

JESUS SPEAKS
YEAR XVII

Jesus Speaks – Year XVII

---

The decree of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, A.A.S., 58, 1186 (approved by Pope Paul VI on October 14, 1966) states that the Nihil Obstat and Imprimatur are no longer required on publications that deal with private revelations, provided they contain nothing contrary to faith and morals. The author wishes to manifest her unconditional submission to the final and official judgment of the magisterium of the church to which she humbly submits.

Mantra: Let go and let God. Let go and let God.....

Here I am Lord, I've come to do your will.

Jesus Speaks Year Seventeen

607) March 18, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – I feel Your presence, Lord. When I gaze upon You, it ripples in my soul. I stare at You and my blood swells and surges through me. I want to pull You to me and hold You close to me so that our bodies touch. Oh, gentle but strong Savior of mine.

Grant me a sinless day. A day of joy as we meander through it together. Just one sinless day to be so close to You that my heart beats in unison with Yours. A day where the world brightens into a heavenly vision of love expressed by the joyful world around us all. We are meant to enjoy Your handiwork. Each person we meet has been handcrafted by You. Each person has their own special relationship with You. We all must seize upon this. We must search You out inside of us. We must meet You and follow where You lead us. We must accept Your love and learn to recognize Your kindnesses throughout our day. A ray of sun, the trill of a bird, the roar of thunder, the blessed rain, we must not just see and experience but recognize these as gifts of love, a teaching moment in each one. A time to see You in the nature and the world around us. Each small or large vision we see has been orchestrated by You. We must pay attention. We must react the way You would.

We must learn to use our senses to seek You out. Smell the rain, feel the sun, touch the green grass, see the little lady bug, hear the baby birds in their nest squeal for the food their parents bring them. It is a wonderful, marvelous, delightful world that we so often overlook.

Pay attention – find Me surrounding you with My ever-present love giving and giving and giving. Even sorrow is a gift. It allows My people to feel pain and then to give that pain to Me. To ask Me to share it. The death of Lazarus was painful and the death of My earthly father was nearly unbearable. When My Cousin John died his terrible death, it grabbed My heart like nothing I had experienced before. For Me! He died for Me! Oh, how I love My martyrs. But – also – oh, how I love My people. Look up – expect the very best – there is a place for you that has been ready before time began. You are Mine and I take you to My heart.

608) March 25, 2025 – ICC – Adoration –
What can I do for you today?

Lord, a good confession. Let me understand and confess my sins so as to draw myself ever closer to You.

I am always with you. I am beside you in Confession.

Do you understand the severity of even the most careless of sins? You must catch yourself in these so you become aware of them. A simple joke, a nod of amusement at the wrong time. The “better than thou” attitude. You must love the sinner. Love those who disappoint you. Pray for those who are searching. Reach out to them. Cuddle them in your own spirituality. Draw them to me through your actions and, of course, pray for them and with them.

Behold Your handmaid, Lord, and lead me home.

609) April 1, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Why, Lord, why this upheaval in the lives of so many. Surely this is not what was intended. If this is a necessary culling of the government, then, please, assist each person, each family, each child who is affected. Please show them the path to their livelihood. Show them the way to other jobs. I know security is never to be taken for granted.

My love is forever. Not one firing happens without Me there. I can help alleviate the grief, the fear, the lack of security by placing them in My arms. As terrible as this seems at the moment, for those who have faith, it will change for the better. It will bring people closer to me.

People are more resourceful than they think. Step out of your comfort zone and follow in My footsteps. Once you are on the right path, you will find your options are many.

610) April 8, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Thank You! Your blessings overwhelm me!

Did you think I would abandon you? Could you not see that I was directing your footsteps? You have learned and experienced much. You have reached out and met My people. They have responded in kindness and love.

Blessings during DC trip and knowing God was with us every step of the way:

The Uber man – stayed and keep looking for us when we were trying to find him for a ride back

St. Peter's Church – Surprise to find it across the street from where we stayed and met the man from Upper Marlboro. This was the church in DC where my high school graduation was held.

The usher at the crypt of the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception. Told me all about the crypt and his own life as being raised in D.C.

Wayne at the Nats ballpark – Saw the trouble I was having getting down the steps to our seats and came and got me, took my drink from my hand, and ushered us up to the Wheelchair section where we had better seats and were not crowded.

The man who pushed Ray's wheelchair in Baltimore BWI, he stayed with us until we were sure it was the right gate.

Murphy's Grill – on the grounds of Catholic University - We couldn't find it and many, many people continued to direct us until we did.

The Corner Restaurant – The waiter who was from DC and recommended the wine. He talked with us about his DC experiences.

Getting to see my sister, Diane, in Clinton, MD, even for only a few hours.

Going to the St. John Paul II Museum and finding day time Mass and Rosary and being able to participate in the decades of the Rosary.

Being told there were no more guided tours at the Franciscan Monastery and finding one had just started that we were able to join.

*Locating car at Wilmington Airport (ILM)

611) May 13, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Oh my Jesus, enter my being. Soothe the rushing worries and thoughts. Quiet my mind so You can enter into it and bring me the peace that only You can give. Grant me the ability to deal with the present. To be and do and think sinlessly. To be the quiet steady joyful presence for my family. I know You hear me, my Lord, and my God! I know You are present with me and all around me. Show me the way when my spirits sag. Show me the way when it seems to darken all around me. Let me be Your light to others. Show me the way.

I caress you now and always. You are safely in My arms. The tempest roars and the waves engulf but still you are safe with Me. Eventually your ship will steady itself and the seas will calm. Your boat will sail in the peacefulness of a sunny day. The years have multiplied and yet your faith has not wavered. You continue to come to Me and stay with me. Life has been full of choppy waters but your faith has been steadfast and constant. You do not see it yourself but you have accomplished much. There is more yet for you to do before you complete the course of your life. You will be remembered. Your work will live on in others.

Watch carefully, the paths your grandchildren take. They carry you with them intentionally or not. They carry your spirit and your zest for life. They see the beauty around them and rejoice in it. You have earned them the pathway – I will do the rest and I will bring them home to Me.

612) May 20, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – _____ birthday – celebrating with her family of five in Italy.

Dear God, enter my space here – the one you allotted just to me. Share it intimately with me. Enter and take up residence in my brain and my body and soul. By Your very presence I shall be able to remain in a state of grace.

Oh, my child, you delight Me with your prayers and wishes. I am with you. You say My name and your whole body responds in the knowledge that I am there. You want perfection but that will come when you enter My home prepared just for you. Gaze upon Me, My love. Feel how I surround you everywhere. Catch your breath and breathe Me in. Deeper and deeper into your very soul. Feel how it relaxes you. Feel how your mind clears as you distance yourself from the world. Breathe again. Feel the tears of joy and yearning. Feel how alive you are as you enter My world. Let Me introduce you to your guardian angel who huddles around you and provides you with all the necessities of spiritual life. She massages your head while you drift into My world. Another deep cleansing breath and know that your sins are forgiven. Feel My grace pour forth from Me and surround you in a protective cocoon. Bend forward and let your mind reach out. Stay with Me, so that you may comfort Me, too.

613) May 27, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – I need You, Lord, now more than ever. Give me the strength and the personality to endure this age of _____ and myself. Push me to be able to endure until You bring me to Yourself. Coach me in the way to age in Your sight so I may step right into Heaven when I die. Carry me across that threshold like a new bride. Gift me now with patience, endurance, and love. Take away all thoughts of my own sacrifices and bodily failures. Give me the eyesight to reach out to others and help them, forgetting myself in the process. Do not let me be selfish or self-centered, but let me focus outward to be a help to others. Save my tears for empathy for others and not for myself.

When I have accomplished all You had planned for me, when the path is front of me ends and Your footsteps can no longer be followed, bring me home to live for eternity in Your House. Let me cuddle peacefully in Your arms in the folds of Your clothing, while my entire being is exploding in rhapsody to be finally able to touch You, feel You, and spend my eternity with you.

I know that there are more people than I can count who are already in Heaven or will be there eventually. I am selfishly asking for You to myself but I know You can do that while also gathering all others to Yourself.

I'm here, Lord. I await Your coming to bring me home to You.

614) June 3, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Your birthday reminds Me of the day you were conceived in your mother's womb. I watched you from this ever-doubling cell as you were formed. I waited in anticipation for your earthly birth. You were born on Ascension Thursday and you will ascend again on that date. You are My child – a child of God – you are living a life pleasing to Me. You have brought _____ with you and he has carried you also to me time and time again, tirelessly and without complaint. The joy you bring to heaven is palpable, because of your freely given dedication on earth. Do not be afraid of aging. You are using the time wisely and it will benefit you in Heaven.

Call out to Me for assistance. I am walking this path with you. I do not want you to fall – neither spiritually or physically. You have much more to do. As you can see, even simple things stack up and weigh on your mind. Time slips away so quickly now. Days are numbered but you know not when they end.

615) June 6, 2025 – ICC – First Friday Adoration – How loving you are. How forgiving. You open my heart and allow me to enter Yours. I love You, my Lord and my God. You are my very life's blood. You care for me day and night. You are with me at my worst and at my best. Always present, always encouraging and teaching, and, of course, always loving.

You must trust me always. I only have your good in mind when unpleasant things happen. I care for you and bring you closer through the events of your life. Bear My cross when you can. Hold My hand when you stumble. Carry my crown of thorns for Me when you pray. Thus, you enter into My life and you please My Father who rewards you.

Rise up and push yourself daily so your accomplishments will be many. Do all your many chores and duties with a smile and a prayer. Offer up each moment no matter where you find yourself – that is how you pray constantly. Make it all a prayer. Multiply your graces by accepting with gratitude all that is sent to you. You will find this lightens your load.

And always, when the going gets rough, turn it over to Me and we will go through your life's challenges together.

616) June 10, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Enter into My Spirit – Enter into My body, Enter into My very heart. Let our blood co-mingle. I will give you your life blood. You must continue to stay with Me. Let Me teach you. Let Me open your heart to others and allow Me to give My Heart, through you, so those on the peripherals of the world can find the love and rest they need. Open your heart until it hurts. Pray as if you will die today. Let Me cradle you until you grasp what I am saying. My heart beats for all. My heart overflows with My people – all seeking to be so close to Me that they beat with My blood too. Yes, we are all one body. Your deep urges to do good come from within where we reside together. Do not be frightened but rejoice. Let Me draw you up to Me like the sun does to the earthly water. The water, thus, becomes one with the sky and so you shall become one with Me.

“We are one in the Spirit; we are one in the Lord.”

617) June 17, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Lord, forgive me for all my past transgressions. Wipe away the stains of my sins. Grant me the peace that comes from You and cleanse me from the sins of my past and lead me so I do not sin again. A formidable task for sure. Point out to me occasions of sin. Purify my mind so sins cannot enter and take over. Let these last years be ones of penance and of good works and of prayer.

My child, you attend Mass and receive Communion regularly. You pray and you make your day a prayer. Your soul is cared for by your Guardian Angel. Now it is important that you do penance and offer sacrifices for others. You should spend your time gaining access to Heaven for others. Pray for them – Pray with them. You can easily do small sacrifices without others noticing. A silent prayer. A dessert passed up. An extra chore joyfully done for another. A few dollars for the poor. A smile and taking the time to listen. Showing others their worth. Checking on those who live alone. Offering your time when others are overwhelmed. A phone call. A plate of cookies. A visit.

And do your own chores with joy. Look for silent chores you can do for others. Let go of resentments. Resentments tarnish good works. Joy makes good works sparkle. Volunteer to help and then do it. If you pray, God will help you and keep you from overwhelming yourself. Ask your guardian angel for help. Pause when tired and frustrated and take a moment to reconnect with prayer before you continue. And, of course, set aside time for reflection and prayer so as to stay close to Me.

618) June 24, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Sit with Me.

My Lord, my love, my God, my all! I look for direction.

You also could use a sabbatical. A time of reflection and a deepening of love for all mankind. See Me in others. See them search for Me. See their desire to be close to Me. Bring Me to others. Enter their space.

Enter their space. Pull them with yourself into My satisfying circle of love. Pray their thoughts to line up with My own. Offer them peace. Settle them.

Help them reach You. Answer their prayers, too, Lord, as You continually answer mine.

619) July 1, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – How do You put up with me Jesus? My mind is all over the place. There are so many things I'd like to accomplish and despite my concern, I don't get to many of them. So, I just think about them instead of You. My prayers are interrupted as I plan a new path for my yard – or – what to do with the holy cards from so many funerals. Lots of ideas but most reach a dead end. And – where do I go from here? Consume me, Lord, and send me.

620) July 3, 2025 – Heaven opens for your loved ones.

Please, Lord, accept Peggy and Ashley into Heaven if they are not always or already there. I believe the gate is open. Also, Peggy's parents – bring them to You.

621) July 15, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – My dear child, you are unnecessarily worried. Just because your mind wanders blankly doesn't mean I'm not with you. Concentrate on Me. You are staring at My Body, but My presence is all around you.

I want you to look at Me now and carry Me with you when you leave. Spiritually, take a small piece of Me and place it close to your heart. Feel our hearts beat in unison. They thrive with love for each other. As long as we are united, you can do miracles. Prayers will be answered. Lives will be saved.

I believe You, Lord, help my unbelief.

622) July 22, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Oh Lord, My God, my all. Come to me worthless though I am. I know You love me – a sinner. I know You never leave me despite my lapses. Your love sustains me in my life of ups and downs. You are there to pick me up when I fall. You are there when no one else is. I can turn to You and face You and follow You. You lead me so surely, I cannot help but follow. Such a wretch and yet You pamper me with Your little miracles. Holding time still so I can get to church on time. Keeping traffic lights green to speed my way. Introducing me to people who are like minded about You. Those who love You to the ends of the earth despite the hardships that are sometimes in the path. You pull me to You when I am in danger of sin. You gently remind me of the right path. You enthrall my heart, my very being, and, just when I think I can have no more love to give, You fill me again to the brim. Teach me more Lord – swallow me into Your very being the way I swallow You at communion. My heaven will be when I am satiated with Your love and no longer feel empty but complete.

Dear, dear child, you write your hopes, wishes and feelings. I am delighted to be with You, here and now.

*Psalms 63 today, the Feast of Mary Magdalene.
“My soul is thirsting for You, oh, Lord, my God.”*

623) August 5, 2025 – ICC – adoration – Here I am, Lord, feeling so confused, hurt, unappreciated, a disappointment to my children. A terrible mother who did not protect her children from spankings. A mother who trusted that her husband would never use his fist on a child – and he did – and I sat on the edge of my bed – giving up on son and father ever getting along, instead of running after them and preventing it from happening. There are no good memories for my children – only it seems, living in a home full of terror. They seem determined to destroy my marriage, reminding me of such terrible times and saying I should have left him years ago.

This feeling of having a terrible frightening childhood has been told in detail to my grandchildren and they have also pulled away from me. They too have forgotten all the times I played with them, read stories, sang lullabies, and loved them.

Our relationships are superficial and there seems no way to repair them. They have, I believe, always felt I should have sacrificed my marriage and the love of my life for them – and perhaps I should have. But which child or two or three then would never have been born.

If there is a way to restore our relationships, please God, give me this gift if You will.

Oh, My child, oh My _____, your life has been a gift to the world. Your children have suffered but it was rare. They don't remember it that way. The physical should not have happened to them.

624) August 12, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Once in a while, Lord, it would be nice to know I did something right.

625) August 19, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – It is a powerful thing to witness the miracles of My Jesus. He was so generous with His power which came from His love. All that amazing love for us, His people, and we (and I) put Him to death by our (my)sins. Forgive me, Lord Jesus, forgive me. Such a sinner. Please, give me humility. Lace my words and actions with love so I don't offend You. Pull me into You to safeguard my soul. Do not let it wander from

You. Do not let me make Your pain greater. Do not let me hurt You again.

Open my mind before I open my mouth.

Your prayers are heard. Your voice joins the cacophony of voices ascending constantly to heaven. Each one a prayer, a hope, a thanksgiving, and a heartfelt love. Each one is heard individually. Each one is answered in My time. Each answer is full of love even if it is a heartbreaking answer. Trust, that it is what it is, for the good of your soul; even if it is painful now.

The world has come full circle many times in your life. As you know from reflection, many prayers have been answered during those hours and minutes, now gone from your mind.

You don't remember many of those requests, even those made in desperation, but I do. You also don't remember how many good deeds you have done. How many people you have comforted. How many Masses, Communion, Confessions, Rosaries, prayers, and hours sitting before Me, here on the altar. But I do. My love for you burns with an intensity that keeps you near Me. You are drawn over and over to the heated warmth of My love.

I want to burn with that kind of love too Lord. Please do not let it grow cold. Let me remain with You. Supply me with some of Your warmth so I may give it to others. So, I may always do Your will. So, my very life depends on my remaining close to the furnace of Your love.

626) August 26, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Oh, My child, each of your children are also My children. They are all of God. You introduced them to Me. You followed Me and led them to Me. They are still Mine. Life will lead them back to Me. Precious are those who find their way back to the path.

Come now, be happy for the wedding couple and their families. Enjoy all the festivities. Open your arms to accept them as one of your own. Trust that they will follow the right path. You have prayed for the next five generations and so you shall have those prayers answered.

Now, what about you? It is not sinful to want to look your best. You are not selfish with what you have. Wanting to be healthy and to have a decent figure is not sinful. It is a battle you fight in your own body. Offer up those sacrifices to Me. I will love you no matter, but if it pleases you and you are willing to offer up all your diet difficulties to Me, what harm is there?

Help me to make a difference, Lord. Let me leave the world a better place. If it pleases You, please fill my children's heads with good things from their childhoods. It saddens me that they seem to have only terrible memories.

627) September 2, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – There is cause to celebrate – a wedding is being planned! There is happiness in the village that surrounds the couple. Rejoice for the joining – the putting things right.

Make me useful, Lord. Give me Your work to do.

Child, perhaps you should make a list of what you do:

You care for your neighbors.

You bring Me to the sick and homebound.

You clean and press My linens for My altar.

You clothe your children and care for them and their welfare.

You feed My hungry.

You clothe My poor.

You support My seminarians and My priests and nuns.

You constantly donate to Catholic Charities.

You share your locutions.

(I don't share many of them, Lord.)

Perhaps it's time you did.

Help me to know how to do it, Lord.

You have the tools – just put the books out there and let Me do the rest.

628) September 5, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Be with me, Lord. Be with me I pray. I need Your constant presence to lead me through the stages of my life. Aging is a gift and a curse. I must do more with my life. I must stay so close to You that our feet touch. I want so to walk in Your path. This frequent tiredness slows me down. This need to blank out my mind persists when I could be better involved. I berate myself for not getting things done and yet the tiredness persists.

Pick up your book and take it today to the post office and a publisher.

Take a back seat at _____ shower. Her friends are in a different place than you. _____ will look for you. Be kind and see that her needs are taken care of.

Maintain your prayer life. I will assist you in your making time for your readings. Do not push your locutions on your friends. Let them ask to be included. People will be skeptical, you know that of yourself and _____ of Ireland's locutions, but they are approved and her work is world-wide. Much good comes from them. And, so it shall be with yours. You must begin now. The ways open up for you. Keep up your persistence even though past tries have not resulted in any return contacts. It's time to start on your second book. Bring it up to date. Your time will clear up as winter approaches.

629) September 9, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – I come to You today full of hope and nervous anticipation as the wedding _____ I fast approaches. I'm doing my best to trust in You and to turn it totally over to You.

Ah, yes, I do so love weddings. The joy, the anticipation, the planning, and, of course, the two people in love. I will be there.

Concerns: Jesus Speaks – please find me help in publishing this if it is Your desire.

Please make me useful to others

630) September 16, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – My mind is like an insect that flies and buzzes people without settling anywhere. I can't seem to grasp on a single thought.

Start with your toes and feet and gradually work your way up your body as you think of each of the bodily parts and accept them, restlessness, and all.

The thoughts are rampant and then You pop back into focus and accept me totally – scattered as I am. We smile at each other and You draw me in.

Have you no trust in Me. You must relax, enjoy your family, the one you and ____made and cared for until they flew out on their own. Even now, you have spent your morning praying for peace and a beautiful wedding wrapped in family love.

Trust me.

631) September 30, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – There is a hope all have of a happy life. There is a hope all have of lifelong friendships. There is a hope all have a happy death and acceptance into eternal life in Heaven. These hopes stem from a basic knowledge that there is more to life than living here on earth. There is a basic knowledge that there is more to life than earth. Man was made with Heaven in mind. Ever since Adam and Eve sinned, man has constantly searched for God. They reach out but cannot touch. They pray but sometimes prayers are answered differently than you expect or hope for. Continue to pray unceasingly. Storm Heaven with prayers and good works. "Eat of My Flesh and drink My Blood and you shall have life within you." "Do this in Memory of Me." "Follow Me."

The course of your life is about to change. Hope springs eternal. Doors open. People respond. Wait no longer.

Empty my heart, Lord, so that You may fill it. Lead me, lead me, lead me. I am so lost when I am left here alone. I flounder without making progress. Days lead into days and still I have stayed stuck at the crossroads. Illuminate the path You wish me to take.

632) October 3, 2025 – ICC – First Friday Adoration – Welcome to My house of prayer. Look around you – these are My people. They search. They pray. They come to talk, to ask, to pray and adore. I carry them in My bosom

You also. When you get tired and your prayers are scattered, do not fret. Remember, I carry you in My bosom.

Thank you, God, for my family.

633) October 14, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Take me to You, Lord. Remove my sins and failings – keep me pure for Yourself and do not let me be blinded by sin.

Take care, Child, do not skip your prayers but continue to come swallow Me so you may follow Me along the path laid out for you. Caution is important as the devil lurks beside the path and awaits a slip of the foot. He lusts after you and wants only to pull you away from Me. He has no power over you, as long as you pray and sacrifice, your food will not slip. Your path will remain solid and your footsteps sure.

Each step a blessing, each step and act of love. You are being pulled and urged forward; you have the benefit of help from those who have gone before you. They make your steps secure and they keep the way lighted. Your prayers, your little acts of mercy, your Rosaries, your Communion, each breath you take – all counted, all weighed, all accepted. My Father nods His approval. If you wish to do more, add acts of fasting. This is not just food, although it is an opening to a closeness of special meaning to My Father, but acts of doing good for others. A note, a call, a visit to those who are lonely and often forgotten. Bring peace to each home, business, church, to each threshold you cross, to each vehicle you enter. Offer a short prayer of Peace as I did. Remember, Peace be to you. Peace to all who are here. Peace to all who will come this way after Me. Peace to those who enter My churches. Peace to all caregivers, they have a special place already arranged for them. Peace here and now. Peace always!

634) October 21, 2025 – ICC – Adoration –
*Lead me, Lord, for I am blinded by the world.
Lost in the horror that is happening. It seems we take two steps forward and joy abounds – and then, like a slap in the face – evil penetrates and spreads its filth around. The steps backwards are so painful. The best of the world, and, thank You, God, there are many, push back at the evil trying desperately to hold it at bay.*

Pray, child, your prayers weigh well on the scale of life. Sacrifice, this tips the scale toward heaven. Reach then for the power of the saints, who are perched and ready to spring into action. Your own heavenly family calls out to you to offer yourself for the good of the world. They beseech Me to make known your years of writings. They are willing to help you. Do not cease asking for their prayers and leadership as you near publication. Push forward in the confidence that they are with you and, in addition, they are with Me also.

Hurry!

635) November 4, 2025 – ICC – Adoration –
The devil tempts and torments but he has no control over life or death. Do not fear him. He is to be pitied. I Am Who Am. Follow Me.

Proceed as planned with the books. Follow up on the recent thoughts for publication through our friends. Let them disperse the words for you. Send out the books as planned and they will begin to travel faster than you think. Relatives, acquaintances, school friends, priest friends – yes, Bishop _____. Touch base with him. He can help. Do this before you finish Book III. You will finish nine more years. A total of six books. I will not leave you.

636) November 7, 2025 – ICC – Adoration –
Come, again enter My Heart. Feel the warmth of it as My blood courses through it. It warms you and cleanses you and forgives you your sins as it washes you clean. Hope is the message of My Heart. Hope as the blood passes through. It brings the life that the world needs. It feeds the hungry and brings drink to the thirsty. My blood has brought life to the world. I gave it all to you on the Cross. It's yours now. How will you use it? How will you draw others to it? Show them the hope, the love, the willingness to suffer all for them. Tell them I want their souls. Tell them I want their devotion and love. Tell them each one has a very important job; they were born for this purpose. I wanted them before they were born. I desire to give them Heaven. And so, they have a purpose to accomplish. Prayer opens their minds to their purpose. They know it. It lingers as a thought and they brush it away. Yet it comes back again and again. You know what it is. It nags you. You must pray for direction so that you may accomplish this mission of yours. Prayer builds confidence. I wouldn't have given you this job, this purpose, if I didn't know how capable you are of doing it. Stretch yourself. Do not let fear stop you. I feared the Cross as much as I wanted to die for you. I feared the Cross, and yet, I kissed it. I knew it was for you. I knew it was My purpose. Do not get discouraged. Remember, I fell three times. You must get up too and finish your purpose. You must get up and continue. Hope – remember My heart's blood is full of hope. Come back to the warmth of My heart when you need encouragement or a rest. And then, set out again. Pray for directions. Pray for hope. You have been given all you need to accomplish your purpose. Do not be afraid to ask for My help again and again. If you need companionship, pick your most admired saints and ask them to accompany you. Talk to them daily. They will rejoice to be able to help you. There will be rejoicing in Heaven when you enter with your completed purpose.

637) November 11, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – The mantel falls silently and covers the eyes of the devil. He cannot see to be disruptive and so your project will sail easily into the public eye.

Continue to fast as best you can. Fasting between meals is always a joyful way to please My Father. Fasting from games in order to read is also desirable.

You are making time to pray and that does not go unnoticed.

Being in Your peaceful presence so pleases me, Lord. Thank You for this time.

Tick off the possibilities at your fingertips. _____ for the webpage. Your group to put out the word. _____ to bolster your confidence. The first three books are ready. Prayers ascending for the success of this labor of love. My Words dispersed without cost. Your own prayers on the lips of others.

I can never love You as much as You love me, but You make me want to try.

With joy I come to You, no desperate needs but a lifetime of thanksgiving for all You've given me. I trust You implicitly and love You unconditionally. Open my heart to love others so deeply that You are made present in them.

Let me enter Your abode and feel the pure love of heaven surround me. Help me to help others and to spread Your joy. Pull me into Your very heart so I can give it to others. Don't let anyone feel unwanted and unloved. Send me to them so I can open their hearts to You. Give me the words and the hope in You to make things right. Push me forward. Give me a place in heaven where I am close to earth so I can continue to disperse your words and let others see Your love

– Oh! How you love! I adore You, oh, Christ. I adore You!

638) November 18, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – I am so ignorant of the computer program that allows me to put Your words on the internet for all to read. Please teach me or find those who can so easily help me. Help me to get all the years on the website so the world may read and internalize Your words. Help me to please You, Lord.

I come to you today to applaud you for your efforts on My behalf. Treat My words gently and I will see that you have the help you need. Intensify your prayer life and your quiet time with Me. Continue to work on your sacrifices on My behalf. I find them so very pleasing.

Reach out to Me with your computer difficulties. We have specialists in Heaven to assist you. Pray for their help. They are pleased with your efforts on My behalf. I will see to the distribution of My words. Rest your head on My Heart and wait for help.

Be with me, Lord, on this trip to my sister. Let me be of help. Let them be receptive to suggestions for outside help.

If it is your will, let me visit with Bishop _____ and let him do Your will when I request a brief reference from him.

639) December 5, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – First Friday – Litany of Humility – Lord, grant me humility. Help me to regain my sense of sin.

Help me not to sin with freedom of will. Help me to recognize my sins and deepen my sense of sin and sorrow for sin. Do I pray to the Holy Spirit for self-knowledge of my sins? Do I support and care for the well-being of all family members? Do I call and check-in? Have I gossiped? Have I spoken sarcastically about others? Do I make a joke about others behavior or dress. Do I speak enviously or sarcastically about others, i.e., material possessions, cars, houses, boats, home improvements, yards, lawns, etc. (You shall not desire your neighbors' goods.) Do I pray for those I may have ridiculed or humiliated when talking to others? Do I fall short in my speech and do I bridle my tongue? The tongue is a fire – a match can start a forest fire or the fire in Gehenna. The tongue can be a restless evil and full of deadly poison. Have I caused distress to my family and friends? By omission? By ignoring? By reminding them for their past actions or failure to act? Do I really have sorrow for these sins or do I justify them? Have I been neglectful of my responsibilities? Have I complained about them? Have I hurt or acted hurtful to another? Have I been critical of other people? Have I been uncharitable in speech? Belittled others in my speech. Do I shop, labor, or do business unnecessarily on Sunday. Have I prayed with my children? Have I purposely provoked another by teasing or nagging or reminding them of what I believe to be poor behavior. Have I over-eaten? Have I been guilty of rash judgment assuming the worst of someone based on circumstantial evidence? Have I betrayed another's confidence through speech?

Have I tried to develop perfect contrition by reflecting on Christ crucified? Have I counted my blessings from God and tried to recall all God has done for me and how little He asks? I must resolve – to be sincere in it. I must be determined to make my avoidance of sin permanent.

*Because I am judgmental, forgive me, Lord.
Because I am impatient, forgive me, Lord.
Because I am sinful, forgive me, Lord.*

My dear child, you amaze Me! You follow through and you do the best you can. Your sins are forgiven in your efforts to put names to them. You need to pray that you can leave all those sins behind and start fresh. The Holy Spirit is delighted for your recognition of sins and sorrow for them. Call on Him continually - beseech Him to stop you with insights, recognitions, and groanings – and bring yourself back from sin by putting prayers on your lips. Train your brain to stop you before you tongue is activated. I you can do all you hope for, you are on your way to sainthood. Trust the Holy Spirit to guide you away from sin and into a depth of prayer life that you are unable to reach without Him. Reach out also to My Mother. She can pray for you and send you graces from My mercy. You are blessed child – now you must rid yourself of all sin and practice changing your life.

640) December 9, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – My child.

You say "my child" to me and my heart melts, Lord. In my advanced age, I am anything but a child but still I am Your child. You smile upon me with such love that my soul yearns to be with You.

And so you shall, but even now, I am with you, leading you, praying with you, standing next to you always. Fear not – everything is in My hands. You and _____ are in My heart. You both have projects to complete before coming to join Me in heaven. _____ is still searching for his, but he will find it and it will bring him much joy and satisfaction. He has done so much good in his life, despite how his children feel. Of course, he has made poor choices at times but he is constant in his return to Me. He is penitent about his past errors. These things must be forgiven and forgotten as he has done his best to change.

But his health, Lord, he cannot live the life he wants because of his pain and lack of energy. And, he continues to serve You and even looks for new ways to serve You.

Perhaps his continual search is for his mission. Why not set aside time to pray for this?

I will sit with him tonight and start the Abandonment Novena just for this purpose. Please provide Your Mother, the angels and saints to join us in this prayer. We will, of course, ask You for their participation.

And you, child, continue with your quest to put our time together on the website you have created for that purpose.

641) December 16, 2025 – ICC – Adoration – Catch the wave. All humanity feels the force that is pushing its way through the world. The good, the evil, the young and the old, feel this movement. It makes many uneasy but those who trust in Me rejoice and live in anticipation of what is to come.

Help me, Lord, to wipe this fog away and prepare for You to enter the world. Let my work lead people to You goodness. Let them hear the closeness of the beat of your heart. Let them flock to You in this beautiful time of Adoration and anticipation. Teach us Your ways, oh, Lord, teach us how to live in You.

I am closer to My people than they realize. My miracles astound even those who turn their back on Me. My Mother and the saints and angels have been given the Word. They are to participate in the daily lives of My people. They are to lead them in prayer. They are to stay among them and protect them from evil. If you pay close attention, you will recognize their presence.

Help me, Lord, to feel and acknowledge their presence. Give me the prayers You find most pleasing and direct me to call upon them to join me. Help me to make use of this special time in the history of the earth when Heaven has come so close. Help me to be an active participant in joining my earthly prayers and petitions to those of Your heavenly abode. With You and heaven by our sides, there is nothing that cannot be accomplished.

642) January 2, 2026 – St. Mary’s Basilica Chapel – Adoration – You have come to Me. You have come to Me. You have come to Me. Answer Me and complete your project. Send out messengers to tell others. Time is short for all things.

Your prayers are answered in My way and you will understand so as to accept them.

Body, blood, soul, and divinity resting peacefully in the monstrance before me on the altar. You are my all, my life. I hunger for You always. You have blessed me with the beautiful First Friday of 2026 day with Mass and Adoration. You have blessed me and gifted me the joy of being with You.

Bless all here who worship You. Bless all who stay with You. Bless all of their thoughts, hopes and wishes if they please You, and, please Lord, bless my own.

643) January 6, 2026 – ICC – Adoration – Dear God, You give and You give. You play sweet games to remind me of how close You are. A simple pen – needed to write Your blessed words. A pen found, but out of ink. Then – another pen – in a place already searched. And here it is! A gift from You. One must trust and love. One must let Your love race through their body. It starts at the heart and pulses outward until your radiant love reaches the brain which nearly explodes with the need to love You more and more.

I shiver, Lord. I want to silently scream and shout – “This is my Lord! This is my God! He brings a love so intense that my teeth chatter in response."

Pull me in, Lord, Encompass me. Wrap me in Your loving arms. Let me taste You. Let me feel Your breath. And then, sit me down gently and let the sun shine. The sun pulses with the life You have given it. A God-made sphere of warmth and light. And here we are, placed just so as we circle around it. Light-night, light-night- light-night. As St. Francis de Sales says: "During the night we must wait for the light."

644) January 13, 20026 – ICC – Adoration – You concern yourself in a worthwhile project. There are many ways to help end abortion. The evil is intense and many lives and many souls are lost. My Mother weeps for these women, but they are too proud to keep an unwanted child. Funds are also short. Support is hard to find. Pray for an answer to this crime.

Blessed are the poor. Blessed even more, are the poor mothers and their children. Blessed too, the newborn infants who are born in destitute housing and in drug and abusive homes. Paths are needed to lift them out of this poverty.

645) January 20, 2026 – ICC – Adoration – Push me harder, Lord, to do Your work.

Open your eyes and open your heart. Your work surrounds you. There is no need to go in search for it. It comes to you as we speak.

Lord, help me to see, understand, and actively do Your will. Do not let me be blind of the world around me. Help me to see and actively pursue what it is You want of me.

646) January 27, 2026 – ICC – Adoration – Give me, Lord, all I need to complete my work here on earth. I want to accomplish much but I seem to have it all in my head and nothing in my hands. Your spiritual works of mercy cry out to me and yet my hands feel empty. The paths are there, laid out before me and yet, I am delayed at the crossroads. Where can I accomplish the most?

Write my child. Make phone calls. Offer your services. Open your car to receive and deliver what others give you.

Follow up on your lunches with friends.

646) February 10, 2026 – ICC – Adoration – I'm confused today, Lord. Help me find the right track again. It seems so long since we've sat together to talk. I need You.

I'm here, child. You are always with Me. I want you to relax. I want you to pray. I want you to accept what happens. You are in My arms. Feel it .....

Take Me, Lord. I can hardly stand it when You are so close and I can't be with You. The peace, love, life that You offer draws me to You and I want it so badly.

You are not finished here on earth. You are busy with many things. Your life is in order but your project is not done. Come visit Me more often. There is much I have to tell you. There are stars for every human that ever lived and who will live to have one personally. Each star has an angel to guide it and watch over it. There is an angel for everything – things you can imagine and things you can't. If it is God made, it has an angel.

What do you suppose caught you as you fell? Your face was protected from serious harm and you have no head injury. Can't you see, I have more plans for you? Look at your projects. Some are directly for Me and My people; others are for you and _____. It is okay to update your home. You have worked hard to be able to do this. You do not neglect your duties toward Me. Money, yes, you give generously, but your time – ah – that is truly what I love. Your silent prayers. Your little acts of kindness often go unnoticed to the world but I see them. I feel them in your heart. I know them when you think them. You reach out more than you know. You are silent often when you are screaming inside. Then you pray. Have you any idea how many prayers you've said for other? I know. Have you any idea how many Communion you have taken or how many you have given to others? I know. I know the number of Hail Mary's you have said. Numerous steps to Heaven you have earned in your life time. Let your works speak for you. I love you? That is enough?

647) March 6, 2026 – ICC – First Friday – Adoration – First Friday comes again with all the activities that try to prevent me from being here. This morning, I left it all up to You, my Lord, to get me here. The angels got me up at 7:30. When I was dressed and ready to walk out the door, the service man showed up to repair the threshold. He parked in the driveway so I couldn't move the car. Before I could ask him to move his truck, he had a long phone call. When he got off the phone and I asked him to move it, he said, "only two minutes, only two minutes," and went to work while I waited. Still after he left, I arrived at church with about two minutes to spare. God is so good. Thank You, for Your goodness to Me.

Trust in Me. I invite you to the warmth of My fire. Sit with Me on the shores of Galilee. Hear My beloved apostles talk among themselves while I feed them the fish. Yes, the fire gives out warmth but My love provides the flame that warms from the inside out. Cover yourself with My radiant love and you shall never be cold of heart again.

Continue your writing. Keep coming to Me. Continue your works to mercy. Feed the hungry. Cloth the naked. And continue your search for a solution to homelessness. Reach out to others. Help comes from unusual places. Plant the seeds in the hearts of others. Word will travel. The more you talk about the needs, the more others will begin to weigh the possibilities. The wheels of progress are often slow to start but then they pick up speed. Your weapon to assist the speed is prayer, fasting, adoration and bringing the right people to the table.

You can work on a basic plan. You need to pinpoint the need and get that on paper.

Lord, I feel so dense. Please send me to the help I need.

You have the beginnings already in your circle of friends. Reach out with your own ideas and they will improve on them. Use your research skills to identify the needs and the organizations that can help. You have a pyramid – a Jacobs Ladder - and each person had a different level of needs. It's not one size fits all.

The working poor

The disabled with small incomes

The one who wants to stay on the street.
(They need hope.)

The poorly educated.

The addict trying to break the cycle of addiction needs to get away from his access to drugs after giving them up.

Those searching for Me, for family, for someone to care.

Identify the authorities and organizations who can assist you. If your plan is reasonable and covers a wide area of people, they will come around and do the contacting of others who hold access to funding.

Look at education. Learning a trade. Learning to use a cash register. Teach how to get to work on time and become reliable. How to dress for a job interview. Start a class in this. A class can help others especially if they acquire excitement and hope. Look for skills then sharpen them. Get the various trades involved. Talk with managers, owners, even workers, who can put in a good word and prepare the way for an interview.

Yes, of course, housing is where it begins. A place of hope. A wish to succeed.

Pray. Fast. Work
