has always been in My hands. You have allowed Me to mold you and bring you forth from the depths time and time again and yet, I never tire of it. Accept with wonder and awe the fullness of heart I give you.

My Lord and My God! You allow me to reach the unreachable. To plow Your fields and sow the grain so that You may reap the harvest.

600) January 7, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Come to Me and do not falter. Enter again into the space where we can be together. Don't fret over missing Me because I never left you. Hunger for Me as I hunger for you. The earthly things pull you into other directions. Step back onto the path which is much shorter now. Meet the saints along the way and listen and watch to gain a deeper love of Me. All are struggling. All are searching. All are striving to stay with Me as the things of the world pull them in other directions.

Think of how difficult it was for the Holy Family to stay focused when they suffered the flight into Egypt. Or when they realized I was not with them in the caravan. They prayed as they rushed. They prayed as they searched for sustenance. Exhausted they prayed. But their very lives and struggles were made into a prayer. They were offered up. Yes – you do understand, I accept your work, your daily chores, your struggling attempts to pray when sleep over takes you. All done for Me – and, of course, for your own soul. You're right, you can never satiate My wants for you, but your struggles are for Me. Remember to reach out, for my hand is always there to bring you closer to Me. Grab My hand – Grab it! Feel its warmth and direction. Feel its peace. Feel the ripple of love enter into you and then settle into the rhythm of My heart.

601) January 14, 2025 – ICC – Adoration. Why come if you have doubts? Why waste your time? If you do not believe, why stay? Ah, but you do come, and your doubts are cast away. The time flies by when we are together. Your doubts are gone and you are filled with longing. Your love is received and returned.

Yes, Lord, and it is this that draws me to You, time and time again. I lay my sins at Your feet and You forgive over and over. You never cease to care for me and Your love overwhelms me. Such a peon I am and yet, You treat me like a princess. You care for Me. You accompany me. You feed and clothe me. You give me friends to cherish and in whom I can see You. What joy and compassion You bring! What peace! I love You so. My heart responds to Your call. I pray that, when we meet finally, You will want to hold on to Me always. Your warmth envelopes me. Your kindnesses overwhelm me. Your love fills every part of my body and soul.

602) January 21, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Did you come out of despair – no. Did you come from exhaustion – no. Did you come full of gratitude – no. Did you come out of need – yes. Did you come just to be with Me – yes. Did you come out of love and desire – yes. I am here. I am always where you are and I am always here. Visit often.

I am grateful, Lord. I am so sorry I don't express that enough. I need to make a list full of my gratitude. It is not just worldly things although I am very grateful for them. It is not for this cold dreary weather – although we are headed for spring again. It is not for the clothes I wear – and sadly I take them for granted. I come because You are here – I know you are always with me and I am so grateful – but I rarely express it. I am grateful for the times You have warmed my heart with Your presence. I am so very, very grateful for sixteen wonderful years of Your voice that speaks to me in the silence of my heart. I am grateful for the uncounted prayers answered. I am grateful for the gift of Your Mother. I am grateful for the gift of family – in the past and in the present. My list goes on but it will never be too much for You. You have saved my soul, my life, my eternity. You have showered Your blessings upon me. You have carried me when I was unable to walk and when my need for You was so great You blessed me with Your love. You have blessed my life and I have so little to give You in return and yet You are satisfied with what little I give back to You of my many blessings. Lord, help me to be more grateful, more loving, more kind, and more prayerful. Lord, help me to love.

603) February 4, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Enter My Heart! Feel the warmth, but also feel the split from the sword. Feel the flow of blood and water, My very life flows out of My Heart. It is a soothing and healing spring eternal. It is the very last gift I gave to My Father – My last drops of blood, left there on the earth for all mankind to see and to remember. I am the salvation of the world. I am the New Covenant. Bathe in My Blood. Take it with you into the world. Spread it over My people through prayer and acts of kindness. Love Me and tell them that I love them!

604) February 11, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Do you want peace in your family? Of course you do. Do you want your children and grandchildren to respect and love you? Of course you do. Do you want our relationship to grow and your love for Me to blossom?

Jesus Speaks Year XVI

Yes, again, of course you do. So why do you assume you are or should be in control? You sometimes forget that life is not going to turn out in a perfect way – in an imperfect world. You must pray and trust. You must rely on Me. The goal is not to have a perfect life, but to enter Heaven. In order to do this, you must pray.

605) February 25, 2025 – ICC – Adoration –
Oh God, send my soul peace. Bless me and my endeavors. Give me Your angels to soothe me and comfort me. Bless my family and bring us back together in a sincere and honest way. Let me follow You more closely so I can understand how to help You in Your work of peace and harmony in our family. Let my prayers be accepted. Do not let me die with _____ distant. Cuddle me in Your arms and grant peace to us all.

606) March 4, 2025 – ICC -- Adoration – Shrove Tuesday – Lament child, lament, and hang your head. Come silently before the Lord and beg forgiveness for your sins and the sins of the world. Each sin a pain, each sin a separation, each sin a need for repentance. My Father felt it all and yet He loved? He suffered the ignominious death from the sins of the world but He wished to exonerate all sinners and so He sent Me to be a human, a worthy human, who would willingly sacrifice in body and soul what He sacrificed in the death of His sinful people. He sacrificed Me, His only Son and yet in this He sacrificed Himself. Can you possibly understand His pain, because we are One, He suffered as I did. He didn't remove Himself from it but entered into it as I did; His pain as My Father and mine as His obedient Son. All of this under and with the Holy Spirit. Heaven came to earth, that small dot in the massive sky My Father gave you. That perfect firmament in magnificent hues of blue. And, He populated it and provided food and water, warmth and cold, but He gave His people free will and they flaunted it and rose up against Him. And still He loved them and felt the pain of what it would take for a perfect sacrifice to reclaim His people, buried in their sins. Oh, they prayed and expressed sorrow but it did not remove the stains. They offered burnt offerings, but these earthly animals of blood were so terribly inadequate. I volunteered – send Me – send Me – send Me. I will wash them clean. I will bring Myself as the perfect offering, Your Son – please Father – let Me bring Your people home. And My Father suffered.
