Jesus Speaks – Year XIII

The decree of the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, A.A.S., 58, 1186 (approved by Pope Paul VI on October 14, 1966) states that the Nihil Obstat and Imprimatur are no longer required on publications that deal with private revelations, provided they contain nothing contrary to faith and morals. The author wishes to manifest her unconditional submission to the final and official judgment of the magisterium of the church to which she humbly submits.

Mantra: Let go and let God. Let go and let God.....

Here I am Lord, I've come to do your will.

Jesus Speaks Year Thirteen

488) Oh child, praising God is a full-time life passion. You can never praise enough and yet God is still satisfied with your loving praises.

You live in a world full of beauty. You are so blessed. Use it wisely. It is also beautiful in your eyes because you have such faith and gratitude to God for His blessings. You have brought Me into your home. You saturate your house with images and reminders of Me. My Father is pleased and has blessed you greatly. You have only to look around you to see and feel His loving protection for you.

Continue to pray and offer your daily discomforts to Him. There are many who suffer silently and you can help them as they come to you for friendship and understanding and a listening ear. Reach out to Me when you struggle for the right words. Don't be nervous about reaching out through phone calls and emails and even feedback. Show that you care.

The deep-seated longing cannot be satisfied on earth but you can reach out for others and touch them in spirit. (Ephesians 4:1-6)

489) Feast of the Visitation – I feel as if I have been away from You for a long time and I need so desperately to sit in Your presence and just breath.

Jesus Speaks Year XIII

Come child, sit with Me and enter My peace. Release those pent-up emotions and let Me soothe your soul. Reach for Me Child, reach – but you will find I am sitting right here beside you. Rest your head on My shoulder and feel the peace.

There is a spark, or moment, and the soul enters the body of a seed of a child and everything they need for life is there. Not even a second but a time set aside by God for that very person to begin a journey. A journey with a specific destiny. The winds of the world whirl around, the storms come, the sun burst through and the path remains to be followed. There are missteps and solid footings. There are doubts and determinations. There are pot holes and quiet moments, where the vessel of life speeds across the calm waters. Connect with Me in all those experiences. Feel Me in all those seconds of life. Reach for Me and find Me.

As one moment, one day, one year, one lifetime surges on – I am there to lead you home to Me. My path for you could be long or extremely short but it is My path. My wish is to have you follow it, follow Me. I will never desert you. Reach for Me.

490) Before 8:30 Mass – Did you come for food and refreshment? Ah, you have come to the table set before you. A table like no other. Food, yes, for the body, yes, but more for the soul. Your soul is hungry for the bread that can sustain it forever. Hungry for what the world cannot give. My Body is the life you need. Take and eat and live.

491) When does this end. Lord? How can I help when it is so difficult just to cope? You sent so many plagues to the Egyptians and even then, they pursued their evil. They were washed only by You and Your Red Sea miracle. Do we wait for Your deliverance? Do we actively respond and foment more problems? How do I pray so that it has the most benefit to end this holocaust of values? Bring me to Your feet, Lord, so I may serve You best there.

Can you not have patience? All in good time. There is purpose to everything. Good arises from all that happens even when it seems the most dismal. My workers are bringing peace and changing lives despite all you hear. Your own troubles are a result of the influence of the world on values. Less talking and more listening. This forces the talkers to listen to themselves.

492) Adoration, Immaculate Conception Church – Oftentimes life seems insurmountable but it is then I am closest to you. I am your home, I hold your heart, I come to you in your darkest hour. Offer it all to Me and I will reward you greatly. Do not come to Me empty handed. Bring your troubles, your heartaches, your pain, and your suffering. Also, you must bring your prayers, your sacrifices, your good actions, your kindnesses, and your love. I receive them all and together we celebrate our friendship. Years are but an earthly measurement of time. There will be no time when you at last come fully to Me. You will then understand why and how your suffering was given. We will not be separated. The fullness of your life of devotion to Me, to My Heart, to My Mother – all will be celebrated. Your missteps, your desire to be sinless, your concerns about an imperfect life – all will be rectified because of your efforts to be close to Me.

493) Adoration – Oh God, help me to understand Your ways. Help me to make use of all You have given me to use for Your honor and glory. Deliver me from evil and guide me on the right path. I need the gifts of Your Holy Spirit to continue serving You. I need Your guidance. Send Your Light that I might not stumble. Please, I Pray, keep my children and their families close to You always. Do not abandon us.

Oh, My child, your life is but a short moment in the time of the world. You have made many good decisions and worked diligently to uphold My Word to others and especially to your family. Sometimes your efforts fall on deaf ears and hardened hearts, like the seeds among the thorns. Still, they are sewn, and some good will come of it.

494) Adoration – Put away your current thoughts and look at Me. I am here for you now as always. Drop the thoughts that tear us apart. Close in on My Heart where you reside. Life is a suffering and I have prepared you for it. Take what you have treasured and share it with others. There is time for you to rectify all wrongs and to bring the peace you have so longed for.

Peace child, peace be to you. Rest, child, rest in the love of Me. I shall always, always, be here for you. Sing My song and rest in Me.

495) Adoration – I come today with a heavy heart, oh Lord. I am so disturbed by all that has happened in the last few months. I want to hibernate and wake up to a fresh new world.

Soon child. If I comfort you, will you relax and accept that I am still in charge? You worry about things that are passing. You asked for a return of your children to Me and so they shall. Each in their own way. I am never away from them. I am never away from you.

Where do I go from here?

Time is healing. Prayer and sacrifice are healing. Fasting is healing. Mass, the Sacraments, devotions, the Rosary – all are healing. Come to Me often and ask for healing and grace. Continue to pray for My direction.

496) First Friday and St. Theresa –
Month of the Holy Rosary.

Gratitude!

Jesus Speaks Year XIII

Open wide your arms and accept the future unabashedly. Give of yourself. Give of your largesse. Give of your spiritual life and never cease praying.

*I can't do my best, Lord, I can only do Your best.
Such a gift!*

I bring a newness to your lives. A share in the Resurrection. Blessings of a different sort will soon display themselves. With your eyes and arms wide open to accept them, be expecting miracles, a newness, a sense of early morning dewfall, the promise of a new dawn, a new day – a rainbow of giving, a time for repentance, a time for sharing. Do not lose a day of living life to the fullest. Your earthly life is short compared to eternity. It is not a duration but a time to be productive. Make each day a prayer.

497) Adoration – What joy we have in being together! Set with Me awhile and rest.

Children are My gift to the world. They are not all easy to raise and often cause contention among the family members. Some are sickly and consume the family resources. Some demand attention and cause friction when they don't get it. Others are more easily molded and become the peacemakers and the leaders. Each experience in life builds on the person they become as adults. Lives can always be molded by prayer. Prayer transcends the time, place, and circumstances. Prayer unites and does not divide. Prayer is the Job's Ladder to Me. All prayers are answered. All prayers are forever. Do not cease praying. Do not be discouraged, but petition even harder when life becomes difficult.

498) After Mass in the Chapel. I am here, Lord. Please make use of me.

Your prayers, child, are heard, your prayers are listened to by all in Heaven. The graces of prayers and sacraments and offerings are distributed as the Blessed Mother feels the need. You do not see the good you do.

Quiet is often the answer to a prayer. Sometimes quiet is the prayer. Sometimes quiet is the offering. Find God in the quiet. Find Me in the faces of others. Find the Spirit in the rumblings of your soul. You are never without Me.

Your sufferings are many. Your spirit is goodness. Patience is needed. The saints are all available to help you. Do not feel guilt when you call upon them. Let them guide you. Sometimes My foot steps are shaped like a cross. That is when your urges to follow will be stronger but more difficult. Do not be afraid. I am with you now and always. Hallowed be the name of God. Praise Him always. Pursue Him relentlessly.

499) Adoration – Love, that is what I want of the world. We are all part of My Father's plan. Enter into the planning of each person as the families traverse the centuries. Look at how diverse the world has become. We contain pieces of all who went before us. As those pieces are assembled in a new human being, they become unique. My own family was so diverse as to have sinners and saints. I brought forth all of those diversities when I was conceived by My Mother. I also brought forth the pure, radiant, goodness of My Father. What a heritage!

My Mother understood this and raised Me to be God and man. She was given much by My Father in anticipation of My birth. My perfect Mother, My Immaculate Mother, her heart increased so as to take in everyone in the world throughout the years of the earth – but still her heart is caring of all the angels in heaven. All her heart wants to do is to please Me. She will go to any length to bring Me souls. There is a bottomless pit of love and goodness that radiates from her. You do well to follow in her image. Walk with her. It is not an easy walk, but one of hardships and pain. All gladly welcomed as her way of loving and honoring Me. Such faith she carried with her! Such prudence in all she said and did! I could feel her love and nearness before she ever touched Me. Her spirit filled every space when she was near Me. Such joy! You do well to pray to her. She is always listening for heartfelt prayers. She is always ready to answer prayers. She beseeches Me and My Father constantly to answer prayers, to lighten the load we bear.

Jesus Speaks Year XIII

Yes, she asked to lighten My load by taking all for herself. Such love, such selflessness. Emulate her. Follow her as she is always with Me. Invite her to your conversations with your children. Invite her into communion with your friends. Bring her to your dinner table. As long as she is a part of your life, you need not fear. Come now – sit with Me and I will bring My Mother. Breath us into your very being.

500) Chapel – Where are You, Lord? I feel You, I want You, I love You. Where are You, Lord? I pray. I go to church. I receive the Sacraments. I assist others. Where are You, Lord? I need to feel You. I need to clear the fog, the cloud, the thickness away and be with You. Why can't I find You in my daily life, in my prayers, in my mind? Where are You, Lord?

Hope in the Lord.

Lord, I hope in Thee.

Have faith and believe in Me.

I do Lord, I have faith in You and I believe in You.

Come to Me.

I am here, Lord.

My Mother also comes with Me. She comforts you in your distress. She cares for you in your weakness. Her touch is palpable. She faced such difficulties, so many hardships, so much hatred; but she never ever stopped loving those who mistreated Me. She saved many from the death of hell. Her love radiates into a world turned cold. Her presence is everywhere just as I am. Rely on her to ease your sorrow and your frustrations. Just love, that is as much a purpose as anything else you do. Just love.

501) Adoration – Take My love for you. Soar with it, reach for the Heavens and enter My Heart anew. Let Me warm you so that you are never cold with heartbreak and loneliness again. Push aside the worries and tears. Only joy awaits you.
You cannot imagine Heaven.

Ground yourself and your sister in Me. Say the Hail Mary and bring down the graces from My Mother. Sing her praises and thus sing Mine. We are family – remember, we are all family. When you are distressed, plopp yourself in the center of MY Earthly family and allow the peace and love to wash over you. This is your home, at My home in Nazareth. Bring us to your home and we will also abide with you.

You have made yourself a safe haven to worship, praise, and pray. Do not hesitate to pull us into prayer with you. Such is My wish – to pray with My earthly family. Nothing pleases Me more than being surrounded by prayer and love. Even on the Cross, the love and prayers of My Mother encircled the pain and I was able to bear it. She and I shared the pain and prayed together as I hung there. Join us now in family prayer and never be lonely or depressed.

Bring your love and your longing to us as we pray together. Peace be with you always until you rest in Me. I love you to your depths, revel in it. Touch the tassel of My cloak in prayer and be healed.

502)– Morning prayers with Our Lady at her altar – (in my home.)

Enter the time of war.

Our Lady of Peace, pray for us.

Enter the time of uncertainty

Jesus, have mercy.

Pray unceasingly that My Father's anger abates. Pray that His love swallows the world and eliminates hatred, greed, and war. Pray for the end of the devil's reign.

503)– Tuesday before Ash Wednesday – ICC – Adoration – What a state the world is in Lord. How ever can we compensate for the evil that seems to continue to confront and destroy. It is a joy to see the response of good people and to know that so many prayers are being said to end the injustices in the world. Please add my own to the voice being raised for peace.

Peace cannot come as long as people only give Me lip service. Acts, charity, compassion, care-taking, are all part of prayers. Peace is easy if everyone loves. Greed, power, control, are all evils that the devil sends to push people away from Me. Keep praying. Keep petitioning My Mother. Most of all, love.

The atrocities you are seeing are the final works of the devil as he flees from the areas where prayer is rampant. Prayer weakens his power which he is only allowed to use for a short time. People must change their lives. They must look toward Heaven and ask forgiveness. They must begin to act with mercy and charity toward others, not just their friends but all others.

Bring Me those lost in a material world. Bring Me those relying on social media for their love and protection. Bring Me those who are unable to find the right path. I will shelter them. I will round them up and lead them into the arms of My waiting father.

Take part in celebrations of the Mass. Take part in being a beacon of hope for others. Become the lighted candle in the darkness. Introduce others to prayers. Do not be afraid to draw others into your prayer life. Make your home a haven for those desperate for a spiritual outlet. Bring peace to others and it will spread to the world.
