

JESUS SPEAKS
YEARS X, XI, XII

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

The decree of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, A.A.S., 58, 1186 (approved by Pope Paul VI on October 14, 1966) states that the Nihil Obstat and Imprimatur are no longer required on publications that deal with private revelations, provided they contain nothing contrary to faith and morals. The author wishes to manifest her unconditional submission to the final and official judgment of the magisterium of the church to which she humbly submits.

Mantra: Let go and let God. Let go and let God.....

Here I am Lord, I've come to do your will.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Jesus Speaks Year X

The Tenth Year

361) Adoration – Oh God, how afraid I am that You will cease Your beautiful words in my head. How I cry out in silence at the very thought of abandonment. Oh, how I think of Your abandonment by Your Father at that last moment. How the world ceased to be blessed and how You hung abandoned by Heaven and Earth. But Your Mother, she never left You. She never turned her head. She was there – her body wracked in pain so intense she was relieved only momentarily when her earthly body went limp from pain and passed out. She fought to recover and return to her station at the foot of Your Cross – a place she had dreaded from the moment of her fiat – of her hearing the words of Simeon in the temple – of her flight to Egypt – of her loss of You in Jerusalem. She knew as she followed You around for three years, ministering to You and Your disciples. She never once ceased praying, asking that this terrible punishment for sin be borne by her and not You but ever acquiescing to the will of God. How blessed the world to have Your Mother as an example, as a friend, as a Mother to us also. How blessed this Mother of Yours and mine – and because of her – how blessed am I to call myself her child. A sibling of You, my Lord and my God, my Brother, My Love, My God, My Jesus. Do not forsake me now as I stumble into old age. Do not abandon me to the wolves of the world who try to devour the last vestiges of my life. Pray with me. Stay with me. Keep me company in my loneliness – in my weeping moments, in my pain and solitude. Come Lord Jesus, come, and take me home.

362) What a gift You have given me to give to the world. How blessed Your love made me and how fortunate that You continue to love me and give me hope. We are so confused sometimes and look to You for direction. My blank mind fills when I am with You. It overflows with thoughts of You. How much I look forward – with some anxiety of the unknown – to Heaven and our meeting – finally to see my author of life face to face. Do not abandon this small child to the earth but transcend her skyward into Your arms. I know I am already in Your Heart. Please Jesus, take care of My beloved husband and deliver him safely from this latest battle for health. A long- happy - healthy – life together. My daily prayer to You since before I can remember.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

My love, consider it done.

363) – In the Spirit of the Holy Eucharist resides the path to life. It supplants all other thoughts with the beauty of the Risen Lord. The Spirit of the Eucharist descends and touches in a special way those who come to visit. A power is distributed which cannot be removed. The love of God permeates the hearts of those who visit in such a permanent way that it can never be removed. There is a safety offered by visiting the Eucharist that carries forward into every aspect of your life. There is a relationship that develops, allowing two-way communication directly between you and God. Opportunities are presented in your life that allow for special graces if you open your eyes and your heart to receive them. The world becomes so much more beautiful as you begin to hear the whisperings of nature as they join with you in praising God. All living creatures, all loving plants, all the gases of the air; all the solid rocks and soil, all the waters of the earth and what lies beneath them – all join in a cacophony of joyous praise to God. The heavens open and the stars dance and radiate beauty such as cannot be fathomed by the minds of earth. The pulse is deafening as all raise their being – their very existence – their matter – their purpose – and praise their Creator and Master of the Universe – their God!

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Nothing can be silent around their magnificent benefactor. Nothing can sit idly by and ignore the Master of Creation. Everything responds in a deafening chorus of joy, happiness, love, and gratefulness, and praises God, sending Alleluias pulsing into every living breathing body. Those deceased also join from their heavenly afterlife and offer in a special way all they possess for God to make use of it through them so that earth will become more Godly – more holy – more beneficial to all.

Turn – turn – turn – on every side to see the Glory of the Lord, without whom you have nothing – nothing – nothing. Pray, pray, pray, offer your breaths for the Glory of God. Offer your hands to Him to do His work for Him. Join your heart with His – pulse together and feel the exuberance as it takes over your body and soul. God is here! God is alive! God wants Me to love Him – entirely – completely, spectacularly back – just as He loves Me.

364) I adore Thee, O Christ and I praise Thee, because by Thy Holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

The day is coming when the world will awaken from its slumber of innocence and will recognize the horror around them which they have caused. Oh, the gnashing of teeth and the grinding of hands that will occur when the full force of their actions descends upon them. They will see the far-reaching agony which grips the world because of their hatred and foul actions. They will beat their breasts but help will not come. They will beg and plead for mercy but it shall not be granted. They shall lower themselves into the grave but death will not come to relieve them of their agony. They cannot die as a light will follow them forever – a light they cannot grasp – a light that calls to them and they cannot answer. Oh, their pain and grief at being outside of the light. A light that pierces but does not satisfy their longing to see God. The day of reckoning! The last day – the end of time – fear itself is not enough, the earth will quake, tombs will open, heaven will receive those who lived for God and hell will boil over with those who did not.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

My own people are the salvation for some of those souls. Their lives of prayer, sacrifice, fasting, and sacraments will save so, so many. My people's open arms and hearts will cure many of their sinfulness and defiance of all that is good. Every prayer saves! Every little good deed salvages a soul. Every little sacrifice touches a hardened heart. My people save many. It is a continuation of the Cross of Christ – which never stops giving, loving, praying, praising, and longing for the glory to come – life with the Father – the God of the Universe – The Almighty – The One – The Most Powerful – The Omnipotent – and yet your God and My God – Our Christ himself prays. "Oh God, My God, why have You forsaken Me!" His Son – and yet mystically also Himself – recognized the Oneness of God the Almighty Father of all. Pray always. Always. Always. Do not waste a moment of time when you could be praying! Make your entire life a prayer of salvation. God Himself will direct the fruits of your life to those who need salvation.

365) Thank you – my whole being worships and adores to the best this earthly body can. So difficult to be trapped in a mind and body that is so limited at giving You praise and love. So impossible to express the gratitude that burns in my heart. So in love with You. So in rapture at Your love for me and so inadequate at expressing my joy to You. Just when my heart is so full that I can almost touch that beautiful place with You of peace and solitude, all thoughts seem to pop in midair and I come crashing down to earth again – but even that has beauty because I know, I understand, I rejoice because You are still here with me and I begin the waiting period all over again. Such anticipation – such joy in Your love – such overwhelming happiness stirs in the waiting – waiting – wanting and waiting.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

366) Blessed is My Mother among women. The gifts she is giving the world can be felt in the wildest regions and corners of animalist society. There are no bounds for her love and she touches all and reaches out to the most destitute of sinners. She struggles to bring harden hearts to My Heart. She gives Me these gifts of previously lost souls that she has won over with her motherly and loving ways. Your prayers, your presence at Adoration and the Mass, your sacrifices – all are greedily taken by her and used as weapons against the evil of the world. She is a tyrant for good and battles daily with evil. She is a magnificent warrior who does not quit her post. She is an army unto herself who takes on the most ardent sinner. She is a pillar to hold up those floundering on the brink of destruction. This gentle, loving, beautiful woman – this woman, My Mother.

Use this, her month, this lovely springtime when the world is fresh and new and life wells up from the earth, rejoicing that My Father has delivered them to the world – the trees, the flowers, the grass, the buds of promising new life – this then is her time – her month – blessed those with May birthdays – they are special people who have been infused with her spirit of new birth. Pray to her, honor her, ask her to intercede for the world. She loves to be asked – to have some request to bring to the heart of her Son.

She delights in helping My people. She is My Mother. She is your Mother. She is the Mother of the earth. She is the Mother of the universe. She is the Queen – the Queen of Heaven. Bow to her Queenship and ask that she remember you to her Son – the King – Christ the King.

367) Blessed those incarcerated for they have only time. They have time to set their souls aright in the sight of God. They have no earthly concerns for food, water, shelter – only concerns for their immortal souls. Serenity is possible for them even in their bare essential circumstances. How I love to visit with them – to tell them of how I also was tied and bound and held against My wishes. I wanted them to know I also suffered much – but for them – not a wasted suffering – a real purpose – to suffer for others brings great joy in heaven. Many graces are poured out and I Myself visit those people. I can't stay away – My love draws Me to their sides time and time again. They are never alone – but sometimes they long for so much more and it does not come. Blessed those who reach out to My imprisoned people. Those who bring them good tidings of My love for them. Those who need My love and the warmth of knowing how much I care for them. I bled, suffered, and died for them. I had holes hammered in My flesh for them. Thorns pierced My head for them. I gladly wore the horrid, bleeding stripes of My beating for them. My feet, swollen, bleeding, cut and bruised – all – all – all for them. How I love all but, oh, how I love them! Tell them – encourage them to ask Me for anything – peace can be theirs for the asking. Contentment for their circumstances can be theirs for the asking. All I ask is to be loved in return – I am imprisoned with them – right beside them – if they grasp the air – I am in that air. Do not forget this – I will Myself to enter into their lives in such a way as to make their souls jump for the pure joy of it. Their lives are not wasted when they turn their suffering into joy. They can place all their disappointments, all their sadness, all their sighings for what might have been – place them in My wounded bleeding hands and I will make of them the finest jewels and they will transform into graces that shower down on all Mankind.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

These – these My people can be a people set apart by their very lives of suffering. They are blessed because they have all that time to turn over to Me for the good of the world. How I love these My people! How I long for them to find Me there – right beside them. How I saw them from the Cross and took pity on them. They have opportunities for graces unlike all others in the world. They must not waste this opportunity to be of service to a sinful world. They must accept this challenge to holiness. This challenge to offer all for others. This challenge to be My beloved disciples.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

I walk with you, My brothers and My sisters. Together we can change the world. Do not lose a moment if you can offer it up for a grander purpose. Do not sit idle if you can pray. Come to Me now. Be with Me now and I will always, I promise you, I will always be with you. Just say My name.

368) – It is a lovely morning for you. The rain has ceased and the earth sparkles in freshness of wet leaves. Stillness pervades the air. Leaves that just yesterday bounced from rain drops are now quiet enough to be a still-life painting. Birds are not yet up but snuggled deep in their nests as the sun works to peek through the overcast sky. A blest morning and an equally blest day awaits you.

Commented [KW1]:

369) Blessings to you on this day of Adoration. Thank you for coming and spending time with Me. It is only through such devotions that the world will be revived. It is only through the prayers and good works of My own that souls shall be saved from the pits of hell. Welcome – welcome into My arms – into My heart – into My life of longing for you. Do not leave Me for worldly pleasures but come to Me for sustenance and I shall provide all you need.

Enter into My heart afresh. Bring your soul and mind and I shall refresh you. Cast aside the cares of the world, they are as transient as the clouds, here for a moment and then gone with the first puff of wind – never to be assembled again into that first singular shape. My love is the only constant in life. My love is all you need and it is all you really have. Do not forsake it for earthly fame, fortune, and friendships. I direct your life when you ask, pray, and come to Me. I love being a part of your decisions, of your conversations, of your spiritual life. I love you! The universe cannot contain My love. The more you take, the more it overflows into more. There is no limit – no bottom – no time when you cannot reach out and find My love surrounding you. Blessed are they who reach for My heart. They are not disappointed. They are not left alone. They are never without Me. I am there always. I surround you completely enveloping you in love and protection. You are safe with Me. Do not fear. I am coming for you when your time on earth is complete. Such a fickle thing is time – it tries to convince you it goes on forever and that you will have all you want of it. Time is not infinite, you have only a small fraction of it when you live in time and even during your time, you have such a miniscule area where you reside. Make the most of it.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

- 370) Come, pray with Me to the heart of My loving Father. Together we will ask all you have petitioned for. Graces abound and so do miracles if you have the faith of a mustard seed it will be so.
- 371) My God you are My very heart and Your love pierces my soul. Help Me to remain in You so that You will forever remain in me.

Did you come for consolation? Have you no shame in asking for peace and harmony? Have you no pride that you beg for special favors and blessings? Ah – this is why I am here. I want to hear everything you have to say. I want you to shower Me with prayers and hopes and dreams. I want you to desire Me so that I remove all your faults. They are like flowing dandelions in the wind when you ask for Me to remove them.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

You struggle to decide the proper course for a reprimand and then wonder if you should just let it pass over you. Such is the struggle of good and evil. However, a proper correction can be acceptable when presented with the right attitude but not everyone wants to have their faults pointed out to them so gentleness and kindness must be your first concern. Do not linger on the faults of others but look inward toward making improvements on yourself. You are chosen. You are blessed. You are a child of My Heart. Together we move forward as we have since you were a mere child at play. Together we move from youth to maturity to old age. It is the nature and expected progress of everyone. This forward movement, this acceptance of grace along the way. This subtle push to become a better person. This pull to love more deeply and to pursue Me in all that you do.

Aging is such a gift. The knowledge gained is envied by the young. Your acceptance of others as they are is important but equally important is your example for them. You must lead by example. Perfection is not possible on earth but striving for perfection in your spiritual life is a virtue that must be sought. This is why it is so important for you to visit with Me. I can replenish your soul and settle your anxieties. I can allow you the peaceful presence of My Heart as My eyes gaze upon you writing at My table. Yes, My table overflows with all you need, with all you desire, a cornucopia of love – all you need to do is come. Come to the altar. Come to My banquet. Taste and see the goodness poured into you from My overflowing heart. Feel the peace, joy, and longing as you settle into My presence.

372) My Lord, My God, My Love, My All.

Come to Me sweetly child and make your home in My Heart. Open yourself completely to the future I have planned for you. We are inseparable in sickness and in death. I will never leave you and you have only to think of Me for Me to come hold your hand. Peace is My offering as is My love. Nothing can uproot what has been sewn so deeply. Call out in happiness and joy and whisper softly when in pain. I rejoice and am at your beck and call. Do not fear the unknown but rejoice in knowing it is better than the world you know and love. It is the fulfillment of all your desires. It is already your home; you must only die to enjoy it. Come now and let us spend time together. Here, now, and soon in heaven. Will yourself into My presence and ask of Me what you desire.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

He, My Father, forgives sin because He loves much.
373) – We are one. You and I are one. Never to be separated. Sickness, health, and before and after death. My heart and yours rest together. We beat as one heart. You are entrenched in Me and I reside in you. Toss your cares and anxieties into the blowing wind and let them drift far from you. Do not concern yourself with tomorrow as I am the physician you need. I bring health and healing. I hold your hand. I hold your head. I hold your life. I choose to do this freely because you have come to Me with needs. Rest in Me.

374) You come before Me now in anticipation of meeting Me and listening to My voice. You will not be disappointed. I am always here but in a special way at Adoration. Come now – enter into My Peace.

I am sorry for dozing, Lord, but the quiet of this place brings me to a state of rest.

I care not that you doze – My disciples, St. Joseph, the Blessed Mother of all the world – all needed sleep sometimes. Do not feel guilty. What is important is that you came.

Caress My words and let them encircle your heart. Hear them with a fresh ear and with your inner being. I am here for you. I do not come into the world because of a need but because I am needed. I come to love and I ask you to love Me in return. I do not need your love but I want it. I want you to be grateful. I want you to search for Me. I want these things so I can give you more of Myself. My love pours out in fresh libation every time you approach Me. My love comes with no strings of need but of hoped for response from you to love Me in return. Your love allows Me to shower down great blessings and it clears away the dirt and grime and freshens your soul while opening your heart. Your love is paramount to our deepening relationship. You are happy when you rest in My love and I am overjoyed to allow that rest.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Life bounces along at its own pace. Here a good day, there a sad or painful one. Aging reaches down to the newest baby and snatches it ragtag toward adulthood. Some pick up better skills during those formative years than others. Some reach out but others turn inward. Some sleep while others can only stay awake – afraid they will miss a moment – skip a time when they would be learning – listening instead of dozing – but no one can be constant in this – so life goes on – days become years and soon there are memories in place of growth. It is then necessary to hone inner growth – a recognition of soul over body. A transubstantiation of sorts – a metamorphosis – a turning – ever turning inward so as to blossom with a sweetness that ascends to heaven and heaven then calls this soul – this flower – home.

375) Cast me not out Lord when I question and look for answers but continue to enlighten me and show me the true way to adore You. Help me to understand the Way of the Cross so as to better relive it in my own life. Lead me forward on that journey and allow me to follow in Your bloody footsteps. Give me courage and stamina to persist to the end with You. Let me be there in suffering at the foot of Your massive Cross and let my life be a way to lessen that agony if only for a fleeting second of love rising up from the earth at your bloody feet. Fill me with love, oh, Lord, My God, so I may bear Your sufferings too and offer it back to You. Give me an open heart and a mind with wisdom enough to grasp what You went through. Help me to understand and to offer You a life of repentance for myself and for all mankind. Let me bring you souls through my prayer life and let those souls blossom and bring in ever more souls to Your fold. I love You, my Shepard, my Leader, my God, and my Lord. Take from me what You will and give me the courage to persist.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Oh child, what you ask is easily granted but remember I need you for other things too. You will need your health for a while to finish your current projects for Me. Do not be discouraged – an answer is forthcoming that will please you and take the burden of publication from you. Print up what you would like in the meantime but do not fret over the rest. This new book will be shorter but you will enjoy all it offers. Take your time in piecing it together but do not cease your prayer life and certainly do not cease coming to visit with Me. We are inseparable in life and will be after your earthly death.

Concentrate also on your family and continue to press them into regular church attendance.

Go today and bask in My love.

376) See My beloved how I allowed Myself to be tortured and punctured for your sins and those of the world.

(Jesus Prays) “Look Father on Me and see how I love My people. Please Father – accept My every prick, puncture, and pain and agony as complete reparation for the sins of Man, now and until the end of the world. Let the hatred of them in their sins be tempered by My love for them and allow them the Divine privilege of attaining forgiveness and the right to enter into Our Heaven. Bless them Father in their wretchedness and see through their sins. Look deeply into their hearts and you will find they are innately good but only misled. Love them, Father, as You love Me. Desire their conversion and give them this opportunity to spend eternity worshipping You and glorifying Me while entrenched in the love and majesty of Our Spirit."

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

"Bless Me Father in My Agony by giving Me this request. When I have finished – when I am again all Yours – when I re-enter Heaven, leave open the gates for those who have loved – for those who have fought to follow Us despite the sinful world. Bring them in Lord – let them follow My path to You. Love them, Lord, as I have loved them. Call to them – tell them to look at Me in My suffering – tell them to follow My example – to be willing to suffer all – even death – to receive life eternal. Keep open the gates of Heaven, Oh God, My Father – look upon Me in My last hours of life on earth and grant this, My wish, for all Mankind. Life, Oh God, My Father, Life in Us!"

377) Such an inattentive soul I am today, Lord, my mind rolls around and around, constantly moving about worldly things and not at all concentrating on Your beloved voice. Center me in You, Lord, for this short hour, when I can feast my eyes on Your Body, and call me away from worldly thoughts into the realm of Your peace. Amen.

[Jesus sings softly over and over almost like He is humming a lullaby.] Feast on Me – Feast on Me. Rest your eyes and Feast on Me. Cleanse your soul in My sight and Feast your eyes on Me. Calm your inner being and rest in Me. Rest your weary head and know the beginning is near. Enter My peace with open arms and rest your eyes on Me.

Blessed those who desire rest for the worn and tired of this world. Blessed the homeless, the starving, the lost and the lonely. They shall feast on Me like no others. They shall find My arms open to receive them and the table set in plenty, overflowing with new faces wanting to be with them and show them the joys of their new loving home.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Blessed those who walk the world with no place to call home. Those who wander and hide and barely survive, eking out an existence where there is none to be had. Moving fearfully from one place to another. Keeping hidden and trying to survive. Oh, how these are My people. Oh, how I want to give them rest. Feast your eyes on them because there I am in their midst. I am their comfort when they turn inward. I am their hope when they are feeling hopeless. I am their protector when they are feeling vulnerable. I do not desert them, they stumble and My heart catches them and enlarges their place in My Kingdom. They shall be blessed with a cornucopia of plenty. Their thirst and hunger shall be sated. Their bruised and battered body shall be glorified.

World! Take note of these people. Their suffering brings you of plenty to salvation. They suffer for you! Do not ignore them! They are witnesses for you! Their cries are for you to hear! Open your ears! Their plight is for you to see! Open your eyes! They are for you to see and hear and respond with kindness. Pray for them. They are in pain for you. Look at them. They are dying for you. Feel their loneliness, their homelessness, their life of insecurity, and know they are your salvation. Yes, Feast your eyes on Me!

378) – What is your thought child? Where is your heart today? Is it in the realm of My poor? Or is it wrapped up in worldly things? How can you be at peace with Me if you are not at peace with yourself? Ah, but this is about to change. You are entering a new phase of life: sad and happy, tiring and exhilarating, busy and calm, disturbing and settling.

Make Me known child.

Turn your attention to letting the world into your joy at knowing Me. Spread the word – let it out and see the response. Be ready for your world to turn upside down. It is My path. Do you trust Me? Do you love Me? Do you want to evangelize? Bring the world to Me through this Word of Mine. Give it to the world.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

379) You have come in confusion and sorrow today asking for help in the remedy. Your memories flood like tears of unhappy moments of loss of trust of forgotten love, of times of trouble in your marriage. You have forgiven many years ago but your memories you cannot erase.

Remember all those vacations for just the two of you he arranged. Begin to remember and list them in your head. Talk of them – those times full of love and passion. How he waits on you, dotes on you, does as you ask, remembers all those significant dates. How he loves your family and puts you first.

Remember the warmth of his hands – those big warm gentle hands – how he curls around you to warm your feet – your legs, your whole body. The gentleness of his touch when he reaches for you. The depth of his love you have never doubted. That he puts you above all else you know.

He prays with you. He drives you when you ask and even if you don't. He lunches with your friends and never refuses if you ask.

He works for you – spending his life so you could be free to choose to work or stay home. The depth of his love is immeasurable. Give that back to him. Awaken his passions in a new way. I await you both with arms opened wide and no recollection at all of past imperfections. You shall both rest in Me and your homes are already prepared when your work on earth has ended. Your legacies will live on and you will be remembered often by those you leave behind. Your course has been a good one with few diversions. I have asked for your love and I have received it. You have asked for Mine and I have given it. You are now just “cleaning up the edges.”

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

380) – Ah, I see you want more. A chance to continue our conversation. Yes, you will come to see all I have spoken of – your dedication to these projects of mine is not without its reward. Nothing on earth is permanent – it will all eventually form into a matter so above earthly understanding that even if I speak of it you cannot grasp or understand. But know this, it is of Heaven, it is of God, it is the culmination of life in the Spirit. It is joy beyond comprehension. It is where love abides in fullness and charity and justice and the benefits of living a good life.

Write down what I say: (Jesus sings to the tune “Where Charity and Love Prevail”)

- Where Charity and love exist
- There in the midst am I
- There hearts are gentle, souls are kind
- And love is ever found.
-
- Here am I, your King and God,
- Upon a throne of gold
- And there you are up next to Me -
- In beauty undisclosed.
-
- Come sit with Me and share My light
- And do not fret the world
- Because it soon will be undone -
- To bring you to My Throne.
-
- Oh, come to Me with joyful heart
- And hear My voice a right
- No more the darkness to confound -
- No more the long dark night.
-
- A blessed place will soon unfold

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

- And happiness prevail - As God
discloses to His own - The place
He has prepared.
-
- Forever home, forever blessed
- Forever not to roam
- Forever here in Heaven above -
Forever by the throne.
- Forever by the Throne.
-

381) Perfection – Heaven is perfection – all is in order – all is visually and spiritually in order. All senses are satisfied, yes, but the inner soul is more than satisfied. Were that soul not in Heaven it would burst apart with the joy and goodness that fills it. The mind, the eyes, the ears, the senses would all . . . nothing could last were it not that God desires it so.

You are rushed today child. You want to get so much into the day as your family calls to you for their needs. You have but one necessity – Me – and those in your life who most need you – as long as you have Me – they are taken care of in a manner suitable to their life needs.

Feast on Me. Feast on Me, Rest your soul and Feast on Me. Come to Me with open arms And rest your soul in Me. See with your eyes – hear with your heart Open your mind and Feast on Me. Come of free will. Come of love Come Feast your eyes on Me.

382) – Speak with Me. Tell Me all about your cares and concerns. Tell Me your failings and your successes. I am with you through it all but I love it when you tell Me about it.

The cares of this world, although sometimes they feel overwhelming, are only temporary. Search deeper and find the strength to sacrifice them to Me. Your reward is heaven and an eternity free of pain and suffering. There is such joy and beauty awaiting you there. Happiness is unending. You have no earthly words to describe Heaven. You must experience it.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Meet Me here on earth. Learn to love and obey Me in the here and now of earthly time. Practice living in My love and trust Me – yes – always trust Me. Flick those lingering – back of your mind – doubts away. Dust them from the corners of your mind and fill them with trust and joy. Allow My love to permeate the cells of your body. Feel Me in you and trust Me to do what best serves Me and brings you to a closer relationship with Me.

Open my body to You Lord. Open my mind. Take me soaring above myself and into the center of Your universe of love. Carry me out of my body and allow me to float in that wonderful in-between – a touch of communion with You, experienced in the blink of an eye or in a single held breath – but the joy – the peace – the desire to never leave You, takes my breath and leaves me glued to the earth when it is over. The noises of my surroundings return and the moment is gone. The connection is broken but the desire for it never leaves Me. I search for those touching – feeling – exuberating moments of contact with You in a special way. My breathing seems to stop – all time dissolves away and there we are together in some vast space in my head. And then it is gone again. Gone again, yet I know, I instinctively know You have not left. You allowed me to open Your gift of presence and seep myself in it for a mere moment, but You left me with the promise of a lifetime – an eternity – of unspeakable joy.

Your warmth takes over my soul and the skin of my body cools to it. And then I am back in this space, unable to recapture that moment – that emotion – that connection – and yet somehow still in touch with You.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Connected by the Eucharist – by the sacraments – by the graces given – and by prayerful thanks for blessings given. I love You, Lord, and, yes, I feel You, I know You, I desire You, I am willing to wait for You and spend my time doing Your bidding. Come to me often, I pray. Give me strength to be all You want me to be. Take over my mind and lead me ever closer to You. Take over my body and direct its every move. Take over my mouth and protect me from my sinful self. Take over my hands and have them used only for You.

All of me, Lord – only for You. A life – only for You. Caring for Your people, Lord – in Your name – in Your stead. Your words in my mouth, Your kindness in my hands. Your love in my heart. Your joy in my face. Our lives intertwined now and forever. Fill me up, Lord.

Ask and you shall receive Seek and you shall find Knock and the door
will be opened.

Pray and I will pray with you. Father, hear our prayer.

383) (Part I) You are right to come today as the world is desperate for My words. Believe that the time is coming when the people will hunger for Me and gnash their teeth as they await My punishment. Sin has been rampant and the world is suffering because of it. Blessed are those who have heeded My warnings and turned to prayer and the sacraments for healing.

Do not despair, My mother is cleaning out the roaches and bringing in the sunlight. The world is turning toward her as the way to turn back to Me. Blessed are those who pray her Rosary. They are the saving graces that will redeem a faltering church.

Look for good priests and offer your support. Begin to protect them and honor them as they have suffered much. They are found guilty when they are not. Pray for My priests. Pray for My Church. Pray for the Pope.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

This immense suffering and fall from grace has been brought on by the infiltration of the devil. When sin prevails, his strength grows and he greedily reaches for more and more souls. His power comes from evil which is his entire make-up. There is no good to be found in him. He is to be feared in that his insidious ways can enter a soul at a most opportune moment. Gird yourself in the armor of Mary. He cannot penetrate her nor can he steal those who are protected by her. Shelter yourself in her Army and know she will be victorious as the Light returns to My Church.

Dress appropriately – walk appropriately – speak appropriately and let your light shine as a beacon to draw others to you and thus to Me.

Candles light the way. Be a candle.

(Part II) The mother and the baby.

The baby rests on the mother's heart. Sleeping peacefully in her arms.

She cradles and rocks and hums her love and the child sleeps soundly in peaceful bliss.

But the babe is giving his blessings to the mother.

The babe is bringing innocent love.

The babe is opening up the heart of his mother:

The babe gives his entire self over to her so that she may protect him. It is a union of God and man.

God came as a child so that we may love, honor, protect Him.

He in turn will grow to love, honor, and protect us.

Who gets the most out of this union of God and man?

Of babe and mother?

Whose heart burst with love – who would die for the other – who would furiously protect the other? Who would?

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Trust in My Mother. She is a force to be reckoned with. She is powerful. She is fearless. She is unleashed as the world is awash with sin. Do not do battle with her, but join with her. Her army is immense and her warriors are strong and determined.

A fearsome sight as she approaches the battle field. The world explodes in the force of her entry into the final battle.

The walls of evil are collapsing. The new Jerusalem follows. 384)

_____ 25th Wedding Anniversary. *How grateful I am, Lord, for the gift of this couple and their family? How blessed You have made me and how full
my heart in gratitude. (His song continues.)*

Come to Me
Come to Me Open
your heart And
come to Me.
Leave the world behind
And enter My heart
And come to Me.

(God the Father speaks) The world has only to quiet themselves and listen to the voice of My Son. All on earth have the ability to hear Him. All have the spark that can become a raging fire. How few look to this need for Him. How few open their deepest being to find Him. How they smother Him away under all the grossness of the world and bury Him when He is not dead. He struggles with their thoughts and penetrates their minds and still they snuff Him out to pursue evil. How wretched is the man who deserts his innate goodness to bury My Son again and again.

Dear Guardian Angel, encapsulate me please so that the evil of the devil cannot penetrate my mind, soul, body – no evil thoughts, no evil to escape from my tongue, no evil to be visible in my actions or in my face. Always to be of service, humbly to others. Always to be ready to assist and lend a hand. No resentments. No lofty thoughts. No cowardness in the face of evil. Always, Lord and God, to be of service to You. For the many times I have failed, I am so, so sorry.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

385) – I am Yours, Lord.

Why do you stew, child? All is well. All is so much better than you allow yourself to think. I told you, your family is in My hands. They rest secure in My love. What happens to them is always part of how I take care of them. They will all be Mine after death and isn't that what you ask?

Keep working on the music and I will send assistance. I ride with you to this next series of appointments. I guide the hands of the doctors to bring your husband back to good health. Trust in Me. Never cease praying but trust that your prayers are being answered.

Do not be afraid – calm your inner being and trust in Me.

There will come a time when you will seek Me and cannot find Me. Store away My words in your heart and in your head. I will not have left you but you will not hear Me.

Find Me in the quietness and stillness of the night. Feel My presence in your heart and soul. I will never leave you. I surround you and protect you. I died for you. Why, the, would I ever let you go.

386) September 25, 2018 – Adoration –
Overwhelmed, confused, sinful yet crying out to You for enlightenment, answers, mercy. Hold me close, Lord, do not let me slip away into the abyss of loneliness, selfcenteredness, and greed. Pull me free of this quagmire of sorrow and free my feet to serve You in the way that most pleases You. The fog is thick and I walk blindly with only Your light to lead me. I follow but I know not where I look and search until the light – Your light – again appears. Sometimes faintly, sometimes as a beacon – but always You come when I call out to You. Always You lead me when I am lost. Always, always, always.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

I know you have missed our time together in the peacefulness of quiet Adoration. I know you have not ceased to pray and to be with others as a help and a presence. These are all good longings and reasonable ways of being among others but I know your happiness is here with Me.

I beg, I plead, I petition You to come be with me, stay with me and I am so ashamed at the place I have to offer You – so full of deceit, hatred, insufficiencies, lack of love, self-absorption. Cleanse me, Lord. Make me a suitable home for You. Sweep out the last vestiges of sin and blackness. Open the windows of my heart to hear Your voice anew to allow in the graces provided so generously by You. To let them change me into the person You want me to be. Wash me, Lord, of my sins, past and present. Scrub me clean until I bleed freely for You. And then settle in, never to be chased away by the odor of sin. Send me crashing through the door of heaven in a pleasing and blessed way so as to meet You face to face – unblemished and pure – cleansed here on earth.

(New Request) A day to open the tabernacles of the world – to allow all who wish to come and pray. To advertise it as a day of atonement – start with the Deaneries – then the Dioceses – then the world.

Invite the public – open the church doors to air out the stink of sin and the abominations committed by those hierarchy of the church. Invite in the Holy Spirit.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Consider a daily Novena prior to this Cleansing Day.
Mass, confessions, scripture readings, Rosary – one parish after another – ten parishes – ninety days –

A child shall lead them through this holocaust.
Dedicate this time of penance to the Infant of Prague.

387) - (Jesus singing over and over)

Trust in Me
Trust in Me
Open your heart and
Trust in Me

Blessed those who spend their days in the service of others. They shall receive great rewards in Heaven.
Their lives are beacons and light the way as others are led to follow in their footsteps. Our footsteps are one and the same – all leading to My Father's house. Places are prepared and waiting for those who serve. They are special to Me as I also came to serve. My people –
My people – My people.

Care also for those who are destitute. Do not be put off by the hopelessness of their situations. Rise up and assist them. Offer your house, your very selves, and give them a few days of being cared for as they sort out their lives again. There are no wrong ways to helping when the needs are so great. Give as you can and do what you can.

Cast out the shadows of doubt and sweep my soul clean of all mis-guided thoughts. Bring me to see, feel, react to the plight of others. Make me a beacon of hope in this world of sin and sorrow. Teach me, oh Lord, my God, to see as You see. To feel as You feel, to help as You help; to be Your hands, Your spirit, Your nature of love. Help me Lord for I am such a sinner – a small person in a very large world and I struggle with inertia and stubbornness of feet to move into the unknown even

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

with You beside me. Help me, Lord, to bring out the good in people – in myself – to open up hearts, wallets, minds, and use energy, what we are gifted, our resources, to aid those less fortunate, to help ease the mental, physical, and monetary pains of the poor. Place me where I can be of service. Do not let me flounder indecisively until this crisis is buried along with the lives of those I did not help when I could. Help me to see, Lord. Help me to serve, Lord. Help me to pray with my hands and heart and reach out so that I make a difference in the lives of the poor. Help me to make a difference in the world. Help me to lead and not wait to be asked.

388) – You come with heavy heart, feeling you can do so much more, but unable to find the path. You are doing more than you know. You are spreading My Word as I offer you the opportunities. The words I have given you are spreading like water that seeks a level place to settle. It is not for you to see these effects but only to continue to write them down as My Words. Others will pick them up, read them, digest them, and recognize their own path – laid out plainly for them to follow.

Relax, My Love, relax and enjoy your family and your life. You are loved and respected by many you have not met, but who know you by your words and actions. Many have been affected by your prayers and good works and are grateful to you without knowing you.

You are right – it is never enough – in life, it is expected that it is never enough. Not enough time to do all the good that needs to be done. My own life is the perfect example. It is what lives after you – your inheritance is multiplied by your prayers, good deeds, and works, which I give you. That is passed on and will again be multiplied. My Word is spread among My people and when it falls upon good soil – ah – that is when you see saints spring up!

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Harvest My Words so that others may eat.

389) Come to Me, please Jesus, my Lord and God. Come make Your home in me so that I may do Your work. Please give me direction as I am such a silly person when I go off on my own. Let me have Your heavenly influence and help so that Your will be done.

Oh child, I am with you always. My direction is for you to follow your head. Do what you can but you must remember how I love the poor and those in want. Do for them as you would do for Me. Carry My Cross to the needy and destitute. Carry My love to those who feel abandoned. Do My work and I shall reward you greatly in Heaven. Leave ___ to Me.

390) - I see your heart is full today and your mind is busy. You must settle yourself in Me and await further instructions. Life does not come all at once but is strewn out over many years. It is not necessary for you to be aware of all the good you do while on earth, I will decorate you with the rewards for that after death.

Continue on the path you have in front of you. Never mind if it seems you are trodding very slowly. You are making substantial progress. Continue your prayerful journey as you have for the entire life of your soul. Continue to come here to visit with Me but know that I am always with you so you can reach out to Me for guidance, hope, love, encouragement, whenever the need arises. Keep your spirits up and know you are doing good things in unnamed places. Your light shines brighter and farther than you could ever imagine.

I have kept My promise - My words are traveling without your name being attached. They fly into the hearts and minds of many people you will never know. Your job is done in some ways, but in others there is much left to do. Enter a new era of working for Me.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Enter a new dimension of spirituality. Enter directly into My heart. Feel the throbbing – the warmth, the sweet smell of My blood. Enter into Me and find the peace for which you search. Taste the goodness of the Lord in a whole new way. Shower others with whatever spiritual and material goods you can. Draw them to Me by your own actions. Draw them to Me through your wants, desires, and prayers to do the most good for the most people.

I love that you also love and hurt for My people. I love that you yearn to help so much more than you are – but you don't see with your earthly eyes how much you are doing. Ah, but I see the small ripples that become tsunami waves encompassing many hearts and souls. Your trust in Me is so important – relax and trust in Me. Turn your whole being over to Me and allow Me to direct your every waking hour so that you trust completely in the direction each day takes. Relax that gnawing you feel inside to do more. I am the “More” you wish to do. It can never be satisfied here on earth.

391) Dear Pope Francis, I humbly ask you to take the time to read my note and then follow the God given directions I am about to write. The locutions in this book are numbered in the order I received them and one of them is specifically for you – right now – in this moment. The Holy Spirit will direct you to the proper one. (#90) After you have read yours, you are to read (#275), for September 25, 2018. The italicized words are God given prayers and thoughts for us, but the regular print is God's words to us and He has a request of His Church. I will be praying that you listen to Him.

392) – Enter into the era of peace. There is a rumbling that will not be silenced. There is a people longing for peace and harmony. There is a tear falling for so much suffering but it is ending soon – this era of the reign of the devil. He is so slow to see that the time for him to rule is over. He never did rule all – but he made all miserable in one way or another. We all suffer when evil occurs in the world. We all cry out with disgust and sorrow at the hatred of the few. Look into the hearts and souls of the just as I do and be encouraged. You see the giving people stepping up and doing what is right. You see those who have little giving of their scant possessions. People empty their homes to give and their purses to help. Much is being done for those who lost so much. My heart is with those who suffer but My heart is also with those who give. Mankind is at a crossroads. He has the choice to move forward and be productive in changing the world for the better or he has the laziness to sit idly by and watch the world care for him. There is a fine line between the truly poor and destitute and the lazy man who expects others to earn his bread. Inspire these people to become productive and the world begins to change. Do not be discouraged as you are but one person but I have given you many talents. Pursue those that help others and look for all the paths I set in front of you so that you can accomplish much.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Spread joy. Spread love. Spread harmony. Spread the gospel by words and actions. Enter into My peace with joy and rejoicing. Allow Me to fill your soul with happiness. Allow Me to re-enter the world through your good works. Press on – do not be discouraged – lighten your heart and the world around you will follow – just as you follow Me. I love you and all mankind. You are My Father's handiwork. You are each one of a kind. You are each special with individual gifts. Use them to change the world. Use them to cure the sick. Use them to share My love. Then enter My home in peace.

393) Adoration – First Friday – I come in joy but also in sorrow. Joy because you have come to such holy feast days of the church but sorry because there is so much unnecessary suffering in the world.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Enter My peace through the open door of love for My people. Enter into My Heart through suffering and the daily challenges of life. Enter into My Life by imitating Me and following in My footsteps. Come and be a part of My suffering – be a part of My Heart – be a part of My Life.

Do not fear – I am always here for you. Do not despair as you come to grips with your entire life. Life passes by so quickly but that fact is hidden from the young. If they could see and seek Me, they would grasp and understand it so much better and live their lives in a much different manner. It is not My will that this should happen. They must come to know Me for themselves. They must come and seek Me first. I am there for them and they know it in a distant part of their minds. Knowledge of My Love is so often hidden away so they can live and seek their own lives. Some do come to know Me early in life but others do not find Me until their life is nearly over – still – sadly – some never find Me. These lost souls can still gain Heaven if they have lived a good life. The Gates of Heaven are not hard to open if one but loves.

394) Grant them eternal life, Oh Lord, bless them with the presence of heaven. Give them a place in Your house and allow them to find the peace and health they could not find here on earth.

I come to you today full of joy at the group of My people traveling in unity and like spirituality to visit the places of My life. They are in My hands.

Will you do Me a favor? Enter slowly into the next few days. Take the time to pray. Join with the saints in worshipping My Son, My Only Son. His Heart is full of compassion for His suffering immigrants. They are homeless people. They are hungry and so very frightened. Many are near death or sickly due to poor conditions and lack of sanitary facilities. Bring them to your prayer life.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Adopt a travelling family in your prayers. Suggest this to others.

To those Spiritual Warriors who will be willing to help, I would like to ask you to spiritually adopt a family in the caravan of immigrants fleeing their war-torn countries. Surely, they are frightened and certainly homeless. They are desperate and need your prayers. One family – one person to another, pray for a peaceful resolution that protects their dignity and answers their needs.

395) – Reach out to Me, oh ye of little faith, look at the plans that brought us to this moment. You are serving Me well and you are still needed to continue this work. Devote your spare time to this newest project and I will assist you. This book will sell and be used by many. The need for the Rosary is great and it is imperative that My church returns to that most beautiful prayer.

Bring Me your questions and I will direct you as you type up this latest work. You have the tools and I will give you direction on how you are to proceed. Doors will open and people will respond

Now, enter into My peace and enjoy our morning together. No pressure today – I am planning the rest of it for you.

Did you catch your breath? See – there is much more to do and your mind is already figuring it out. You will find all you need for the first Rosary of Trust and then the others will easily fall into place. Each a small book – each part of a series – each a needed Rosary for a specific need. A new way to pray the Rosary. It is My gift to My Mother.

My gift also to Your Mother, Lord, as she, in turn, gives it back to you.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

(Blessed Mother speaking?) Your mind will expand to carry all these thoughts into practice so that others may learn and grow in the knowledge of the love of God and follow in His footsteps. A praying, learning, teaching tool.

396) – Do not stumble now as you hear the news of the persecution of the Church. There is beauty in persecution and many attain their saintly crowns by enduring it – even unto death. This crisis shall pass but there must be reparation. So many souls harmed and so much damage to a fragile society. The devil has run rampant for the last time with My Church. Even now the saints of today are offering their blood for the salvation and expansion of My Church.

Come to Me and offer thanks that the end of this era is coming. A new and brighter future is on the horizon and you must be prepared to assist in its coming. Prayer and sacrifice and the Sacraments all are important. Listening for My voice in the quiet of your mind will bring you comfort and peace. Put aside any differences and see all men as equals. They are all souls I want to save – no exceptions. All are born for My Father's house but few choose to accept His invitation. You must make them want to be a part of Heaven. You must pray for them and lead them and set an example for them.

Surely this is what you also want. A world in love with Me through peace and justice. See how much good poured out into the world with these latest disasters. Do not be misled – good people abound. They far outnumber the discontents who stir up hate and oppression. The good will form together and lead the world away from its current path of destruction. Peace is possible – not in your lifetime but it is possible. My Father rules the universe – He rules all – He is the I AM – He is all powerful – Do not be misled, He is in charge.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

397) Precious are you in the eyes of My Father because of your devotion to Me. You can only present what I give you. Do not take offense if others do not respond positively. Every small idea can settle in and be of service to Me later in that person's life.

Press on with My work. You listen and obey. You have asked to be busy with My work and so you shall. Count the many ways you have been performing spiritual works of mercy. Ah – see – you are not sitting idly by but are daily involved in works of charity. I will see that you are not overwhelmed but your presence is being felt in many areas where you have found yourself and, as you can see, your own life has been touched. As you reach out, others return your love. As you reach out, others reach out to do more and so the wave of goodness travels in an uninterrupted path and circles back to you after it has encompassed Me – so that I travel with it. Graces are tossed like petals at a wedding – so many graces from a simple act of yours. Continue to spread the love and kindness. Continue to search out souls who need your touch. Continue to do My work. Know that Fr. Rookey has My ear. Expect miracles. He joins with you in gratitude for your faith in him. As you know, his love for the Blessed Mother knew no bounds on earth. He is even more devoted to her in heaven. She will request that I grant his wishes.

398) – Enter again into the peace of the sacrament so visible on the altar. Enter into the fruits of graces resplendent as I rest on the altar. Enter into My very heart, pierced and bleeding for you. Open your own heart to receive Me. Open your mind to hear My words. Open your arms to all those of My people who are in such need.

Caress Me through your words and actions. Love others and you love Me. Care for others and you care for Me. I am here with you now. Everyone you can see is also with Me. Everything you touch is of Me.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Nothing exists without the hand of God upon it. Man alone has no power but what God has given him. He has no brain but that which God has given him. Be humble and know, it is only through the goodness of God that the smallest grain of sand exists. Know that the bread you see before you is no longer bread but My Body and Blood. It is generously given to you. "This, then is truly My Body and Blood." It is truly yours for the taking. Graces and heavenly favors abound for those who receive Me.

399) – Did you think I wouldn't come? I have missed you too. I see how your life has been busy attending to charitable and other needs. I also recognize your tiredness at the end of the day. Rest in Me I those times and do not tarry over feeling sorry for yourself or allowing yourself to feel resentful. Offer all up – including your aches and pains for the return of lost souls to Me.

Carry Me with you as you go through these next few months. Changes will occur for which you will again seek Me out. Do not stress as I am with you through it all. My heart is where you reside. It beats along with your own. Blessings will be abundant for you as your suffering increases. Hold on to Me and My words and watch for a sign of My love.

400) I hear you in your concern and pain. I see the destruction of a continent on fire with disagreements and a government unable to help. I hear the cries of My people and I see their needs. One must first pray and offer sacrifices in order to end the injustices. One must be willing to offer their services, their homes, their food, their very lives to preserve the peace for which so many long. Lives cannot be saved without prayers and offerings of self. Give to Caesar what is Caesars' and to God what is God's.

1) End the shutdown for two weeks.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

- 2) Work out a solution behind closed doors and unite as one. Shake hands and agree to never allow personal philosophies to hold an entire country hostage. Egg on one's face can be scrubbed clean and should not keep a people fighting among themselves. Show us how to compromise – to get along. Peace and not Civil War in families, among friends, in our nation, must become a reality. Our leadership must show us how it can be done. This dysfunction is not about ideas, it is about people. Care for your constituents, for your fellow workers, for the immigrants and set things right again in America. Plow through the muck and clean house by friendly compromise. Show us the way to peace again in our homes, in our work places, yes, even in our churches. Give us true leadership. Bring God back into the equation. Ask Him to lead you into equitable compromise, not tomorrow, not next week, but now, this very moment. As soon as your eyes see the person you perceive as the enemy, place the face of My son, Christ, on their shoulders and work diligently for peace and compromise.

401) – It seems so difficult to concentrate today and to find You in the ordinary of my life. I want only to spend time with You and yet I feel denied of that joy and so I come to You in the daily mundane time of my life and ask You to stay awhile and keep Me company.

Of course, Child, I am always here. You have only to reach out and call to Me. I am as close as your breath.

402) There is such beauty in suffering, such joy in offering the pains, heartaches, and troubles up for the good of others; offerings in reparation for the sins of others; offerings to My Father in anticipation of His love and blessings. I do not send suffering into the world but it is allowed by My Father as a way to worship Him by joining your sufferings with My own in a heavenly gift wafting to Heaven as sweet myrrh and perfume. God receives it with such joy. He blesses the smell of the offering and so gives blessings to those who offer such sweetness to Him in My name. He loves My name and so He also blesses all who say My name with love and reverence. You have only to look to the sky for confirmation of My Father's love. The sun, the rain, the snow, even the storms, all bring His love to the earth. Each day is designed by Him. Each event is carried out with His knowledge. No matter how much destruction a weather event causes, My Father turns the results heavenward and underlying blessings flow even more. The evil destruction brings is never outdone in the minds of some by goodness but those with the faith of a mustard seed can see how the people's response to evil soothes the pain and suffering of those affected by the evil of destruction.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

The people of the earth continue to rise to the challenges of assisting those in need. They continue to find ways, large and small, to help. They give from their larder, they give from their own need, they give from their hearts. They offer prayers and sufferings. They offer themselves to Me in reparation for the sins and evil prevalent in the world today. They give themselves over to Me and that is so pleasing to My Father. His blessings descent into the stony hearts and the world is better able to fight the presence of evil.

403) Why do you cry My child? You know I am with you every step of the way. You know you are working for Me and your benefits far outweigh your sufferings. Be not afraid as I am with you now and forever more. Come, now, reach into My heart for a draught of My Father's kindness and love. He is so in love with you that He allowed Me to suffer for you. Reach into My heart and feel how it beats for you and go in the peace of knowing how loved you are.

404) Seriously child, your mind wanders and flits and dashes about and you cannot center it or control it.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Do you think this alienates you from Me? Of course not. Have you control over its wanderings? Very little and yet you try to redirect it back toward Me. Fear not – I am here. I know you inside and out. I know all those crazy dreams that remain until they pass away. I know those sleepless times you struggle and then force yourself to stay focused on prayer. Such is the plight of humanity – ah – but in Heaven, there are no such disturbances to keep you from being united in mind with God. You are continually in My presence and you remain steadfast in devotion to Me. There are no distractions or tricks of the mind – only you in the presence of God.

You shall see My garden where we will walk together. The flowers will turn toward us and radiate beams to light our way. They are excited to be of service and appreciate how you loved them in their earthly state. All things living never die but only become the best version of themselves in Heaven. Those, however, that persist in sinful and irreverent behavior, like the nonfruit bearing fig, will never be beautiful again. Sadly, many of those humans who refuse all the peace offerings during life will also suffer forever in their lustful and sinful ways. They are cruel to themselves.

Praise God while you can. Pray for the world while you can. Assist others and volunteer while you can. Devote your time to positive pursuits while you can. Offer all sufferings – the tiniest itch to the stabbing pain – all gain access to Heaven for yourself and many others. No suffering, no prayer, no sacrifice, is unused. All make a difference. All become a positive influence in the world.

Kathie, I love you. I wait for you. I long to walk with you in the gardens of Heaven.

Your friend, Jesus

405) – Finally! Time to be.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Quiet yourself. You have the essentials. You can allow your mind to wander or rein it in so that we are together – ah, but we are always together even when your mind wanders. Heaven is a place of goodness and wonder and beauty. Your mind can concentrate and explore and grasp the goodness of God. Heaven has no boundaries. You're not locked in but free to wander and explore. Angels guide you to the very place you want to be. Angels tend your needs and you are glorified along with them. Just as they tend to you, so do you reach out and attend to others. Such joy abounds and hearts are filled to overflowing. Your capacity to love is unlimited as your capacity to feel and accept love. The more you love, the more your ability to love grows.

406) Catch me, Lord. I fall and stumble and cannot seem to breath. I want to be Your hands, your mouth, your arms, your heart, and I fail miserably when I'm tired, frustrated, or insecure.

Catch me Lord as I stumble into inertia through aging, tiredness, lack of desire to go outside myself. Hold me up as I desire to sit out the rest of my days.

Catch me Lord when the night feels cold and dark and I look for the warmth that is not there. When hearts turn cold and ignore all basic moral principles, do not let me sleep if I can be of service to turn this immoral world back to You.

Teach me Lord how I can best be of service to You.

Show me Lord how to love as You love.

Push me Lord into Your heart and let me use my own heart where You would like Yours to be. Let me be Your heart on earth. Let me be Your hands. Give me a will set firmly with Your own. Do not let me waver now as I age but keep my feet firmly planted in Your path and let my whole being, my life, my every breath, reflect Your loving gaze so that people will see You through me and turn toward You and follow You.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

It is so easy to feel overwhelmed with the apathy and sinfulness of an ignorant, selfish, and egotistical world. It is so easy to feel beaten down by the stubbornness and hard-heartedness all around. I am at the bottom of the steep hill pushing and shoving to bring myself and others to the top.

Show Yourself Lord in me and all those struggling like me. Let Your light shine in us. Let our hands pen Your words. Let our lips speak Your voice and let our bodies do Your work.

Then, Lord, when our hour comes and our last strength to do Your work ebbs – then, Lord, call us to Yourself.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Jesus Speaks Year

XI

The Eleventh Year

407) March 13, 2019 – Enter My peace. Hear Me today. As always, I am with you. From now through eternity. Enter My heart. Be a part of My soul. Come closer as death nears and be a part of My Kingdom. Pray always. Fast as you can. Come to receive Me often. Be a part of Me in all you do.

408) March 15, 2019 – Early Morning. Oh child, settle yourself and trust. Be careful that you do not live your life in your head. Use your hands and reach out and accomplish things that you were set on earth to do. It is not late – it is the very time to begin a fresh. Even the last moments of death are fresh moments to begin. Moments to teach the world – to redeem a soul – to give praise to God.

Look to the joys you experience and rejoice. Look at My suffering and rejoice. Look toward death joyfully and rejoice. Rejoice in your saving God. Rejoice in your loving God. Be joyful and let your personal world see that joy.

409) Did you expect a warm welcome? Oh, not just warm but bathed in sunlight and joy. I never tire of seeing you here. I wait for you and I jump with joy. Such a happy time when quiet descends and prayers are heartfelt.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Do not be dismayed about the day. I know you are concerned about your eyes and your vision. You have only to place your trust in Me. I do not show you the future but that is a kindness as you, as a human, become a waste as you spend so much time waiting when you need to be doing. Each day brings just that, a new day. Each day opens up windows of opportunity to please Me and thus gain much needed graces for yourself and the world. Offer up all you suffer and do it joyfully and prayerfully. It is not a punishment to suffer on earth but a gift.

Today, however, I descend on you with peace. You have asked My earthly father for his protection as so you shall have it. I do not refuse him even the most basic of requests nor the most elaborate and grand ones. He protects My Church and those who are in it. He is busy with My Mother routing out the evil and turning back Christians. Do not despair. Do not be ashamed but grateful that the evil has been brought to light. The world suffers from evil. It seems to you, I know, to multiply and take over – but look around you, this is not the case. The newspapers and TV would have you believe we are swimming in sinful and horrible acts continually, but these are small compared to the good that is being done. Be brave in the face of those who put down My Church. Stand up for the good that is done. Be a spokesperson when needed. Bring others to Me and bring back My lost sheep.

- 410) I've come for help, Lord Jesus. My heart is heavy for _____ and their family. I know you hear and answer my prayers and I know your path will be the one that is most pleasing to you.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

My prayer is for his return to health quickly so that he may continue to be of service to you. My prayer is that you also restore health and strength to _____. Give her all she needs to handle what is now before her. I know you love them both and I know you also love me. Lead me to be a help and not a hindrance. Help me make the right decisions.

I cradle you in My arms and shower down graces and blessings on all of those you hold most dear. Never fear the unknown but go forth with renewed strength and hope for the future. Death comes to all but not yet for you and your family. Prayers and sufferings are needed for a tormented world. My people are splintered and hurting. It is the time of My Mother. She is caring for her wounded Church. She is mending and restoring all who suffer from the sins that have so long pulled the Church down. It will rise up from the ashes for a renewed spirituality and a never-before experienced caring for all of humanity. You must also reach out to those tormented by their status in life. Be a beacon of hope. Shine the light of your faith – the very light of Me, on others. Let them see your hope for the future of the Church. Let them breath in the fresh graces showering down upon them. Pray, fast, pray, fast, pray, fast. Bring Me to others. Carry Me as you begin your travels into strange new worlds for you. I am your constant companion. I never leave you. We walk together hand-in-hand. Yes, child, hand-in-hand.

411) Good Friday – 2:20 pm – My hour has come and the world awaits the opening of the Gates of Heaven. Hold your breath as the faithful who have long awaited this moment stream across the divide and take up their prepared places in their forever home. The blessings that shower down from My Father sweeten the earth and prepare it for the blood of My people. A shower of goodness falls on the many who have come to believe in Me. The sadness is permanent in that there is always sin but the joy is the knowledge that God's love conquered sin once and for all. Fear not, My people, your sins are forgiven. Fear not, the Gates of Heaven will open to receive you. Fear not, the love of God can never be taken away. You can remove yourself from it but He will not remove it from you, no matter how far you veer from the holy path.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Come now, enter into My passion and pray as never before for peace on earth and the return of humanity to Christ.

412) Holy Saturday – at the computer at home - I have been reading of the Great Silence of today. It is a remarkable and sobering time for Christians. God, though silenced, speaks from the tomb to us. In fact, in the silence of our hearts today, if you listen, listen with your heart, you will hear Him sing to you. He sings of what He has prepared for you. He sings of His love for you. He sings of His love which He carried from heaven to earth and to heaven again. To heaven, where he waits for you to sing with Him in joy. Today is a day of hope, a day of expectation, a day in which we await the glory of the Resurrection. A day to join with the rest of creation. A day to open our mouths and our hearts and sing in the silence with our God.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

413) Enter the beginning of the end.
Enter the peace that a life well-lived brings.
Enter fully into My heart and rely on the kindness and charity of God as life ebbs and energy lessens. Come to the fountain that flows down the mountain. Come to the water that ascends to My Father; the stream of life, the stream of blessings, the stream that cleanses all traces of sin so as to purify you for direct entry into My home. Come now, relax in that you are saved.

Can you grasp My love for you? Can you touch My very skin and know I am real? You do that every time you take Communion. Can you feel My blood as it trickles down My dying body? It is still warm to the touch. It is still alive and flowing. It flows out to wash away the many sins of the world. It flows to warm the hearts and hands of the most hardened sinners. It flows for you too. All that I have, I gave to you. All that I wanted for you, I told My Father. All that I died for, all that I lived for, was to bring the love of My people to My Father.

Do not pass judgment on others. You do not know what sufferings they have. You do not understand their struggles. You cannot know how their heart processed the love and graces I have showered on them. All are welcome in My home. All receive the necessary graces to enter heaven. Unfortunately, not all are receptive to the offerings of My Father. Unfortunately, they are lost to Heaven and their spot remains unfilled. You see everyone was born with a special place for them in Heaven. Only they could fill it. Only they could find the joy that forever home would give them. Unfortunately, and so very sadly, they will never see that gift.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

They have chosen not to open it and accept it.
Heaven was created for all but not all enter.

Your suffering and prayers and life of good deeds, charity, personal sacrifices – all of these are a means to Heaven for those reluctant to take the right path. Many – so many – are saved by the sufferings and personal offerings of others. Never lose a moment that can become a means to Heaven for another.

As you begin the end, do so joyfully and with a spirit of giving so that others will come to My Heart in the graces you have earned. Enter My peace. Peace be with you, child, peace be with you.

414) Come now, child, settle yourself.
How can I be displeased when you have come? Answer only to those who have My grace and wish you to assist in spreading it about. You need not answer to those who are of the world as My world takes precedence.

Carry Me with you always. Act as if you had Me on your very person for, in fact, you do. It is difficult to do wrong when you remember this. I am there, with you, beside you, in you. I am your hands, feet, mouth, and eyes and ears. You must respond accordingly and treat others as you would wish to be treated. If you are ever in doubt, ask Me. I will lead you.

(I told Him that I was thinking about writing the story of Simeon [that is how I heard Him say the name although it is Simon in the Scripture] that I had thought about during the night when I awakened but that I wasn't sure of all of it and would like to write it if He would help.)

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Write the story of My friend, Simeon, if you wish. He is My forever friend and he has been a wonderful help to so many who have unbearable crosses.

I met Simeon as a small boy. He was with the shepherds who came to My manger. He carried a small lamb and wished to give it to Mary. She took him to herself and personally introduced him to Me, telling him she was grateful but she had the Lamb of God and she needed to raise him. She told Simeon he should raise his little lamb and remember how blessed he was to meet Jesus and perhaps he would one day help her Lamb.

On the day of the Crucifixion, Simeon was drawn to the crowd and the spectacle of Jesus being taunted and forced up after he had fallen. At first, he resisted when told by the guards to help carry the Cross, but something in the face of Jesus drew him and he picked up the Cross. Jesus said, "Thank you, Simeon." Simeon was taken back and asked how he knew him.

"I have always known you, but we met when I was just a baby in a manger."

Simeon remembered the words of Jesus' mother; He was the Lamb of God. Without an understanding, he knew what he was doing was a blessing and a privilege. He took as much weight upon himself as he could and half carried, half dragged the Cross beside Christ.

When at last they reached Calvary Simeon was brushed aside by the guards who went immediately to work pinning Jesus to the Cross. He stared in agony as they bounced the Cross into the prepared hole and shored it up with rocks. He stared in disbelief until a soft touch caused him to turn abruptly. He met the sweet, but grief-filled face of the woman he had seen at the birth of the Child. She said in a quiet voice that penetrated his entire being, "Thank you, Simeon, that was a selfless act. You came when I called. My Lamb, the Lamb of God, needed you."

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Simeon wept.

(Jesus added, Simeon is the patron saint of all who carry unbearable crosses.)

[I've looked up the distance from Cyrene to Jerusalem and it is nearly 1000 miles. So how this Shepard boy ended up growing up in Cyrene or "being from Cyrene" is not for me to figure out. I just write what I hear in my head.]

415) I come in the morning as I wanted you to know how much I love you. Your visit means life for many that would have otherwise been abandoned. Saving souls is everyone's purpose. Filling Heaven is everyone's purpose. Loving is also what everyone needs to do to gain Heaven for themselves and others.

Come now, enter into My peace and prepare for Mass. Prepare for Me to enter your soul and body in a very special way. Prepare to be loved beyond measure.

416) Before Mass – Good Morning – I've given you a cooler morning for the work you hope to accomplish. It pleases Me so to see you interacting with others to spread My words throughout the world. It is a peaceful time for you and a time to enjoy the pleasures I've given you. Enter the joy of living despite the pains of growing old. I await you but you have much more to accomplish. You may not see it but your presence brings so many more to Christ. You have the ability to start people thinking of the joyfulness that can be found in daily living. Place Me always before you and you have no other vision than Mine. See Me everywhere you go and in everyone you meet. Practice the art of feeling love for all of God's creations and you will never feel lonely or desolate. See Me all around you. Even a single piece of furniture was once a part of a living world. Nothing has ever been handcrafted that I have not first made the products. Everything comes from God. Sometimes man desecrates what I have made by damaging it with his own hands, but I have still supplied the products. Cast aside all that troubles you today. Look back at what I have just told you and know that I am in charge.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Blessed are they who spend their spare time with the Lord. Blessed too those who spend their time doing good for others. Blessed are they who come to worship and sing praises to My Name. Blessed are the peaceful minds who rest in Me.

417) Confirmation – It is such a joy to see so many who will be consecrated to My Spirit. My Father, My Spirit, and I are one. These here who are receiving Confirmation will be indelibly marked as belonging to God. Pray for them as they begin anew in the Spirit

(Prayer) The Spirit of God is among us. Come, Holy Spirit, fill us overflowing with Your love. We beseech You to enter into every part of our being and emanate out through our actions, words, and life. Search us out and find our core. Bless us with Your words of wisdom. Open our minds and hearts so we may receive You and spread Your words throughout the world. Come, enter our hearts. Give us the love we need so we may shower it upon the world. We pray to You for strength so as to fight the raging war of godlessness around us. We pray for direction so as to make the best use of the time allotted to us. We pray to You for Your blessings on all of our endeavors. We pray in hope for a world that is at peace. We pray for unity among people and nations. We pray for the power to change what needs to be changed and for the strength to persist in this despite seemingly overwhelming odds. Come, Holy Spirit, come. Be with us now as the world so desperately needs to be saved. Save us from our own destructive ways. Save us from hatred and greed and the quest for power. Save us from the evil that lurks in each of us.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Put the evil to rest so that the world will turn to You in unison and sing Your praise. Bring us to our knees to make us more acceptable to You. Help us to pray, Holy Spirit, help us to pray.

418) Enter into My peace and relax. What you are thinking is, of course, one of the many ways I communicate with you. Do not be distressed if you feel less than satisfied with what you do. I have placed you where I need you. You have a gift of fettering out the unintended heartfelt voices and of listening to My voice. In the end it will only be My voice that brings you solace in your situation. I will never leave you but you continue to suffer for Me and I love that you offer so many little discomforts. The road to heaven is paved by the small acts of My people. They are like soft round pebbles leading the way to Me. Be careful that you do not take Me for granted. I am your Lord and God. I am, Who Am.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

I have difficulty looking at You there in the form of bread and seeing You there as awesome, powerful, and Almighty. My heart skips a beat and then seems to stop while I try and contemplate Your total presence here with me, and then Your comforting voice resounds in My head and You are alive and present in the here and now. I can feel Your presence surround me and You are my friend, my companion, my comfort, and You are so accessible. Help me to worship You in the best way possible for Me without removing the intimate closeness I have come to worship and love. There are no words for what You give. There are no words for the ultimate sacrifice of Yourself. There are no words to adequately describe You, my Lord and my God.

419) You sweep me off my feet with Your love. My heart races as You descend into the fiber of my soul. I rise above the ground and I am drawn to You – into You. We are briefly One and I beg to stay. Your peace descends and my ears fill with the rushing sound of the Holy Spirit. Make me a temple of Your Spirit, Oh Lord. I close my eyes and soar to the heights with You. When I open them again, I stare at Your Body on the altar and I want – oh how I want for You. Enter, oh

Lord, into my being. Seal Yourself in my core. My mind expands and I struggle to keep the encroaching sounds of the world out so that only You remain. A deep breath and Your peace descends like crystal droplets. I envision the world around You that I cannot see. My imagination tells me there are angels, saints, and yes, even my family, here with us. You bring them all to be with me. Draw me to You Lord. Let me float in the goodness and love that surrounds You. Wake my inner being so I feel Your presence. Let my body tingle with Your touch as You draw me into Your own self. Keep me there. Keep me from straying. Keep me pure. Prepare me for heaven and the joy of forever with You.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

- 420) You suffer by worrying today about so many things. Concentrate on My presence in your heart and your peace will come.

Connect the dots with Me on the altar and in the souls and bodies of all those around you here at Adoration. You will see it forms a continuous circle of love and protection. Feed off of the Holy Spirit present in the church. Feed off of the presence of Me in the people and on the altar and in your own self. Feed off of God the Father who holds all in His hands. You are protected and loved.

- 421) Would that I could leave My own. Never fear. My love has no beginning or end. It is eternal. I love all and the world and your universe. Do not stretch your mind beyond your world. It is sufficient to know it was created for Me. It was the only way I could show the love of My Father for His creations. It was a way to bring more people to praise and glorify Him. I wanted to do it for My people but also for My Father. Heaven needed to be filled with the souls of the good and the just.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Take what you need from Me. Ask and I shall grant it. (I asked for a cure for Bob O. here.) Pray and I will hear. Call and I will be there. Sleep and I will protect you. Die and I will greet you and sweep you into My arms.

Blessed are they who believe in Me and who believe My words. Blessed those who follow My path and enter into the life of a saint.

Do not be discouraged as the world purges itself of past sins. The future will be washed clean of it all and build on the lessons learned.

Come now and rest in Me. My love surmounts all. Rest in My Heart. It beats. It always has and always will. You will understand that when you are united with Me in Heaven. Our hearts beat in unison with all of nature, with the world, and with your universe. You are a part of the greater cosmos, a speck and a mountain at the same time. This is a world created just for you and those who worship God in whatever way they are destined to do so. Relax in it and be at peace.

- 422) Come to Me with abandon. Toss aside the lump in your chest. Toss aside the brimming tears. Toss aside the discouraging thoughts and turn your mind and being to Me. I told you, I will not let you flounder but I will lead you securely and firmly. You must learn patience and bide your time for the right moment. Every moment, every second, every breath you take is known beforehand. You guide yourself with My help through the mazes of life but I am aware of all time – past, present, future. I can assure you when you need assurance. I can guide you when you need guidance and I can wait with you when you must be patient. Abandon yourself to Me. Relish our time together. Seek Me in the every day. Pray, talk, praise and call on Me. Do not think I am far from you as I am part of you and so can never leave you unless you send Me away. Reach out – touch Me – see – I am there. I surround you. I encapsulate you. I lead you as we walk together.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Write – write – write – it is your strong point, Keep your thoughts on paper. Keep directing yourself to the greater good. Be vocal on paper. Be a force of ideas. Carry goodness into your writings. Listen, save, write. Become a sign of change. Caste out doubts and let the words flow. Let people take from them the ideas you have penned and run with them. They can be the faces and mouths but you – you can be the ideas that blossom in their minds.

_____ can also do this. She also must write. Get your thoughts out to as many as possible as those minds will come together in My time and be a force that cannot be stopped. This will continue into the future but you will have planted the seeds. You are the gardener of these seeds and they must be planted in order to grow. I will provide the Son and the rain – the proper climate and the fertilizer. You and _____ – plant the seeds.

423) Truly I come My beloved. I am constant for you. I care, I come, I stay. Continue to trust Me to be here for you. Continue to bring Me your worries – your loneliness – your yearning soul. I will keep you safe and offer you shelter.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

- 424) Beat your breasts in sorrow for your sins and the sins of the world. Such calamities the sins of the world bring forth. The bowels of the earth weep for the sins of man.

Give yourself without concern for your wellbeing. Give your heart to those needing love.

Give your hands to those needing assistance. Give yourself over to the will of God. Do not count the physical mental or even the monetary cost. Offer your gifts to God. Pursue the dream of a united, God-loving world. Bring Me one soul at a time and all will soon belong to Me. Care for Me in the poor and the suffering. See Me in the choices of mankind when you see the outpourings of charity. Contribute where you can and pray always. As you give to the least, I return the favors by granting what you ask. There can be no doubt that actions have consequences. Careful choices, prayerful choices, these are tools of the Christian. Let your prayers discern My will and follow through.

Continue to write. My words bring comfort to you and many more. It is time to publish soon. A new book of your new locutions. Take care to edit for personal talks but leave the rest for all to read. When I speak to you, carry the words in your heart and plant them as seeds in others. They will bear much fruit.

So many wants, Lord, that are heavy in my heart and yet so many gifts that I never fully appreciate. Remember when You were on earth and how Your heart bled and suffered when You saw others suffering? Remember how You cured the sick and forgave sins, and offered Yourself in reparation? Do not abandon those who mean so much to us now but remember the miracles You performed and how You asked Your Father and He always heard You? Do not turn Your back on my asking for cures in my family. Do not turn away when I ask for peace in the families of those I so love. Reach out and touch us with Your miracles. Let the good remain in a healthy state on earth longer, so as to do good and also to worship You and give You praise.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Bring our families closer to Your heart. Unite us in the love of You. Give them all the yearning for You in the Eucharist. Hold our hands and keep us all on the path to holiness. Keep us warm and secure in the love in Your heart forever and ever. Let me love You, Lord, with my whole being, with every fiber of my body, with every breath I take until You come for me at my last breath. Amen.

425) I am so full of sorrow, Lord, for _____ and their family. Your mercy is present, I know, but it is truly an impossible situation for them. Give me wisdom, please, to offer good advice. Give me courage to speak to them and put the words into my mouth that will bring comfort. Help me to reach out to them in ways that ease their burden. Bring me with You so I may share this time with them. Please circle them in Your loving arms. Send Your army of angels to watch over them and attend to their needs. Please send them the caretakers they need. Please enter into their souls and give them a piece of the joy of Heaven here on earth. Send them loving friends to assist and help them. Those who will sit with them and help clean, move, give rest time for them.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Please give _____ patience and show him the joy of offering up his needs instead of complaining and constantly asking for help. My real hope is that You will cure him. "Take up thy bed and walk," You have said so often in Your lifetime on earth. "Your faith has saved you." "Your sins are forgiven." "Blessed are the meek." "Blessed are those who suffer." "Come to Me and I will give you rest." Your life is a lesson to all in how much You love us. Our hearts accept that You love us unconditionally. The daily struggles of _____ and family seem unsurmountable and yet I know You are there with them. Hold them for Me. Give them strength for Me. Give them shining, beautiful, quiet moments of rest.

I love You, my Lord and my God. I trust You and know You have a reason for everything. Help me to understand, and if not understanding, the ability to reach out and help.

Courage child, their lives are still blessed. They are My children and I hug them to My breast. I do not abandon them. I allow this as a safe and speedy way into My arms. You are right to care also for them and I love you for that. Blessed are you also and your family. Take a piece of My Heart with you today as you go about your life. Do not hesitate to hold it close and ask, continue to pray, and ask for your needs and those of your family. I love to be asked because I love to give. You are not alone and neither are they. My Heart will bring you the peace you seek – for yourself and for them also.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Send your angel with a draught of My Blood from the piece of My Heart that you hold. Your angel will be sure to give _____ the rest time she so desperately needs today. Trust in Me – always trust in Me.

Thank You, my Lord and my God. Thank You. I trust in You.

426) Enter My Soul.

*Oh! the peace, oh! the joy, oh! the rapture!
Thank You for this special experience. Thank You for this amazing trip. I understand I can't come on my own but must be invited.*

Enter My Mind. It is not all peaceful. Lightning flashes, lives come and go. Decisions are reviewed. People are entering and leaving. Always the universe and its inhabitants are there as is Heaven and the realm of angels coming and moving about. Push to the limits and there are none. The vastness, the chambers, the doors. Always there is the single light of the candle that shines and illuminates. The holy life – the life of charity – the life of useful suffering. The Divine Life intertwined into the lives of the earth. All of this in even the tiniest piece of Host. All given freely. All for everyone. All loving.

*Caress Me, Lord, and carry me with You forever.
No sin. No evil, only goodness following me all the remaining days of my life. Spending my time in Your Heart and Mind and doing Your will.
Bowing to You. Reaching out for You and finding You there. Always loving You. Always praising You. Always knowing and feeling Your* presence. Always, Lord, always, that is Your promise.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

427) My Lord and My God!

Have you a moment to reflect on this past week. Your heart strings are being pulled until taut. Can you rest with Me here? Can you put aside the churning in your belly? Can you feast on Me? I will bring you rest.

My child, your thoughts race and you spend time brainstorming on ways to help _____ and family. You care for them greatly and watching them fall to pieces is heartbreaking. This is not the end of suffering but the beginning. You must realize I am there in the very midst of it all. Their home is one of prayer and a lifetime of caring. I will not turn My back on it now in times of stress.

Purification is a way to Heaven. Selflessness is a way to My Heart.

428) The Feast of the Transfiguration – Blessed those who come to worship My sufferings. Blessed are those who kiss My bleeding hands and feet. Blessed are those who suffer in the service of others.
Blessed are those who give up their lives for the sake of others.

There are many ways of suffering in the world. Some people choose this as a way of life and they will not be denied the glory of that life. Other people spend their lives spreading God's word and preaching the gospel and they are very much doing the will of God.

Those who plod through life, doing what they can where they can, are also blessed. They see a need and do what they can to fulfill that need. These are also My people. They are the main stream of humanity who clutch, crawl, and claw their way into Heaven. They see with My eyes and offer their hands. They do the work of many who do nothing to improve the lives of others. Quiet saints, falling, rising, failing, succeeding, eating, fasting, playing, praying, yet they manage to improve the lives of many through their own efforts at work, play, and prayer. Be a doer – when all around you is crumbling, be a doer. Such is the population of Heaven.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

[(An incense burner at the end of the Adoration hour was on Mary, the sister of Martha who sat at Christ's feet while Martha worked) Mary got it! She got that He was going to Jerusalem to die. She got that this was the last time He was going to be in her house. She got that He was doing it for her and for all. She got that He was God. She couldn't pull herself away from that love. She got that raising Lazarus had the Jews plotting His death. She used the oil and her hair to show that she got it. She followed Him to the Cross because she got it. She attached herself to His suffering so as to intensify her own as reparation. Mary got it once confronted by Jesus at the Resurrection, she got it! She ran joyfully to tell the others – she got it!]

- 429) This never sated yearning. These tears of wanting. Here they can never be satisfied. Ah, but after death. There You will be. Without needing to rush You and hold onto You – my heart will be full. My yearning gone. My wanting turned to joy. Peace will take over in my soul and I can just be in union with my Lord and my God. My Jesus – my

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Father – My Holy Spirit – all together where I am. Now that is satisfied ecstasy.

- 430) (God the Father speaks) Precious to Me are all who come to worship My Son. They are the ones who continue to spread joy in Heaven. Precious also those who attend Mass with reverence and humility and who come, not of obligation, but of need. The great mass of humanity suffers so but so much is self-inflicted, one upon the other. Meanness and hate take many forms and could all be eradicated if only more would come to worship and partake of My Son. Evil persists because you let it – you can banish it easily by good deeds, prayer, love, fasting, and penance. A simple Sign of the Cross – the simple recognition of the Trinity – the outward sign of your belief in God – so easily – so readily available to all – this short prayer and blessing of oneself causes such pain to the devil and his followers that they race away in pain and horror. Ah, yes, bless yourself often child. Teach others to bless themselves – tell them why. A simple prayer – a simple sign – but a sign of life that brings all closer to heaven.

Love to all of your family and a reassurance that your trip will be fruitful.

- 431) Oh, My Jesus You have warmed my heart by offering this unexpected Mass and Adoration this morning. I cry to You and You hear me and give me such wonderous gifts. I am so very grateful. I cannot praise and thank You and glorify You enough,

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

but it is such a joy to be with others who also want to be with You.

Your kindnesses do not go unnoticed to Me. Complain less and offer more of yourself. You do not realize how much you have to offer. The pain you feel is not from your actions or behavior, but from the others around you who do not learn from you. Be kind to them, as they have not yet grown into the saints I want them to be. Care for their needs in quiet ways and attend to their wishes. They are still My children and they will grow into My closeness.

I care for you and I am aware of your wishes and hopes and dreams. You cannot yet be with Me but do not despair as your time on earth is well spent. I will come when you are most ready. Continue to come and visit and to spend idle time in prayer and helping others.

432) Did you think I would abandon you just because you travel? I have been your constant companion since you left home. I was there with _____ and ____ family. I was there with your _____ and ____ family. You sit back and observe and live in your head with Me and together we are working miracles. Do not fret because you cannot see them. Many graces pour out of My hands into yours. Use them wisely. They are not for you to keep but for you to dispense to others in their need.

Again, I ask you to do penance, reparation, and prayer. Never cease praying. Your work, reading, household chores are all prayers. Even your sleeping is a prayer for a time well spent.

Turn inward and meet Me there. Turn outward and give Me to others. Bring Me with you in all your endeavors and they will go as I want them to go. Always carry Me with you.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

433) I carry You with me as I traverse this earthly life in hope of walking with You forever in Heaven. I pray to You daily and often during the night in hopes I may praise You forever in Heaven. I do good deeds as the need comes in hopes I can do them also from Heaven. Please, Lord, do not look on my insincere prayers, my fumbled good deeds, my inadequate daily life in disdain, but find my underlying hope that in some small way I am pleasing You by my paltry attempts.

I fall back into old patterns so readily that I shudder at how little it takes to slide off course. I pull away and must refine the path again that You have laid out so plainly for me. The daily struggle is unending. You have given me so much. Your generosity overwhelms me. I feel Your presence around me and I am enthralled, captured, and raised up. I do not want it to stop and, yet, I slide away from it expecting it to always be there, waiting for me no matter how I stray. Gloriously! You are! You are always waiting for my return. You never tire of forgiving me. How could I not love You? How could I not worship You? Oh! how I love You, Lord. Please help me to stay close to You. Please help me! Please!

434) Your gifts to me are amazing, Lord. I cannot fathom Your generosity.

I wish you to become more aware of your surroundings. You have much and others have little. You are not more blessed but more dependent on what you have. Give as you can and pray always. There are other things you know you can do and don't and they haunt you. You can fast and do penance. You can give to the poor. You can help where needed and, yes, you do many of these things, but I want more. The opportunities will begin to present themselves more frequently and you will find yourself pressed into action. Enjoy the challenges of doing good and your life will be even more blessed. Come now, enter into My peace, and let us pray together with each Our Father that He will bless you beyond measure with a life of service and compassion. Ignore those naysayers who rebuke you and follow your heart. I am there and you cannot be misled.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

435) (Jesus asked me to list my concerns and my thoughts for the day because my mind was jumping from one thing to another. Here was my list: Today's meeting..... Then He began:

Now we can talk. Your concerns are many and yet few. Passing pieces of life that resolve themselves with time. Yes – some by death, others by love, still others by My mercy. You do not mention yourself.

I'm in Your Hands, God.

And so is all the rest. (And then He sang to me.)
"Rest in Me, Rest in Me, Close your eyes and trust in Me."

(When I was sufficiently relaxed and in His presence, He began and seemed angry.)

Sex with little boys and young men is perverse. No widowed man, divorced man, or normal unmarried man has such thoughts. It is an illness of the mind and body which has been cleverly devised by the devil to infiltrate and discredit My church, but he will not succeed and My Mother will crush his head. This has nothing to do with priests and their vow not to marry but to remain celibate. They devote their lives to Me and My people – it is the highest honor I bestow on My people, the blessing of celibacy for My sake. Read the stories of the saints, so many wanted to remain close to Me and this was their way of devoting their lives to Me: to be able to put aside sexual pleasures for My sake, to squash the drives of the body for My sake – to purify your mind and body for Me, to spend your life in My service. There is such a joy to be found here. The blessings that are given are palpable – just ask a good priest – ask how he has grown in closeness to Me – ask how his life has been changed – ask how his relationship is with Me. Oh, how I love My good priests. They are going to change the church and ferret out the evil. They are My Mother's army and it is a large and strong one. No, it is not because My priests do not marry, it is because the devil works feverishly to draw all away from Me. His work to split the church wide open is never going to succeed.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Pray continually to the Holy Spirit for guidance, not just for the church, but for yourselves. Ask how you can be of service. Show through your actions the real Christ within you. Activate the charity that swells up within you. Involve yourself with seeking out the marginalized, the hungry, the poor, the needy. Pray for them if you cannot bring yourself to get involved. But do not think My priests need marriage to keep them from subversive sins. My Mother showers them with graces and blessings so abundantly that their thoughts are raised far above such sinful desires. I love My priests as does My Mother. Trust that they are in her care and hands.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

436) Catch me Lord as I seem to fade from existence. Bring me to Your feet and allow me to rest there for eternity. A safe and comfortable place to lay my head while Your warmth and love envelope me.

Do not worry about the present, all is in My hands. Do not worry about the future as it is mapped out for you. Enjoy your life. Take each moment as a gift. Each person you meet, each friend you have, each family member – all have a purpose in forming you into who you are. Each one elicits emotions that frame your very self. You so often bring them to Me as part of your concerns because you care for them. I also care for them so, you see, they truly are in good hands.

Rest yourself in Me. Relax yourself totally and turn yourself over to Me. I will direct you. Yes, I will direct your decisions but you must not doubt that I am in charge.

The Trinity, Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity, Jesus, Holy Spirit, God the Father

437) Christ before me. Christ behind me, Christ above me, Christ below me, Christ beside me.

You are tired today but relief is also very calming. You still have much to do for Me and I will see that your body malfunctions and aging does not stop your progress in helping

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Me to spread the words of love, hope, peace, and charity.

While I know you see Me here today, exposed in the monstrosity, I am just as exposed to you in daily life. You know you see My presence in the beauty of the flowers and sometimes receive a glance of how they appear in Heaven; you need only to look around you and see My presence in the real world. See My face in others. See also how some need a chance to see God's face in yours. Be My hands but bring My heart. Caress the hands of others that need caressing. You see many people in prayer. Their hands are holy. Give them your love for what they do.

Dear God, I know the future is not mine to know and I take that as a blessing. However, I do want the best for my friend, _____, as she contemplates this move. Do not let me steer her in the wrong direction but let me be a help that can lead her to be satisfied with her new decision on her home.

I want You to do whatever You think best for the terrible situation of _____ and their family. It is beyond my scope of being much help.

Then there is _____ – a home for her and a way to settle into a sustainable future job. Let her continue to pursue Catholicism as she grows older. Thank You for letting me be a help to her although short lived.

As you know, there is a meeting today of C.A.R.E., our Christmas extravaganza. Let _____ and I only commit to what we can do and not overextend ourselves.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Help us to plan this trip to Ireland so as to be pleasurable to all of us. Let us find the right accommodations and perhaps also introduce our friends to some of the beauties of Catholicism.

Many thanks for the yard help and means to pay for it.

I have concerns about Thanksgiving. Please stay with us constantly from beginning (and planning) and our various trips home. Let us enjoy each other's company.

You have my thanks for so much more than I can put into words. They come and then pop out just as quickly but still You leave Your presence for me to enjoy. Such a God – surrounding me always.

438)

Oh,

God, who is so grand and so almighty, help me to understand and live the life You desire of me. Enter my soul in a most profound way so that my struggle to search You out is not an endless one. Here I am in my most human element – so far removed from Your path at times and then, in a rare moment, seeking it out and finding it again. Bless my endeavors please and see that my wishes to be close to You always coincide with my actions. Draw me to You again, please, so I may draw near to You after death.

Do you really believe I would leave you? How could I? I see your struggles and your hours of study, prayer, and actions. Do not be discouraged. You are pleasing to Me and shall gain your spot near Me after death. Come now

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

– get on with the work of the day. The rest will come.

439)

Enter

My Heart. Remain with Me this hour. You experience My presence as you go throughout your day. Come to Me in your heart, mind, and body. Come join the hands of Heaven and earth that do My will. You are blessed with gifts beyond compassion and steadfastness in the faith. Search out these gifts but do not hoard them. Give them away so that a higher gift may enter. Wait and watch. My hands are your hands. My words must be your words. Bring Me your heart but also your willingness to serve Me. Fall gently into My arms and I will hold you up. Dissolve yourself in My Body so I may be your actions. Listen and heed the words of My Mouth so you may help others with the wisdom of grace. Bear your sorrows, your disappointments, your sadness with the knowledge that we walk together in those moments – hand-in-hand.

Witness also the good and the many blessings that are placed in your path. Reach for the understandings of what you see, hear, and experience. Always, always, look for Me in those moments of confusion and doubt. I will lead you through them. Our oneness cannot be complete until you join Me in heaven but we can still act as one while you are here on earth. Each step, each breath, each blink of an eye, draws closer to that day when you shall meet Me face to face.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

In the meantime, your life must embrace all I send you. You must thrive on the challenges – the newness of each adventure, on the souls around you, on nature, on planning, on travel, on the very air you breath and, of course, on the people – family, friends, new and old acquaintances. See others – look up – look around – be a presence – be My presence – take My hand – I have told you before, you need only to reach out and My hand is there, leading you, directing you – touching you – bringing you home to Me forever.

All those worries and concerns are in My hands. Nothing will happen that you cannot handle with My help. Pray unceasingly, act joyfully when there is joy. Be sorrowful when there is sorrow, and always, always, always be loving. Put on the Lord.

(For _____) cards, letters, prayers, pictures, stories, updates, holy cards, locutions

Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament asks that _____do his exercises to regain his strength.
He will help him count and give him strength.

Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament asks _____ to enter church as least once a week to visit with Him and listen.

Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament asks you to open a window on the next warm day and listen to the birds.

The Crown of Thorns leads to a holy crown in Heaven.

Kiss your cross and pray.

440) Jesus sings:

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Open your ears and hear My Word
Open your heart and receive My grace Carry Me with you from place to place And spread My love to all.

Feast on Me. Feast on Me.
My Heart and My Soul are yours
Break My bread. Drink My wine
And feast your soul on Me.

Carry Me child, show Me in your face and actions.
Delight in My presence. Be joyful at My gifts.
Carry My hands and perform My works. Reach into the power of My Father and ask Him for the opportunity to do His will. He wishes only good on His people. He is just waiting to be asked.

441) You are distressed to learn of _____ death and the circumstances around it.
He is with Me. His life was admirable. He suffered much but was faithful to Me. I loved him then; I love him now. I am asking him to watch over you and protect you. To keep you faithful and to introduce you to Me.

Cry out in your loneliness. Cry out in your desperation. Cry out with all your longings and misgivings. Offer all to Me and I will assuage your pain. I will take it on as My own.
Do not despair. Do not give up, but seek Me in your anguish. Seek Me when you suffer. We will suffer together. Come now, enter into My peace.

442) You see child, how perfection was given My Mother. She blessed the world by her subservience in deference to the wishes of My Father. There are not sufficient words to describe the virtues of My Mother. She brought Light into the world and she brings hope and peace now. Listen to her. She has the words for you when you are despondent over circumstances. She has the help you request when making decisions on how to help others. It is not necessary to offer more than others can accept in a charitable exchange. Others can see and experience what you offer and it is up to them to be truthful and to make an effort not to mislead you of their actual needs. Be kind to them. Be generous of your time. Take them into your prayer life. Show them by example.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

443) You can help immensely with your prayers. Bring your ideas on "Helping Up" to others. I will be there to receive you. The reception will surprise you. There is so much good in the world. Unfortunately, it is rarely recognized. Life can be very complex and it is necessary for you to cut to the basics. Food you do. Hope you must do. Help you must do. Give hope and help. I will lead you strongly even if you feel defeated at times. Rise again and persist. People want to do good. People can not lead always, but you have been given that gift. Ah, you see, a gift you use frequently but do not recognize it as from Me. You will be amazed at how gifted you are.

Our time together begins anew. Not just our conversations, but our actions. Your path becomes clearer as you progress. Look for My help to convince others of the need to serve. "Raise Up" others by helping them up. Cleanse not only their clothes but their souls. Show by example. Keep a smile on your face.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Be joyful and stay strong. I will clear the way.
I will anoint others to be your disciples.
Two-by-two and then many. Different paths will open up in your new ministry and you must set people to those tasks. Trust in Me to bring you the right people.

God Our Father, in Your presence today
We bring our deepest concerns And our hope for a brighter tomorrow.
We bring you ourselves.
Such as we are.
We have trust that You Will care for us In Your
unlimited mercy.
Amen.

444) When you are Mine, your life is a rose to be sniffed by others so they may experience the essence of God. Offering yourself is not without challenges, in fact, it is full of them, so much so that you will tire of them but continue to push on. My help will never fail you.

Come, enter My peace, enter My Heart, lead the life you have prepared for since you were a child. Enter My house, climb the stairs, your energy will increase as you get closer to Me.

Do not fret about what seems impossible. Do not be discouraged at small results. Do, however, come to Me daily and ask advice and direction. Do listen attentively to all you approach. Do hear My voice in your head and abide by what I tell you. You will not be abandoned. I will always be beside you. My Mother has been asking to help you and I have given her permission to go with you. She will assist in your devotedness to the necessary

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

project. This is about you helping others. This is not about you feeling satisfied and justified. You are asking to give a hand up to others. This you shall have.

Again, I say, "enter My Peace." Life is full of needs and it is right to try and help others. Our paths will cross in this newest adventure. You shall see Me as I am. Look into the faces of the poor. You will see Me as I am. You will meet Me face to face. Blessed are the poor for they shall see the face of God and live. Blessed are those who tend to the needs of the poor. Their hearts will remain full and their blessings and graces shall call them to be of service to others.

Enter My peace. Enter My Heart. Live your life in Me and I shall remain with you forever.

Your God, your friend, your helping hand for others.

445) Hold my hand, Lord, as I traverse this next segment of my life. I can only beg Your forgiveness for past mistakes and ask that Your Blessed Mother mold me into the best I can be.

Do not drop the ball but keep at what you are doing for _____. You have already made a significant difference in lives. Others can feel your dedication to making a difference. Your ideas are based on a prayerful life. Feel confident as you go forward.

446) You come with a heart full of emotions and love. You know that death brings life but you grieve for the misery left behind. It is a part of the living cycle and it is also a time of joy for the deceased. _____ is in My arms and will remain there until he completes his transition. He was well loved and his life was one of giving. Do not grieve his soul but only the person you will miss. Tell _____ I will see that he awaits her in Heaven.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

You must go on with your ministry and continue to search out My people in need. Contact _____ and she will assist you. Do not give up as you go through your surgery but take this time to re-group yourself and put things in order. I will be there to encourage and direct you. I will not leave you so you must continue to come here for direction. Rest in My heart as you always do and I will show you how you can most be of service to Me.

447) Put aside all notions of conflict in your schedule. I will pave the way so you may accomplish all your missions. Rest assured I am the hands of the doctor when you have your shoulder surgery. He will be My assistant as I will oversee the surgery and I will be there during your recovery. Look for Me in others whom I will place in your path.

Continue to do your Eucharistic Ministry as you recover. Look for a pleasant and refreshing trip to Ireland and make plans only to have an enjoyable time with your friends. Come back to Me refreshed and ready for the next and newest chapter of your life. A joy, a promise, a wish granted.

Enter the newness of the year with a happy heart knowing you are pleasing to your Lord.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

448) Have you a bit of faith? Surely you know I will not abandon you. Trust Me to arrange it so you will not suffer so that nothing in your life gets accomplished. Do not complain. Do not neglect your duties. Do come to Me often for support and help. Do remember that I love you beyond measure. Spend time in deep prayer. Learn what I expect of you. Polish your prayer life and offer it to Me.

Rich is your spiritual heritage. Impart it to all who will listen. Enter into an era of life where you will be a voice for those with no voice. You will be a lifeline for those who have given up. You are My arms, legs, and voice. Go to those in need. Touch them, hold them, speak soothing words to them. Become one with Me as you go about your daily life. Allow Me to show in your face but mostly in your actions. Be My hands. Bring My love. Act My Heart. Touch My people. Finish your life in a flourish of love. Die in full bloom and all of Heaven will smell the odor of that perfect flower.

449) Enter the era of peaceful existence. Enter My bosom and rejoice for I have praised My Father in your name. I am with you ever and now. You are blessed and you must push on to accomplish My works trusted to you. Finish the last book. Print up a few but leave the distribution to Me. It is time to close a chapter and open a new book. Pages will come and go and you will continue to do My work. I will never leave you. We are together until the end of your earthly life. Continue with your prayers. Seek out our quiet time together. Dress yourself in My love and caring. Heaven awaits.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

450) Reach child and find Me there. Touch child and feel My Heart. Love child and be a part of Me. Your love and gratitude are worth your forgiveness. You are blessed and your heart is overflowing with the emotions of it. Cannot you see how I love My people. If only more would respond to the world of love that circulates freely about them. Always people over machines. Always people over massing the plenty for yourself. Always people over your own comfort.

Rest now as the next chapter begins. Do begin putting your locutions in order so another book will be ready. Do take time to come to Me wherever you find yourself. I will always speak to you when you come. I will always be there when you call. Humiliate yourself if that is what needs to happen in order for you to do My work.

Changes are coming. Dramatic in-your-face changes that cannot be missed. Pay attention to how people respond to these changes. They will be earth changes, country changing, universe changing but more importantly, it will be impossible for those who do not return to Me. My people will roar with graces and mass changes will occur. The evil will be driven from the world for a brief period so that My people can breathe again the breath of God. Watch. Wait. Pray, and, yes, suffer. But do it all joyfully knowing all is in God's plan for humanity. The saving power of God rises from the earth and opens new paths to heavenly glory. Come, follow, be a part of this new world being created as you write. The love of God will prevail in extraordinary ways.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Be of good cheer as you watch the transformation.

451) Come yet closer child and feel My breath as I live in your heart. My warmth encircles you. As you have seen, I care for you a great deal. I protect you and give you strength. You will be most pleased with the rest of your life. You have discovered the virtues of kindness and your heart has become one of giving. There is much that can be learned from your life if others look deeply into your heart and your example.

Carry My world forward and do not be afraid to speak of Me. Do not be hesitant. It is always the right time to call on Me. I will be there to offer whatever help you need. Open your heart to the world – open your arms to the poor – open your life to others that they may see the goodness of a life lived in God.

Should you ever feel hesitant – call on Me for direction. Should you ever feel fear – call on Me for comfort. Should you ever feel lonely – call on Me for love. I practice the very virtues I ask of you. I AM the Corporal Works of Mercy. I AM the Beatitudes. I AM the Virtues you seek. All are gifts I offer – My Spirit offers life – My Spirit spreads the goodness of God – My Spirit is in the hearts and minds of all who believe. My Spirit is a great conqueror. My Spirit will lead you home. Blessed are those who follow the Spirit for they shall be saved.

Thoughts: (I list all my many cares and concerns) Jesus says “turn them over to Me – do My work!”

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Turn to Me throughout your day. Look at Me as I gaze upon you. Don't turn your back but look forward – there is still so much work to be done.

452) You search but do not find. You believe but do not trust. You care but do not follow-up. Do not slide into a state of non-doing. Watch and wait. There is more to come. Prepare by prayer and fasting.

Open the coffers to send money to the needy. Give from your larder when others are hungry. Cash in the chips of your purse strings when others need. You will never eradicate the need but you can sate the hungry for a while.

453) Oh Lord, I feel so ashamed. I can't seem to stop my bad eating habits. I can fast between meals and then stuff myself at meals. Where are my sacrifices for You? Help me to do better and to please You. Help me to have patience and let myself be more willing and able to offer my full attention to those around me – I love You, Lord – help me to show it.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Jesus Speaks Jesus Speaks Year Twelve

454) Would you accompany Me as I go on this repeat journey to My death in Jerusalem? Would you be My Cross bearer as I walk on the path to Calvary? Would you be there to attend My Mother during My passion on the Cross? Would you accompany Me to My Grave? If you can do all these things, surely you will be there at My Resurrection.

I will accompany you as you go through these last days. I will not leave your side. You must offer up all the pain, agony, and sorrows for My holy wounds. You must struggle to breath in the horror of My death, but as you do so, you must remember also the joy I felt in being able to save My people. I provided a permanent home for them, for you, for Ray – a home in My house. A home with My family, a place forever to remain as a child of God.

Come now, toss your worries and cares to the everconsuming wind and relax knowing I am with you now and always. Do not fear the unknown. Do not fear death. Do not fear the future. Do not fear – all is in My capable and loving hands. I love you –

Oh, Lord, how I love You too. Help me to trust. Help me to feel safe. Teach me how not to fear. Bring me ever closer to you. Protect me from attacks of the devil. Protect me from harm unless it is beneficial to you and to my soul. Teach me. Love me. Take me with you when you are ready and help me to be ready for Your call.

455) The wrath of God is upon you. Rejoice that the punishment is meted out while alive as it is ever so much worse after death. Pray as never before. Pray for mercy. Pray for Forgiveness. Pray for a peace to settle on the earth. Pray for a passion to be of service to awaken in all. Pray for the love of God to permeate the hardest of hearts and allow sight to the blind of faith, hope, and charity.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Would you come in the thick of this epidemic? Would you come to pray for mercy? Would you come out of need to be with Me? Would you come because it is too painful to stay away? Would you come?

Do not attempt to predict what only God the Father knows. Pray for His leniency and compassion for His people.

Would You, Lord if there were one hundred good people, annihilate all? Would You, Lord, if there were but one good person, bring death and destruction to this beautiful world You created for Your likeness – man? Teach us, Lord. Stop our sinfulness by removing the devil that pursues us relentlessly. Stop our lack of virtue by clearing the earth of the venomous evil that permeates us and eats and claws at our souls. Come forcefully into our souls and grab Your own people as never before. Look upon us with kindness and be our teacher and friend. Open the hearts of those burdened by the world. Bring us closer to You, my Lord and my God. Bring us to Your feet. Let us all beg You for mercy and forgiveness. Keep us for Your own. Hold us close. Protect us from the onslaught of evil. Drive away the demons that hunt us down in our weaknesses. Bring us to the true Light of the World. Bring us ever closer to You, Lord. Bring us into Your world as You wish it to be. Do not forsake us. Look upon us with the pity you did those You touched during Your life on earth. Cure us body and soul. Give us wisdom and understanding but mostly give us an overabundance of love for You and for our fellow earth travelers – Give us a love of self so that we want only to be close to You. Help us to extend that love to others so they may also come to know You. Help us, Lord – Care for us, Lord. Cure us, Lord – Love us, never cease loving us – Draw us closer to You. Draw us into Your heart. Draw us to the water fountain of Your Mercy. Grasp us tightly so we may not err. Protect us Lord. Protect us! Please!

456) Where is the justice in the state of the world?
You feel as though I am allowing this disease to run

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

rampant. You see the world come crashing down around you – and yet it is not war. It is not man slaughtering man – or is it? Man has many ways of killing. War is only one. Every man for himself is another. Snatching food from the mouths of others is yet another. (See Psalm 30)

You see how I care for you. It is not to remove all suffering but to give you life through the suffering I allow. I do not want you running head first into the thick of this tragic virus. I want to see you loving and caring for those less fortunate. Who among you needs reassurance? You see there is help. You are that help.

You cannot help if you yourself is dying. Listen to the fear around you and calm yourself with prayer. Listen to the cries of others. “Am I doing what I should?” “Have I led a good life?” “Is God disappointed in Me.” Where do I go from here?”

Look to your prayer life. Look to the examples you set. (See Is 65:17). “Happy the people whose God is the Lord.” Look around you. Are these the people you love? Is this where your heart and your life are? Are you being allowed time to enjoy the life that I have sent you? Can you show this life to others who are deprived of that feeling of fullness of life? Where is the sting of death when I am here to assist you when it comes? What is it you worry about? Toss your cares to Me and know even though some will die; I am totally beside them. Feel My presence now. Rejoice that the time to enter My joy is upon many. Heaven fills with the bounty of the good and the earth is cleansed of the evil that has brought it to destruction. The world is not crashing upon you, but heaven is coming for you.

Dear God, please “create a new heaven and a new earth” out of our lives.

Once again You have provided for my need in the daily readings. Help me to see You in the faces around me and draw me closer to You.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

457) Oh, My child, your heart is saddened by the situation in the world. You grieve for a better world and an end to the illness circulating among you. How I have grieved for the sinfulness of man as the devil encircles all. How those sins grieve Me. But you must understand My love; it is forever, not for a moment, not just for one catastrophe. The world is full of evil but it is more full of good. Evil will disappear, good will not. There is an end to this epidemic coming and sooner than most people think and yes, it will be through the hand of God. Look for it. Look to Me for the cure. We are entering the beginning of the end of the virus. We are seeing the correction in the direction of the world. We are seeing what could have been all along. Rest in the knowledge that I am with you always. Rest in the peacefulness of My arms and in the security I bring. Tell others to rejoice as the Easter Season unfolds with newness of life, with refreshing of spirit, with the pure joy of experiencing the Resurrection again.

458) Holy Thursday – Come and offer all your concerns and worries to Me. I answer all prayer, but Holy Thursday is the most special of days. My love pours out onto My disciples and to all the world. The blessings I extend to them, I also extend to you. Go today with lightness of heart and feel the joy in each moment.

Open your eyes to the beauty that surrounds you. Remember that not one needle falls from a pine tree without the blessing of My Father. That small needle has a purpose. It can fertilize, protect a small bug, surrender itself to cleansing fire, or provide a soft spot for a small animal to rest. Will not My Father be pleased when you also accomplish great or small things. Will He not be happy to witness a life of giving and of offering of self. Like the pine needle in its simplicity, every life serves a distinct purpose. Your path is there for you to choose, of course, but My Father lays no obstacle so large that it cannot be overcome. Join with Him today in the joy of remembering that First Eucharist. How many Eucharists have been celebrated since that day? What joy each one has brought in Heaven. What blessings have been extended to the world. Be at peace today and relax in the knowledge that God is in control.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

459) I come to you in the shadows of early morning. The sun will come and enlighten the world as it cleanses itself from the plague. The last of the deaths will begin as the world turns to Me in grateful thanks. This has been a time of beauty but also a time of horror for many who have suffered greatly. Those have helped themselves to heaven but they have also provided the paths for others who have assisted medically, physically, and spiritually to aid them in their suffering. The gates of Heaven have opened wide as graces pour out and souls enter in great numbers.

Put forth your efforts in prayer. Prayer is most valuable during this time. Many can do nothing to help but pray and that is sufficient to bring an end to this holocaust. When you reach out in prayerful deeds and offerings, you reach out to the most destitute as that is where I am too. Come and enter the new world that awaits at the end of this time of fear. This time of suffering. This time of isolation and panic. Come back to the sacraments. Come back to the church. Come back to a life lived for others. When you do this, you return to Me and I await you with open arms.

460) Answer the call for help when you hear it. Do not fear the virus but use it to solidify your work for Me. There are things to be done and it is your path to attend to them. Watch for signs that will tell you where are to spend your energy. Prayer is the starting point. Things will then be revealed.

461) I cry out to you, My Lord and My God, for an end to the bigotry and hatred in the world. I cry out for the people to respond to You in this crisis for humanity. I cry out for You to enter the hearts of all and bring kindness back to the world. Let us learn from this epidemic. Let us grow spiritually and attach ourselves firmly to You as our Savior and God. Bless us all, Lord, and bring us safely through this and let us land at Your feet with praise and adoration for the loving, kind, fair, and generous God You are.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Blessings come into the world in many ways. My graces penetrate and spread like water on glass. They are there for all no matter the circumstances. Your prayer life is a lifeline for many. Do not cease praying!

Who will thank Me when this earth purging ends? Who will continue to pray and return to the churches? Who will see Me as the author of life? Will you allow this to just be another blip on your heart which remains cold or will you warm your heart to Me and allow your soul to soar into the very heavens with thanksgiving and good works. Much suffering will continue as the poor have become poorer and the rich have become richer. It is time for purging and those who do not bend to My will must suffer. They will not find peace on earth until they rest their hearts in Me.

They will not find satisfaction until they see Me in all those who are suffering. The Corporal Works of Mercy live on in many. All must follow their lead. All must attend to the needs of the less fortunate. Only if you follow Me can you – and I am speaking to each of you individually – can the world return to a normal state where worship of Me in great numbers can be resumed and grown into the masses. The swell of those thanking My Father must ascend into the very heavens. The swell of voices in praise and honor to Him must reach the very edges of the universe. Return to the God who made you and the world will be at peace.

462) Come, Lord Jesus, make Your home in my heart.

Enter the era of peace. Enter My home. Enter My heart. Come soon to be with Me and do not fear the unknown. There are those who await you and anticipate reunion. Your work will be carried on by others.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Just as the garden nears completion, so does your life. Why so sad? Be joyful.

463) Here is where your heart is. Here is where we become truly one. My house and your house are one. The saints, the angels, the apostles, all united as one. We are family. We are hearts united. We are the voices you hear: Come join us in a cacophony of voices – a chorus of alleluias – a pleasant but overwhelming voice of joy. Such is My house. Such is My gift. My love outpoured.

464) Help Me to enter Your world in joy and peace.

You come out of concern for My words and not out of trust. Have I not said I will care for you? Yet you worry. How hard it is to face death, no matter how easy or difficult. I will be with you then, as I am now, and will be always.

I will give you a beautiful day and you can be laid out in the garden. I need you here to garden My own flowers. They sing and dance in anticipation.

Certainly, your family will grieve but I will never leave them. You also will watch over them and I will always allow you to comfort them. Grief is painful but cleansing, a sorrow and yet a joy of memories.

465) Enter My heart and remain there. Find there the peace you seek. Enter My world of suffering and do not fear but rejoice. My heart is full of love for you. I do not come as expected but when you are most ready. There is still time for living and rejoicing. You are seeing the worst and you shall also see the best. The world, as it slowly returns to normal, will be forever changed. You must also change with it. Enter a time of peace with your eyes and soul firmly on Me. I will not come until you are ready. Rejoice now and do My work.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

466) Are you ready now?

(Blessed Mother) See My Son – See how He suffered for you. See how He hurts and yet is joyful to be the one to save. See His heart broken and split for you. See His unending love.

(Jesus again) Come Child, clean up your life and toss out all that is unnecessary. Bring Me your soul and I shall wash it clean in My blood. You are ready. You need to understand that there is more to life than earthly living. There is life in Me while on the earth and after you leave it. Do not cry for what is or even what you fear most may come. Be joyful and live moment to moment. Things change and things stay the same. I can do all – I can change all – I can love all beyond your wildest dreams and thoughts. Trust – you are learning to trust. Trust your life to Me. Trust your death to Me. Trust that I will never leave your family. You were put on earth for your family and you need to rejoice for they are all in My hands. My Father and My Mother will see that they do not stray from their chosen paths. They will one day enter Heaven to great rejoicing.

467) Feast of Corpus Christi – Living Room – I am. I care not for your digressions. I care for you – your soul – your desire to be a better person. You will yourself to be perfect but that is not possible child. The fact that you strive for that end is what I look for in you. Do not come with heavy heart but be joyful and enter into My world full of happiness and peace. Bring Me your cares. Turn your sufferings over to Me. Bless others with your quiet presence. Do not lift a word toward them in frustration or anger. Bless yourself often. The devil is very real and attempts to pull you into his world. He taxes your patience and annoys you with missteps and little frustrations. Offer them to Me. You break his power and send him off that way.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Lighten up your heart and offer it to Me. Your world will be much brighter. Put aside your worldly concerns and localize your efforts in your neighborhood and your church and family. Keep up your pray life. Open your eyes and spend time listening. Hear the words and feel the needs of others. Respond with understanding and empathy. As the world changes, so must hearts respond with understanding and kindness. Empathy is not enough – you have a duty to react to negativity by pointing it out. A quietly placed remark to challenge a thought verbalized by others is in order. A small remark to give them pause to think about what they have said. Stay off facebook if it becomes a source of anger – occupy your mind with other things that are more helpful to you when speaking with others. Bring them to Me. Always redirect anger toward Me and let Me handle it. “Pray about it,” is a good phrase to practice. “I’ll pray that you reach the right ability to handle those thoughts.”

468) Enter slowly into this era as it is filled with confusion, despair, and yet hope. The world must encompass all equally. The world must accept each person for their own individual self and not for anything outwardly different from themselves. Each person is important in the success of the world. Each person has a purpose and it fits into the mind of God. Each person is a stepping stone for others to reach Heaven. The world is closely aligned so as to run smoothly if only each person would search for their proper calling. It is so simple. Ask Me. Ask Me to point you onto the path for which you were made. Ask Me to place you where you were born to be. Ask Me for directions for how you are born to use your talents. Ask Me, I will answer you. Do not flounder about. Do not stress over which way to turn. Spend time with Me in prayer. Repeat the prayer I taught you. Repeat the line where I ask My Father that his will be done. If the world of people would only do this, then there would be such peace on earth – so much peace that souls would soar into Heaven after death. Talk to Me. Come running to hear My voice. Listen to Me with your heart. Cry out to Me with your concerns, and then ask how you can do the work you were put on earth to do. Ask – and you shall know and feel confident as you spend the rest of your life in the certainty that you are on the path to Heaven.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

469) Adoration – At long last we meet again face to face.

A small host, a small bit of flattened bread, a crumb of bread, an yet my body and soul respond to the real presence that resides therein. My heart rejoices and my body tingles to be here in Your presence again. Parched, dry from thirst, I beg for You to fill me again and to sate my longing for You. I want to sing and dance and be joyful in Your presence. It is hard to be joyful when I know I am a sinner who needs repentance and the ability to always be pleasing to You.

I know you feel abandoned and lonely. I recognize the sufferings of My people but the world must change if humankind is to survive. I want only the best for My people but that means bearing suffering patiently and praying, always praying. Do not cease praying. Live your life as if it were a living prayer. Look to My own life, it was a prayer to My Father. Take up your cross and do as I would have done. You have the tools and the power to change more than you know.

470) Enter My heart in freedom and peace. Take with you all that concerns you. Bring them and let them rest with Me. Free yourself from earthly concerns and spend your time in preparation for your heavenly journey.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Search your soul for your true self and then bring that to Me. Let Me have your good and your bad and rest it all in Me. You want to change for the better, let Me in, so that I may lead you. You want to abandon all that is evil. Evil cannot enter when I am there. Keep Me close to you and I will be your light and your guide. Keep My name on your lips and no evil words can pass through them. Keep Me on your mind and evil thoughts cannot penetrate. Keep Me in your hands and you will always do My work.

Join Me daily in prayer to My Father. Join Me daily in doing good works. Join Me daily in planning for your future. Join Me and together you and I will always be.

Peace is coming. I tell you this so you may be reassured. My time and yours are very different. Trust that this time, this moment, this second, is safely planned by My Father. He is all-knowing and all-loving. How can you express fear of the unknown? How can you concern yourself with the “why” of things? Just live your life to the best of your ability. See others as you want to be seen. Reach out to help as needs are placed before you, and pray – never cease praying. My Father responds to the softest and sweetest of prayers. Petition Him. He loves to be badgered by prayers and petitions. His favors and His blessings descend on those who beg Him for mercy and ask for help. He knows you are helpless without Him. He knows you need Him. He has you cradled in His palm. If you take Him everywhere with you, He will always carry you with Him. He wants you to want Him back. He wants you to love Him back. He wants you to want to be with Him. If He stopped loving, the world would cease to be.

Cradle these thoughts in your mind and be at ease that God is in control. If He willed this pandemic to stop it would. Ask why He does not do this. What is He allowing it to happen for? What must His people learn? How must they change? What does all this worldly suffering accomplish? Look for His lessons in the depths of your being. Search Him out and you will find the answers you seek.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

471) Speak Lord I'm listening. Tell me what to do and how to go about it. Place the means in my mind and heart and in my path and let me recognize them and run to the help You offer. Cradle me during these stressful times. Keep us healthy in mind and body. Keep us useful to you and bring us together when it is time to enter Heaven.

I cross your mind frequently and I enjoy that you pray often and each thought of prayer, even when you can't concentrate, is a joy for your angel who loves to remind Me continually of your needs and hopes. Your angel is a proponent of what is best for you and she never leaves you, even when you send her to help another, she is also with you. Speak to her, tell her when you need something from Me. She is your advocate. She is also from My Mother. She is handpicked for you, long before your birth. She has waited for you to enter the world. She has helped mold you in My image and she will present you to Me when you die your earthly death. She records all your graces and your failures, but she presents your goodness to Me as a reminder that you have spent your life trying to stay close to Me. She whisks away any blemishes by reminding Me of the services you have given Me. Rest in peace knowing your angel is your special friend and confident. She lights My path for you to follow.

472) I feel so empty, Lord. So abandoned in a world gone crazy with hate, and yet, my own world does not reflect that. My friends are still my friends. Love, peace, justice, kindness still abound. An island in what seems like an ocean of unrest, unhappiness, sickness, death, and violent hate. Bring us your peace, oh Lord. Protect us from imploding into a totally corrupt society. Bring us the leaders we need. Calm our country and let the violence cease. Help me to help others and to accept the burdens you send me.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

My child, My child, you have your own, self-created unrest. Calm yourself and enjoy the peace around your own circle. Spend time doing what you enjoy and rest as you age. You have helped many and you will continue to do that, but you must let go of the unrest that trembles in your heart. Calm, silence, rest, prayer – all good things right now.

473) It's been a long and beautiful relationship with You, oh God. You have been my life-long source of joy. You are my confidant, my spiritual leader, my counselor, and You have continued to hear me and to answer my many requests and prayers. Your vision for me is still unfulfilled. I have such a long way to go, but You stick with me and walk by my side. I can never begin to repay You or show You how grateful I am for Your presence in my very sinful life. Surely, without You by my side, I would have failed many more times than I already have. You are my life line. I run to You continually and You never disappoint. I still struggle to say, "Do with me what Thou will." I still am afraid to turn myself completely to You. I fear I won't meet up with Your expectations for me. I am such a wimp thinking of how I lack the ability to look into the future and trust that You are in charge and, although You would give me heartache and suffering, You would still be in charge and taking care of me. Please give me the ability to turn myself entirely over to You without the nagging fear of the outcome. I love You, Lord, please accept my inadequacies and stick with me for the rest of my earthly life.

Oh, My child, how you please Me by being here. How I miss you when you are away but how I rejoice when you come. You do not displease Me when things get in the way of our spending these special moments together. Your future in heaven is sealed in the Book of Life. Now you must do what you can to raise your status by refraining from sin – particularly of your sarcastic and ill-spoken words. Give your tongue over to My Mother for nothing ever was in her mouth that was evil.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

As you continue to age, offer up all that encompasses aging to Me; I will put your sufferings and all that assails you to good use. Here I am, Come to Me

Here I am, Come to Me

Here I am, Come to Me

Here I am.

474) We have worked long and hard to break the power of Roe vs Wade. We have fought slavery and to bring all to equal justice. We do not want to see it ended in one four-year period when so much progress has been made. The man and the country are separate. Justice for the immigrant. Justice for all people of all colors. Better living conditions for the poor. More help for the aging. Where do you stand? Where are your thoughts? Where is your heart?

Protect the unborn and I will protect the country. It is not one issue. It is the very crux of morality. Life is very sacred and each one is needed. Yes, even the lives of Biden and Trump. Yes, even Pelosi. I ask My people to love Me. That means love each other. Love the warrior for justice. Love the mother who aborts her child. Love the congressman who fights for his beliefs. Love the lying president. Love the rioter and those who lost their livelihood in the riots. Love them all without exception. Pray that this disruption of America has a good outcome. Pray that eyes are opened to the injustices. Let My people see with eyes that are colorless. All are created equal but those who do not have a chance to be born and live are not created equal as they have no voice but yours. They are not equal because they are saints. Pray to the souls of those who were never allowed to be born. Pray to them to bring justice to an unjust world. I will hear their voices and bring the Spirit into the world again, a new Pentecost. Pray for these mothers and fathers who destroy their children. Pray always, but right now is the time to be firm in your beliefs.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

We cannot take in the immigrants if we cannot protect them. We must be able to open our arms and offer them hope, but we must also be able to care for their needs.

A new country must be born of this new generation. Birth is painful and so must this birth be painful, but the end result is beautiful. This new country must offer freedom for all to pray, to live, to be safe, to have the love of neighbor. A new beginning but remembering that new beginnings do not happen without a struggle. Prayer is the best way to fight. It will bring out new leaders. It will allow for change of heart. Hearts will soften toward those who appear different. Love will encourage those who resist. Pray for this transition of hearts. Begin with your own.

Give me the words, Lord, when needed. Give me the courage to say what You wish me to say. Give me the knowledge to be like Solomon and know securely what is the right direction. Help me to pray more fervently. Help me to listen and to follow Your directions. Give me Your blessing, Lord. Give me the words from Your mouth.

- 475) Oh, My dearest, you want good things but are they what is needed. You, you are right when you say “you have been blessed.” You are a descendent of families who prayed. You come from people of faith. Your life has been one of prayer since you were a small child. Yes, you have been blessed. Your prayers do make a difference. Your voice is loud, clear, and constant. My voice is constant too and you make a valiant effort to hear Me and obey. My arms encircle you and My love surrounds you. Miracles occur daily all over the world – also in your household and that of your sisters and your families. Grace is the gift and grace brings miracles. Acceptance is a virtue and you must practice it. _____ is full of the virtue of acceptance. She also prays and her life is a prayer. She will soon have more opportunity for rest and peace, although the sorrow and the cost are palpable. The disruptions in her life have been great and have taken their toll. She cannot rest even when the moment comes. Her life is based on doing for others. She is also full of love. I am as much there for her as I am for you. Your families are in My care. Whatever I allow in the future, it is with My blessing.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

476) My mind is muddled Lord. Help me to see.

Caution as you tread political waters. Keep an open mind to what you see and hear. Arguments can only foment anger. A well-placed word can be of more help. Pray before you open your mouth. Listen before you open your mouth. Think before you open your mouth. Learn to study what you want to say before you say it so that you will be informed. Prepare your words carefully so as to remain neutral in the discussion. Use verifiable data. Look at the total picture.

We need a balance – we need both parties; however, we divide our votes, whatever the outcome. I expect each of us should be praying that the best course for America will be prayers answered. Let us go toward this election as a country united in people who want the best for America and the American people; whatever they may believe that path is. Help us to pray as never before that God will intervene in the many political candidate races and give us the right mix of people to lead our country back to Him.

477) You come in anxiety and you feel it has no base. I am allowing the dissention and the flux of the world so as to let those who are so very dissatisfied stir things to a boil. Remember that boiling purifies and eventually the water settles and clears. So it will be now as those who perpetrate evil will be found out and, as they age, they will turn toward Me. That is My wish – to have more people begin to see that the only peace is peace in Me. Once you can accept that, you will find purification comes to the world. The devil continues to do his worst but that can only be for a short time now. Those who turn to Me are many. I hear them all and they move Me to pity. I love them and you very much. So much that it cannot even begin to be imagined by My people.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

478) Enter, come, enter. Peace be to you and your home and family. I come to offer Myself to you as a respite for your cares and concerns. Enter My peace. My heart is a place of peace. It is a river of love, flowing into the wastelands and bringing them to vibrant life.

I care not what the world thinks of Me and My gifts. I care only for the souls of My people. I place so many opportunities in the lives of those who stray; sadly, they are often turned inward and become greed and lust, and may turn them from Me. Hearts harden very quickly and are much more likely to be self-important.

Do not lose faith, however, because there is a steady stream entering Heaven. These are the people who purified their souls by prayers, deeds, and the graces offered by the sacraments. These are those who have lead others, prayed for others, ministered to others, and offered their own lives and miseries for the redemption of others. These are those whose very lives have shown like a beacon, leading, dragging, begging, pleading, and most important of all, praying, suffering in silence, fasting, and, like you, coming to visit with Me. If people would only hear Me, they would see the many, many graces and benefits of sitting with Me and spending time with Me. Gaze upon

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Me and allow Me to penetrate your soul. Listen as you gaze, and hear My voice. Hear Me sing to you and wrap you in My warmth and take your soul soaring into the bliss of My love. Weep with Me over those lost.

Come, let us pray together to My Father. He alone controls the destiny of the earth and the heavens. He alone has the power over the universe. Together we will pray for His leniency. We will call upon His mercy for all of mankind. We will ask Him to unleash the power of the angels to rid the world of hatred and evil – to again toss out the devil and cleanse the earth of so much unhappiness. Then only will all men truly be able to see into the hearts and souls of others and accept them for the good people they are. Then only will peace come back into the world.

Pray with Me and send a voluminous chorus to the ears and heart of My Father.

479) Adoration – Feast of the Holy Guardian Angels. It is not just your own angel to whom you pray for guidance, but everything has an angel. Each flower, each petal, each leaf. The world floats on the wings of the angels. Pray to the angels of the world, of the universe, and of the heavens. You cannot count their numbers but I know and love each one. When you pray to them to intercede for you, the roar is great in Heaven. My Father loves His people and so when He looks on His perfect creation of angels and they are beseeching Him in your name, He cannot help but come to your aid.

When you look upon Me, stationary on the altar, look further and you will see the magnificent presence of My Father. Feel His power. Feel His majesty as He spreads His arms, and might and power flash out and encompass you in His protective arms. Do not take your eyes from Me and you will see and feel the pulsation of My Father.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

This, therefore, is the continuous vision of the angels. Their power comes from God through this vision. Only you and your sins can cut off the vision. Only you and your prayers can continue to be connected, through your guardian angel, directly to the vision of God.

480) Adoration – Dear Jesus, I am so sorry for my lapses in honor and glory to You. My mind seems to quickly lose what is placed there. Please allow me to continue to honor and serve You. Please do not abandon me to a world where I cannot love and serve You.

Oh, daughter, you do not displease Me. I am grateful for your desires to serve Me. I care only for your best interests and it is there you must rest and know I am always with you. You have entered a shell and you hide from the world. I know it is difficult for you to come out. This new ministry is one of hope for a brighter world and for you. Continue and it will become a beloved ritual and you will be an example to others.

I'm sorry Lord, I got very wrapped up in the awe of You and I failed to honor You. Help me to do better. Help me to remember to bow to You and bless myself. You are so mighty and powerful that I shake in handling Your blessed Body. Grant me, please, proper reverence and the ability to perform the act of bringing You to the altar as it was intended. I am so very grateful and so very in love with You. I wish only to please You.

481) Adoration – Peace be to you, as always. I come in peace. While the world seems full of hate, it is not. There are only a few in many who push their hate upon others. They try to persuade you that it the only option. Love is the real option. Disagree, of course, but hate, never. Enemies, yes, but wishing them harm, never. All people should have the same respect for their rights but some people refuse to respect the rights of others. Some people feel the need to degrade and blame and refuse to find any good at all in another

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

– and so they avoid them. This makes the distance and differences even broader.

Come – come together. Peace – peace to one and all.
Love – yourself and everyone. Each one is a child of Mine. Each one is a sibling of yours. Do not harm them. I tell you that I love even the very least of these. I tell you that you also must love even the worst of people. Their needs can only be met by kindness. They can only be changed by love. Treat people, not as they treat you, but as God treats them. I do not say not to correct them in a sinful situation, but do this always with kindness and love. It is so much easier to turn a sour heart with love than with hard and hurtful words. My people respond to love. They search for it, pray for it, and work for it. Love is always the answer. Love as if it is the very last moment on earth. Forgive as if you will never have another chance. Pray as if you were on your way to meet God – which, in fact, you are.

Care for those marginal people who so need your love and respect. See Me in them. They are a reflection of Me. I was bullied and mistreated and many felt I was disposable. They turned their backs on Me. Look at their loss. Had they faced Me and looked into My eyes and My heart, they would have been transformed. They would have soared into Heaven. Tell people about Heaven, about My Father, about our love, and then, come here, and tell Me about it.

482) Adoration (Garage Door Broken) – Oh Blessed Lady and my heavenly Mother. I am so grateful for your miraculous intervention. What joy to be here and adoring your child.

Settle yourself, child. Calm yourself and revel in My presence. I could not let a little earthly problem deny Me of your presence.

Yes, when you look at Me, the altar explodes with holiness. My Father, the Spirit, My Mother, multitudes of angels and saints – all here with you in adoration.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Draw on their strength. Feel their holy energy. Let their spirituality absorb you into their being. Close your eyes and be raised up in ecstasy.

483) Adoration – You touch my heart Lord, in a way that cannot be described. It takes my breath and brings me great joy. It gives me immeasurable sorrow for my sins and pushes me to try again to please You always.

Oh, heart so close to Mine, I am always so pleased to see you here to visit. Come often and I will bring you rest. Come in your heart when you cannot come in person. We are always together. I answer your prayers, your calls, and your desires, even when you do not verbalize them to Me. I open My Heart to your requests and you receive graces of more worth than gold. Money doesn't purchase Heaven. No gold or silver or precious stones can gain you entrance. Only your good works, your prayers, your sufferings, and the way you live your daily life, all of these pave your pathway to Heaven. All these sweep clean the dirt and sins so that the way is clear.

484) I have come to save the world. It still fights to enter heaven without My help and yet there are so many signs to point the way. You cannot enter heaven on your own. You could never be worthy, but once you join My army, receive My graces, use My help – ah! – then heaven's doors open wide to you.

Use your pains, lack of movement, unhappy days, and turn them into the joy of giving that pain and suffering to others in need. Each breath you take can be offered for those who struggle to breathe. COVID-19 continues to ravage the world and yet so many people fight it. So many people still feel they are above taking precautions. They believe they are in charge of their lives. Sometimes it is too late for them, other times they feel they have overcome the pandemic alone because they are special. All of My people are special but those who turn to Me in love and in need, those are My people.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Continue to push on. Continue to pray. Continue to offer up your suffering. Turn your eyes and your heart heavenward and meet Me in the suffering world.

485) My child, we are together. You are offering up so much pain and suffering. You gain your place in Heaven each time you give away your suffering. I am here for you. Just call My name. Enter My world.

Never feel that we are not connected. The distance is not because you cannot attend church. You will return again soon but it will be different. Our distance is a chance for you to trust in Me. A chance to build a deeper relationship. I will lead you further into My Heart but you must find quiet time to spend together.

Just sit and think of Me. Think of My miracles in My life on earth and those that occur daily in the world. Think of the years and all the time we've spent together and build on it. Prepare yourself for our meeting face to face and remain steadfast in your love of Me. Whatever you need, just ask. Cry out to Me when you are lonely and missing our time together. We will find that time – just look for it and it will be there.

486) My heart pounds when we find that singular moment when I feel I'm meeting with You in Your heart. I can't explain it, only that my heart is on the edge of excitement and yearning for that moment when you draw my spirit out of myself. It's a moment of expectancy and longing for completion. Your peace leaves me breathless. Who could ever deny your passion for your people? Please continue to carry me forward to that day I can meet you in person. Do not let me stray. Help me with my feeble faults and bring me home.

487) I am so pleased to spend quiet time with you. I know you have felt close to Me lately and miss our time together. You are healing now and you are looking for busy projects. Lent is coming and you are trying to think of an appropriate penance. Touch base with relatives and friends. Phone calls, notes, emails, messages, texts – all ways to reach out to others and wish them well.

Jesus Speaks Years X, XI, XII

Make an effort to be calm and trust in Me for the healing you seek. Spring will bring sunshine and a relief as you can do some yard work. Remember others as they celebrate special days alone and invite them into your world until you isolate to visit Matthew. Keep up your exercises and offer them up during Lent. This helps you and others.

Keep a silence rather than engage in harmful discussions. Be a quiet light of patience and calm in a world of intense emotions. Offer only prayers rather than participate in gossip.